Can you explain to me why you stated in the certificate of service that you served this on me via email on May 4, despite that your email below is dated May 9 (five days later) and that you state below that you placed it in the mail "yesterday" (May 8)?

Can you also explain what your actual mailing address is? As indicated now on seven occasions, we cannot serve you on South Twain Avenue because South Twain Avenue does not exist.

Good afternoon.

I'm sending this to you for you to receive. I put this in the mail yesterday.
