Some little backstory

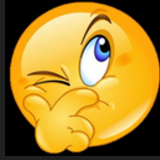

AntiTroll (allegedly either Savetion or Emoji man, both were foodists), is a mysterious figure, known for leading a group called the “AUTTP”, in which their purpose or goal is to take down the group called “UTTP” (UTubeTrollPolice), and the group even has their own subreddit and their own discord server which is now called “ATA” (AntiTrollArmy) to avoid getting banned by discord as their last server was (presumably) banned for having the letters “UTTP” in their server name.

There are a lot of rumors and allegations suggesting he used to be a Foodist member (a very infamous group for distributing CP and extorting minors). And they do contain relatively strong arguments as on how and why he has access to foodist-exclusive content uploaded on his videos, which his only argument against that is that... Him downloading it from their server???? Which really evades the question itself asking how he got access to that material.

Either way, the allegations became more apparent, because he talks in an extreme simile way to both Emoji Man and Savetion.

While being not as scary and compulsive as the other Foodizsten member, it's still considerable he was apart of a criminal group and he seemed to definitely played this game before and a big part on this.

About the “AUTTP” / “ATA”

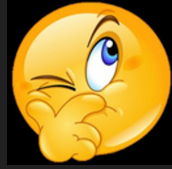

Having been formed on 12th of September, 2021, the AUTTP (lit. Anti-UTubeTrollPolice), which is now called ATA (presumably AntiTrollArmy), is a group that sought to take down the other group they are against with, which is (surprise, surprise), the UTTP (UTubeTrollPolice), which is also a group that claims to seize and arrest trolls, but despite their group having the name “UTube” in them, they do also have Discord servers and sometimes Subreddits too.

Both groups are funnily enough, on war, as stated in their wiki page, with UTTP, and now this guys, is called LARPing, where you pretend as a soldier, commander, general, whatever for a certain clan then conduct raids on servers, and even youtube comments. Both AUTTP and UTTP are strikingly similar because both claim to be “against trolls” but ironically they are the trolls themselves, the only difference is that AUTTP is not against homosexuality (they have members with LGBT flags, which kind of means that they are openly and proud to be part of the LGBT), and the same couldn't be said for UTTP as these people are against any kind of homosexuality, anime, and is mostly a racist community.

AUTTP's server got banned by Discord around late August or early September, due to the fact that their server contained the name “UTTP” and some members got suspended with reason ban evading. But, they made a new server and, after ‘defeating the UTTP’, they adopted the name they have been using now, the ATA, still being led by Antitroll, and the server is a melting pot of fandoms, people from the fandoms of CountryBalls, CountryHumans, and other fandoms that is seen by almost everyone as ‘degenerate fandoms’.

About Antitroll

Antitroll, is (presumably) a well known character among the AUTTP community (obviously, because he is the leader). He allegedly used to be part of the Foodizten, a group infamous for distributing CP and extorting minors, and with this dark past of his, there is no doubt that he possesses CP. He is also allegedly Savetion, and Emoji Man, both of which are Foodists themselves.

While many (especially those who are part of the AUTTP/ATA) see him as a good person due to the fact that he is against UTTP, because... they're trolls? (Which is, again, pretty ironic because they are trolls themselves too!!!), but outside, many see him as a piece of shit, a lifeless retard, a pedophile, and many claims that he possesses CP (there is actually a screenshot of him sending Daisy's Destruction to an anonymous person, but this is only an ALLEGATION because, the screenshot was taken on desktop, which means the person who screenshotted might have done some inspect element then kaboom - now it looks like that Antitroll sent the Daisy's Destruction!).

While these are allegations, there are some instances that Antitroll expressed some... let's say questionable stuff, but we'll get more on to that later.

Let's talk about that it's possible that Antitroll used to be part of the Foodists:

How the hell does Antitroll have access to that??

(it was only accessed by 2022 Foodists members)

(AntiTroll only started acting against the foodists in 2023 which is the same date Emoji Man and Savetion left the foodists and wanted revenge.)

(Reminder: The only conclusion we can come up with, Is he was definitely apart of the 2022 foodists server)

Child makes fun of dead youtuber :

4.6K views

His debunk was that He downloaded it from the foodists server.

Little does he know, the Foodistzens got wiped off the internet in 2023 January.

And he claims he has access by downloading it as of August of 2023...

...which is a big lie.

Another Video uploaded by Antitroll,

That was again, only accessed by the foodists.

