AO3 Ship Stats 2024

by centreftheselights

Summary

The 2024 edition of the AO3 Ship Stats project. This project aims to track and analyse the most popular pairings posted on AO3 over time.

This Year's Top 100

Chapter Notes

If you're interested in my stats work, you might also want to check out the AO3 Demographics Survey 2024, a survey of over 16,000 AO3 users which I conducted this January. I am still releasing results, but you can already see the data for demographics and how people use AO3.

Welcome to the 2024 AO3 Ship Stats!

As part of the AO3 Ship Stats project, this list shows the 100 most-posted relationship tags on Archive Of Our Own in the period August 7 2023 - August 2 2024. This list was created by comparing the current number of fics with data gathered for the 2023 AO3 Ship Stats.

There are 64 M/M relationships on the list, 11 F/M, 5 F/F, 12 Gen and 8 Other. (Please note that on AO3, 'Name & Name' indicates platonic or familial 'Gen' relationships, while 'Name/Name' is used for romantic and sexual pairings.)

Of the 202 names on the list, 21 are women, 2 are non-binary, and 7 are characters of ambiguous gender, compared with 30, 2 and 3 in the 2023 list. In total there are 90 white characters, 67 Asian characters, 6 Latino characters, 2 Middle Eastern or North African characters, 2 Black characters, 1 Indigenous character and 1 Roma character, as well as 18 racially ambiguous characters and 16 characters with non-human skin tones. There are 78 total Characters of Colour, which is 6 fewer than the number listed in 2023.

For the first time, pairings which appeared on previous lists since 2019, but not in last year's list, are marked as "Re-Entry".

For more information about the AO3 Ship Stats project, please check out the accompanying FAQs. You might also be interested in the All-Time Top 100 Pairings and the Femslash Top 100 list.

Edit 3 Aug 2024: Removed mistakenly included tag "Traveler/Xiao | Alatus (Genshin Impact)."

Edit 4 Aug 2024: Fixed race and gender for "The Dark Urge (Baldur's Gate)". Fixed race for "Aventurine (Honkai: Star Rail)".

MENA = Middle Eastern or North African

This list shows the 100 relationship tags with the most total fanfics posted on Archive Of Our Own as of August 2 2024. There are 70 M/M pairings, 11 F/M, 5 F/F, 12 Gen and 2 Other. (Please note that on AO3, 'Name & Name' indicates platonic or familial 'Gen' relationships, while 'Name/Name' is used for romantic and sexual pairings.)

Of the 202 names on the list, 21 belong to women, 2 to non-binary people, and 1 to a character of indeterminate gender, down from 24, 3 and 1 respectively in the 2022 list. In total there are 132 white characters, 56 Asian characters, 5 Latino characters, 2 Middle Eastern or North African characters, 1 Black character and 1 Indigenous character, along with 6 characters of ambiguous race. There are 64 total Characters of Colour, up 3 from 61 in 2022.

ME Lat = Middle Eastern and Latino

N.H. = Non-Human skin tones

As part of the August 2024 AO3 Ship Stats, here are the Top 100 F/F pairings with the most total works on Archive Of Our Own.

Of the 201 names on this list, there are 114 white characters, 43 Asian characters, 9 Latino characters, 7 Black characters, 7 Indigenous characters, and 4 Middle Eastern or North African characters, as well as 7 racially ambiguous characters and 15 characters with non-human skin tones. There are 65 Characters of Colour in total, up from 60 in the 2023 list.

Because of the way I produced this data, there is a small chance some F/F ships are missing, particularly those in fandoms dominated by other categories of ship. For more information, see the project FAQs. This project also includes a 2024 Top 100 and an All-Time Top 100 list.

Edit 6 Aug 2024: Fixed race for Harleen Quinzel (Batman).

FAQ

This is an FAQ post for the AO3 Ship Stats 2023 project.

I've found a mistake!

I try my hardest to ensure the data on the chart is 100% accurate, but I'm not a perfect fact-checking machine. Please check the post in question for edits and read the rest of these FAQs, but if you can't find a correction or an explanation, please drop me a message.

Are these stats official?

A few people have gotten confused about this recently, but this work is NOT official. Nothing about the AO3 Ship Stats series has any formal affiliation with the Organisation for Transformative Works; I am just a fan with an interest for statistics making use of publicly available data.

What exactly is this measuring?

This measures the number of publicly-accessible works posted in Relationship tag displayed on Archive Of Our Own. The data was retrieved on August 2nd 2024, and the comparison data for the This Year list was retrieved as part of last year's list.

