

This document concerns “AFRM” or “AFRMation” and their behaviour and is meant to be an archive of their part in it.

WARNING: NSFW AHEAD (INCLUDING IMAGES/PORN)

DO NOT GO OUT OF YOUR WAY TO HARASS OR CONFRONT
PEOPLE INVOLVED. IT IS NOT NEEDED AND PEOPLE ARE GOING THROUGH THINGS ALREADY.

Also if you aren't in the Ocean Terror or Regretevator community don't bother looking at this.

TL;DR:

AFRM has made ton of NSFW artwork of Ocean Terror characters and others, can't stop saying faggot, associated with weird people, and is overall pretty damm weird.

For better understanding, i will list people involved (Age included if needed):

AFRM - 17

Angler - One of AFRM's current partners - 15

Seah - One of AFRM's friends (or past friends idk) - 15

Red - Houseplant Affinity member - 18

Blue - Houseplant Affinity member - 17

Yellow - Houseplant Affinity member - 17

Censored names are of the people that are in the clear ^

1: The GC

Context: AFRM along with Angler (They were not in a relationship at the time of this happening and were both in their own separate relationships) Created a Discord GC for the sake of having a more unfiltered OT-related group as the word “Faggot” was recently banned in HA which apperently ticked AFRM off. They invited others to the GC including Seah who was a friend of AFRM and 3 other HA members that didn't have any direct link to AFRM other than they occasionally talked. One of them being Red, who they knew were 18.

The GC started getting sexual almost immediately as this is already around 10 messages into the creation of the GC.

(“Rivulet the scrunkly” and “ValientManta” is Angler)

Red suggested them to stop at multiple times and pointed out they were uncomfortable. Angler specifically flirted with Red a lot despite knowing they are an adult.

I could include 100 different screenshots of AFRM and Angler being insanely sexual but i think this should show the general idea of it.

Eventually the GC was leaked by a member and brought to our attention and i (amb) personally find all the sexual things about characters that i created very off putting.

After talking to the other people in the GC they all have stated that AFRM and Angler got them into any NSFW talk and all feel manipulated by both to the point of having issues with mental health.

We brought the two into a GC to talk about it and AFRM said that it wouldn't happen again however the exact same time they dmmed one of the members that the GC is gone "until they make a new one". Clearly AFRM has no remorse or issue with any of the things that happened and is more sorry for getting caught than sorry for what they engaged in.

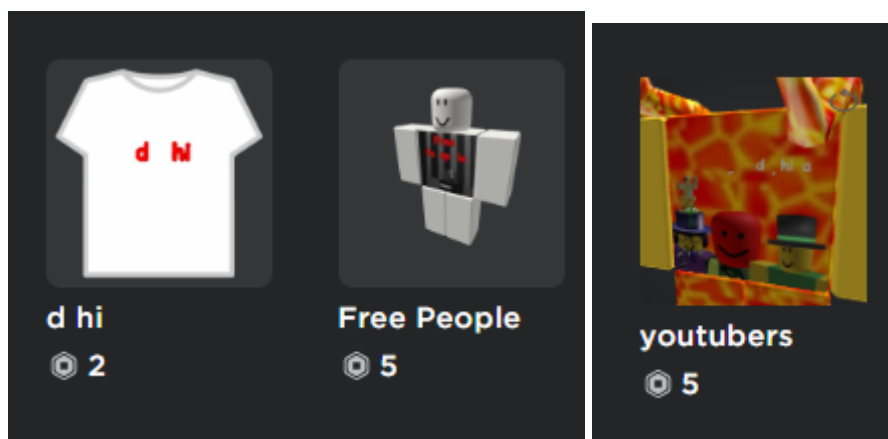

Some people might be quick to point fingers at the 18 year old for not doing anything in this situation and to that i just wanna say AFRM is 17. At that age you should have enough self control to know this. Just because one person is one year older doesnt mean they should act like a parent for this gc. They knew the sexual situation that was going on and choose not to engage in it.

2: Misc

Extra things i feel like mentioning.

AFRM was one of the people to spread this shirt around a ton and in a way promote the group that made it. This would be nothing in particular if it wasn't for the fact the same group makes bypasses shirts saying "free pedophiles" along with shirts of known groomers.

I could go into a ton of detail about Angler and how being associated with this person is a shitty thing but if i would have to mention everything Angler has done it would be pretty extensive so i won't.

---

I didn't mention this as it doesnt mean much to me but AFRM is 17 while Angler is 15 and it's weird how AFRM never notices that talking sexually like that to eachother is perhaps a little weird considering the maturity gap.

---

In conclusion: AFRM is a sex addicted weirdo with too much free time and is scared of getting caught.

3: Update

For some reason AFRM decided to talk about this on their Discord server and i will use this section to clear up some lies and misunderstandings.

1: I personally talked to a few Houseplant Affinity members who had Angler and AFRM friended about their behaviour as i feel it is important that they know who they have added/might be talking to. I NEVER talked to anyone of AFRM's friends who weren't in HA. I have no idea who else AFRM is friends with and i am not interested in trying to destroy or harm their circle as this was an HA issue.

2: This was not meant to be public at all. This document was meant to be sent to specific HA people as mentioned above. The doc was leaked when one of AFRM's friends tweeted about the situation and it was sent to the op so they fully knew who they were defending.

3: We DID talk to AFRM and Angler in a private gc when it was all first leaked. I have no idea why some people believe we "released" the doc and called it a day because as i said before, we never wanted to release the doc.

4: Blaming this whole thing on hypersexuality is just very insensitive and i do think it's an excuse. While yes it might have been a part of it, AFRM should still have enough self control to know when to stop something. I have talked to the others who were in the gc and they all share the same opinion. Reminder that the others in the gc also had hypersexuality.

5: If you're main concern is that we "breached privacy" by telling some people about this gc then i think you are looking at it wrong. We had the gc leaked by one of the members and later talked to the others who all agreed it was bad and felt uncomfortable by the actions of AFRM, Angler and Seah. After a while we banned them and told like 2-3 people who had them added and were active members in HA. It did not go very further than that at least that i know of.

6: It seems kind of obvious that AFRM isn't letting their followers know fully what is going on. When one of their friends tweeted about it and was later confronted by the evidence in this doc they seemingly had no idea and was surprised. It seems hypocritical of AFRM to claim we are "gaslighting people" when they later go onto their Discord server to spread that exact lie.

I cannot stress this enough: This DID NOT need to be public. I have no idea why AFRM brought this up or started talking about it when they could have left it alone. I hope AFRM can just move on to their new community and do whatever they wanna do there. My intentions were only to get them out of the Ocean Terror community which worked, i have no desire to hurt their reputation or anything.