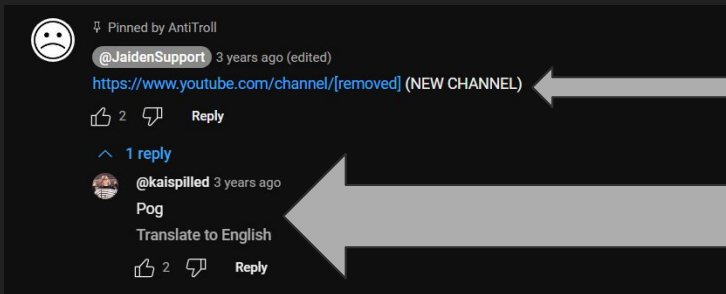

This alone raises a lot of suspicions
How this guy has foodistzen-exclusive content.

It's even more sketchy he has no strong argument against these allegations.

There are rumors this link directed to emoji's man channel

Foodist member spotted

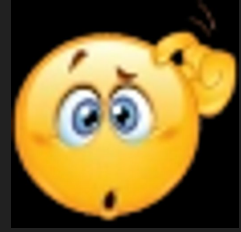

More instances of him behaving way too similarly to the former foodist Emoji Man:

This gives off major
Emoji man vibes

Who is “Emoji Man”

Basically Imagine Savetion but 10 times more autistic and immature, Emoji Man and Reginmyre used to trade illegal content in Foodistzen times a LOT.

While Emoji Man is very obscure and non-famous in contrast to Foodistzen and Savetion, he was the “autistic immature guy” in the Foodistzen server.

If AntiTroll isn't Savetion, he's very likely to be Emoji Man.

Time to get into the evidence

60% something Savetion would say, 40% Emoji Man would say

Could this be Emoji Man???

After negotiating with Antitroll,
He has “unintentionally” admitted to CP possession (something Emoji Man would do, weirdly enough he negotiates like Savetion)

Screen Recording of AntiTroll Saying Weird stuff about Minors

Proof it's AntiTroll himself.

Some of yall are probably wondering
“Why the fuck is he speaking in images??”

Honestly, I have no idea.
According to him, it's just so ‘I can't inspect element stuff on him’

Which is pretty ironic as you are going to see soon.

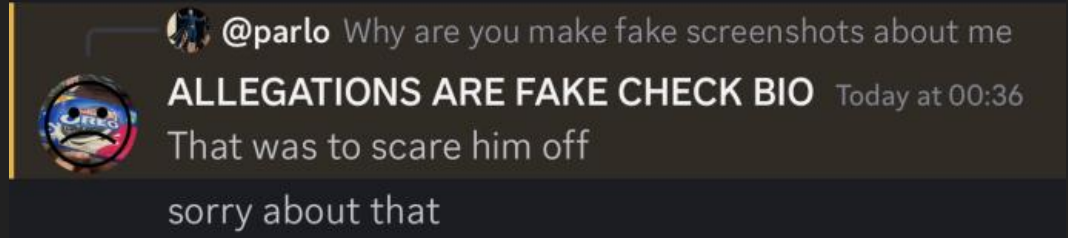

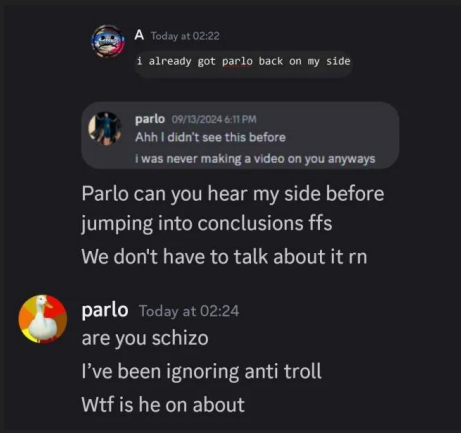

After some time, AntiTroll tried to scare me off by attempting to convince me that “Parlo is on his side” alongside the fact that he sent... a somewhat sketchy looking screenshot of parlo saying “I’m not going to be making a video on you”

Funnily Enough, I reached out to parlo, and asked parlo himself about it.

Surprise, Surprise.

AntiTroll was lying and fabricated the screenshots, LOL!!! (proof that was parlo himself)

HE STUPIDLY ENOUGH DID THE SAME MISTAKE AGAIN, THIS TIME,
IT WAS WITH MomentOfSanity

Basically. He said him and MomentOfSanity are chill now, which wasn't the case at all.