Because of the way AO3 tags work, all sub-tags and synonymous tags are also counted automatically (i.e. fics tagged "Johnlock", "John/Sherlock" and "Sherlock Holmes/John Watson" are all combined into a single entry).

This data is limited to public (i.e. not locked) fics for a mixture of technical and ethical reasons, so fandoms with a high proportion of locked fics (e.g. RPF) may have lower fic counts than expected.

What do all of the columns on the chart mean?

Rank - The ranking of this relationship out of all of the relationships on AO3, listed by number of works tagged with that relationship in the period specified (the last year or all time). 1 is the most frequently tagged relationship, 10 is the tenth most, etc.

Change - The change in rank since the last top 100 list. Positive numbers mean the relationship has moved up the list, negative mean it has moved down. "New" indicates that this is a new entry which was not in last year's top 100. "Re-Entry" indicates that the relationship was included on at least one list in the last five years, but not on last year's list.

Relationship - The relationship tag being considered. Because AO3 has a tag hierarchy, this includes all tags which the site considers synonymous to or sub-sets of the main tag.

Fandom - The fandom most frequently tagged in association with the relationship tag.

Works/Total Works - The number of fanworks (typically fanfics) tagged with that relationship, as of 2nd August 2024.

Works Gained - The difference in the numbers of fandoms between 7th August 2023 and 2nd August 2024, which is equal to the number of new works created in that time period minus the number of existing works deleted or locked in the same period.

Type - The genders of the characters/people involved in the relationship. M indicates male, F female. Other is used for relationships involving non-binary characters or characters of ambiguous gender. Gen indicates that the tag is for a platonic or familial relationship, not a romantic one (indicated on AO3 by an & symbol).

Race - The races of the characters/people involved in the relationship. In most cases, the first box indicates the first character listed and the second indicates the second character; a small number of relationship tags with more than 2 characters are included, in which case multiple characters/people of the same race may be represented by a single box.

How is race determined?

In order to ensure that the "race" category is determined consistently, I will attempt to follow a hierarchy of evidence for each character's race. Lower categories of evidence will only be considered relevant if no clear evidence is available in any of the categories above.

1. Explicit statement of the character's race within canon (e.g. the character says "I'm Black.")
2. The race of an actor physically embodying the character in a live-action medium like film or TV. (For theatre or musicals, both the original cast and the cast of any recorded version are considered equally canonical.)
3. Indirect evidence of race, such as the character's physical appearance, name, culture and voice acting cast. In the case of fantasy media, this includes fictional races which are shown to be analogous to real-world races.
4. Evidence from other adaptations of the work, considered in the same order as above.
5. Explicit Word of God (e.g. tweets or blog posts from the author) about the character's intended race.

The most popular fandom tag associated with each pairing will be considered the main source of canon for that pairing. If the most popular fandom tag is an "All Media Types" tag, or otherwise encompasses multiple works, then all official works inside that umbrella are equally canon. If multiple works conflict on a character's race - for instance, they are different races in different adaptations - the character will be listed as "Ambiguous".

"Ambiguous" also includes characters whose race is explicitly intended to be ambiguous, video game characters whose race can be chosen or changed by the player, and reader-insert or "You" characters. Please note that real people cannot be racially ambiguous.

There is a separate category for characters with non-human skin tones such as blue, yellow, gray, or chalk-white. Having a non-human skin tone currently supersedes other possible race categories for the character, although this is under discussion.

Please note that white characters who are ethnically Jewish are listed as white; this is due to the limitations of race as a categorisation system and the need to limit the number of categories listed. I am also following the usual American convention of not listing white heritage in the case of characters/people who are mixed race or fall into multiple racial categories, e.g. Barack Obama would be listed simply as "Black" not as both Black and white.

Why is [character] described as [race]?

The following is a selection of characters whose racial categorisation in these stats is often questioned or debated. Please only comment about these characters if you feel you have sufficient evidence (see above) to argue for a change in race.