Him resorting to spreading lies, editing messages alone shows he is NOT trustworthy at all, also, you are going to see very soon how he even resorts to edit the fuck out of his images in an attempt to change the narrative of what happened to his own likings.

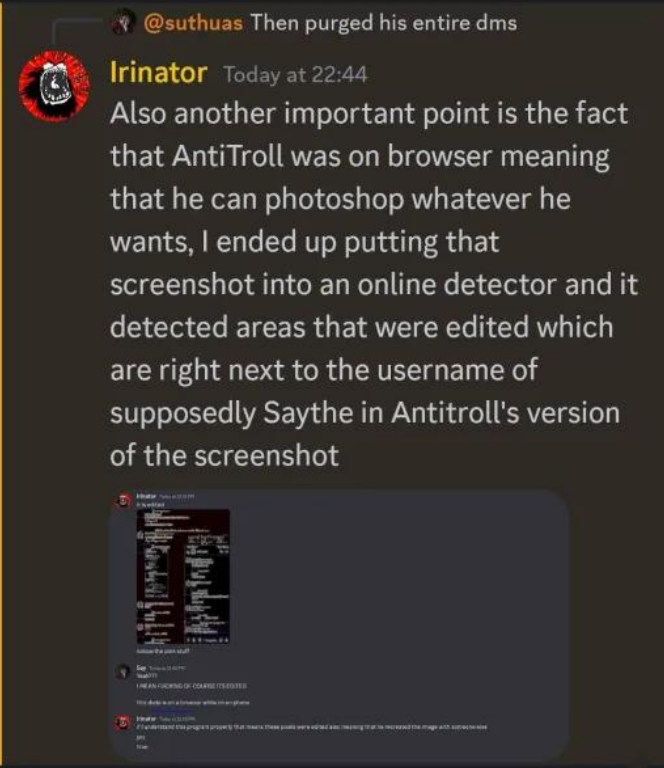

That was his counter argument against the allegations

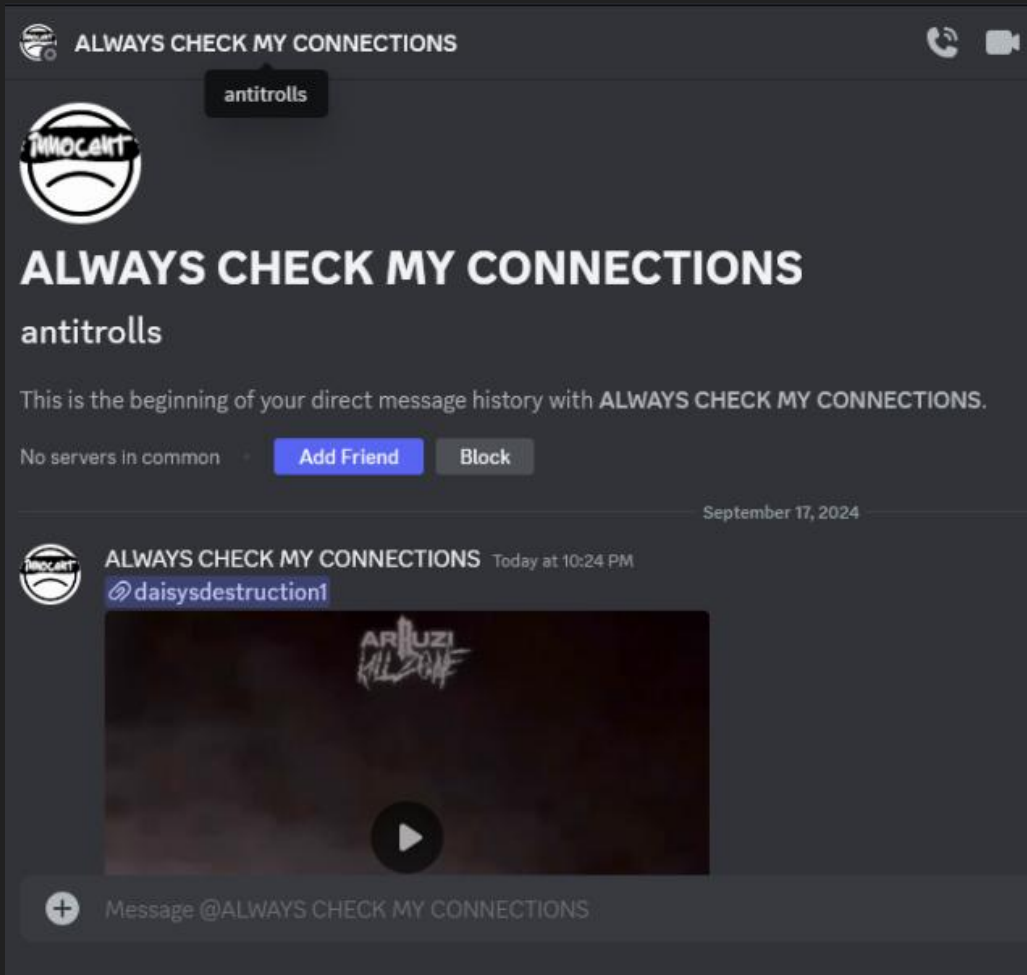

Notice how it doesn't add up at all especially within the fact he purged his dms with me as you can see here?

Yeah that's because the "debunk" you are seeing is a heavily inspect elemented + edited screenshot

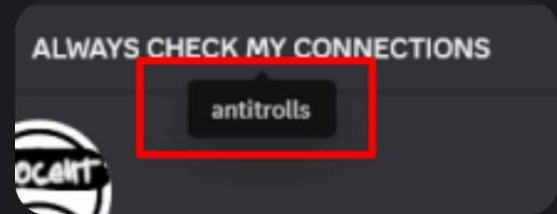

We ran the AntiTroll's image using an online edited image detector, and turns out, AntiTroll "debunk" was just a heavily edited, inspect elemented Screenshot that was funnily enough even taken in PC in contrast to my phone screenshot.

Instances of him sending someone the fucking DD video. Just to further implement this can't be inspect elemented:

We asked the victim to show a screen recording, which she did.

“Where are the connections?”

Since the User was blocked, connections won't be visible.
It doesn't defeat the fact they share the same username as AntiTroll himself

1. A blocked person loses access to viewing the person that blocked them's connections on their profile.
 2. A person can change their connections visibility to different amounts.

NOW LET'S GET INTO THE SLANDEROUS ACCUSATIONS ANTITROLL HAS MADE ON SAYTHE.

HE DID IT AS A DEFENSE MECHANISM WHEN HIS SHITTY "DEBUNK" VIDEO FAILED

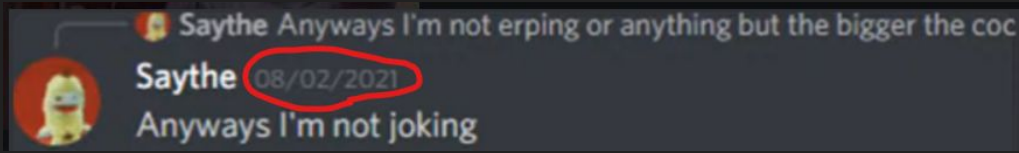

Notice how the image doesn't back up its own claims?