Character	Fandom	Race	Reasoning
Marceline	Adventure Time	Non-Human Skin Tone	Although Marceline's mother was Black, this category includes all characters of non-human skin tones.
Dick Grayson	Batman - All Media Types	Ambiguous	Dick is Romani in some comics, but white in the Titans TV show.
Anna	Frozen (Disney Movies)	Indigenous	Anna's mother is from a fantasy ethnic group who are analogous to the Saami.
Elsa	Frozen (Disney Movies)	Indigenous	Elsa's mother is from a fantasy ethnic group who are analogous to the Saami.
Dorcas Meadowes	Harry Potter - J. K. Rowling	Black	Based on Word of God via an illustration released on Pottermore. ( source )
Harry Potter	Harry Potter - J. K. Rowling	White	Despite popular headcanons that he is Asian, all canonical adaptations have depicted Harry as white.
Hermione Granger	Harry Potter - J. K. Rowling	Ambiguous	Hermione is white in the film series, but Black in the original cast for the play "The Cursed Child."
James Potter	Harry Potter - J. K. Rowling	White	Despite popular headcanons that he is Asian, all canonical adaptations have depicted James as white.
Marlene McKinnon	Harry Potter - J. K. Rowling	White	Based on Word of God via via an illustration released on Pottermore. ( source )
Alastor	Hazbin Hotel (Cartoon)	Non-Human Skin Tone	Although Word of God states that Alastor was mixed-race when he was alive, he now has non-human grayish skin and this category includes all characters of non-human skin tones.
Vaggie	Hazbin Hotel (Cartoon)	Non-Human Skin Tone	Although there is Word of God that Vaggie is Salvadoran ( source ), this category includes all characters of non-human skin tones.
Wanda Maximoff	Marvel Cinematic Universe	White	Wanda is Romani in the comics, but white in the MCU.
Blake Belladonna	RWBY	Asian	Blake's mother seems to be culturally East Asian.
Ruby Rose	RWBY	Asian	Ruby's father has light brown skin and an Asian name.
Yang Xiao Long	RWBY	Asian	Yang's father has light brown skin and an Asian name.
Catra	She-Ra and the Princesses of Power (2018)	Latino	Word of God states that Catra is Latino. ( source )
Levi Ackerman	Shingeki no Kyojin   Attack on Titan	White	Levi's relative Mikasa is Asian, but this heritage is on her mother's side while her relationship to Levi is on her father's side.

Character	Fandom	Race	Reasoning
Maggie Sawyer	Supergirl (TV 2015)	Latino	The actress portraying Maggie is white, but the character is explicitly stated to be Latino.
Gideon Nav	The Locked Tomb Series   Gideon the Ninth Series - Tamsyn Muir	Indigenous	Word of God states that Gideon is mixed-race Maori ( source )
Harrowhark Nonagesimus	The Locked Tomb Series   Gideon the Ninth Series - Tamsyn Muir	Indigenous	Word of God states that Harrowhark is mixed-race Maori ( source )

Why do some pairings have fewer works than expected?

It is not possible to directly access the "This Year's List" data from an AO3 search, as it requires having a snapshot of last year's data to compare to. When creating the "This Year" and "Year In Review" lists, I subtract the number of unlocked works which existed at the start of the time period from the number which existed at the end. This gives a result equal to the number of new works added in that time, minus any older works which have been deleted or locked. As a result, if a large number of older works are deleted or locked, the pairing may appear much lower on the list than expected, not appear at all, or even be listed with a negative number of "new works".

Why does a pre-existing pairing have all its works listed from this year?

For practical reasons, I am only able to gather data from tags with more than 250 works. Pairings with fewer works than this are currently rounded down to 0. This means that a pairing in its first year entering the dataset may have a boost of up to 250 older works being mistakenly counted towards the "This Year's" list.

What about background pairings?

Because of the way AO3's tagging system works, there is no way to differentiate between the main pairing in a work and minor, or background, pairings. Some of the pairings on these lists may be popular primarily as a secondary pairing in works about another couple.

I have not done any research into background pairings with this data set. However, in the 2013 version of this project, I found that the background pairing effect was most common with F/M, and to a lesser extent F/F, ships.

How was this data gathered?

The raw data was collected from AO3 using a web-scraping program of my own design. All of the data collected on pairing names, fandoms and fic numbers is publicly available to any user of the site. Some processing has been done in order to remove duplicates, synonyms, non-specific/parent tags and tags involving original characters.

Data on gender and race was copied from previous lists or added by hand, and may contain errors.

What point are you trying to make?

All of the information in the main post is intended to be factual and verifiable. However, the data is presented in order to highlight the lack of fanfiction focussed on women, F/F pairings, and People of Colour. If you wish to learn more about my views on this topic, please read my essays Why M/M? and Misogyny?, my analysis of race in the AO3 Ship Stats, and my discussion of What does a 'Person of Colour' look like in the AO3 Ship Stats?