It's literally suspiciously cropped images of me flirting with a girl that was few months older than me in august 2021 (yes the screenshots were from 2021)

>no proof whatsoever I worked with a “child groomer”, baseless claim with no context to it whatsoever

>”dated a 16 year old over discord”
Are you trying to go with your own narrative, or can you look at the fucking date, because at 2021 I was also 16.

>the fact half of them are cropped to make me look like the horny one is funny, either way
I’m not a pedophile and this is a fucking sad attempt at baselessly slandering me

Weeks later, he resorted to making a fake account on me
Tackled the “antitrolls.1” username as an attempt
To make everything look staged by me.

The fake account AntiTroll made on me.

Proof the account
was made as of very recently (it never existed but magically as of today
it does)

I made a community post regarding this

Using common sense:

Let's say, if I were to frame antitroll,

Why in the actual fuck would I leave my display name and profile picture???

It doesn't fucking add up whatsoever, especially the fact the account as of today suddenly fucking exists???, its so obvious it's just a pitiful attempt of antitroll to try make the evidence look staged. Which is not the case at all.

Not only its suspicious on why the fuck the account has my display name and profile picture, but isn't it questionable how the account had no traces of existences but all of sudden it does?

I have a screen recording of us trying to add antitrolls.1 after antitroll changed his username, the account never existed, but it seems antitroll is trying his best to make everything looks staged. Thank God I noticed this earlier.

resorting to try make everything look staged and framed.

Which is not the case at all.
