

Hello guys, Logan_ISL here. I would like to talk about the explanation of the poll I made on the 14th, that caused a ton of drama inside of the discord and almost led to my demotion. There is currently a new rule that was made saying that people who are not Verified Builder's must ONLY use the official kit but Verified Builders can make custom client objects and ignore this rule. I thought it was insanely unfair so I started a poll in staff-polls to see what everyone thought.

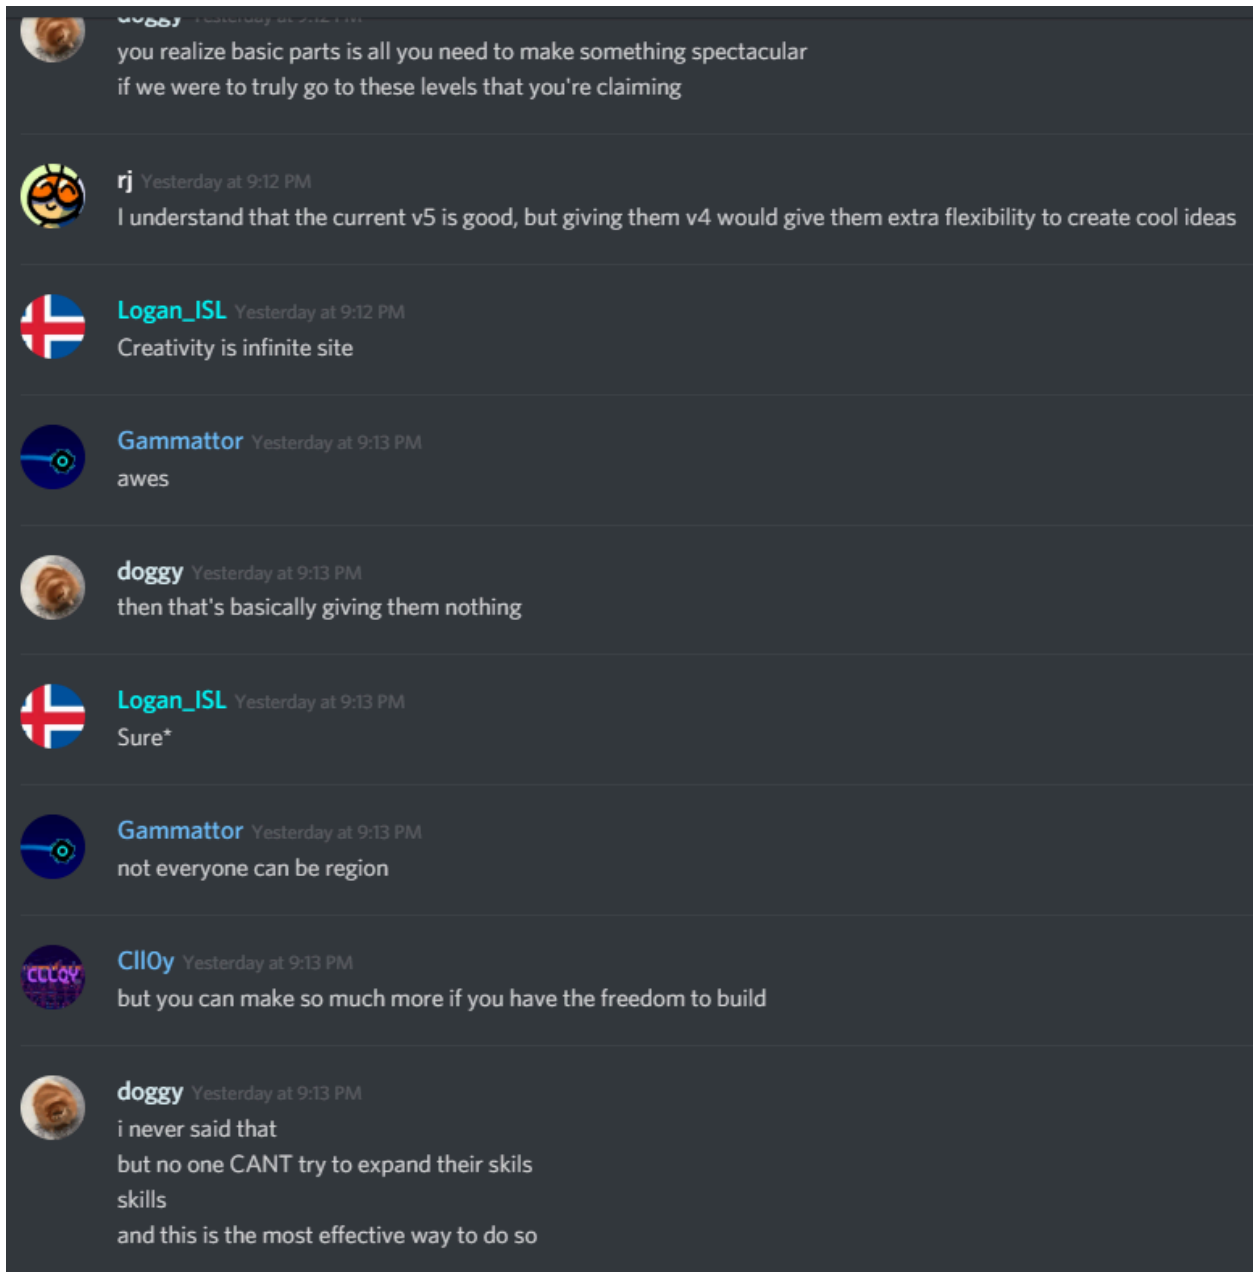

"I want everyone's thoughts. I personally do not like the idea that all that VBs are allowed to use custom client objects and stuff from custom kits yet everyone else cannot. I feel like what will happen in the future is creators won't be "creative enough" because of the lack of objects in V5, to be worthy of "VB." Here's what I think: The VB system is heavily flawed, in my opinion all that VBs should be granted with are the abilities to make citadels and work on big projects for the game, like if CoP and CoTD were to be made. Revert the kit back to V4 with all of its objects and allow custom kit items, to prevent bugs with towers with this. All custom kit items should be reviewed by curators to make sure they're not buggy.

This poll, passed. The staff agreed that voted on this with a vote of 7 to 2. The 2 people who disagreed?

Awes, and Jupiter. The two people, who made this rule and make it exist. That's when I realized, Jupiter's Towers of Hell isn't be ran by the staff team anymore. It's being run by elitists. Who believe they know the answers to everything. I was shocked

As you can see here, Doggo is talking about that all you need are basic parts to make something spectacular. While this is true, with more parts you can create something even more spectacular. Imagine making a whole theatre in ROBLOX with just using the plastic material, sure it looks cool in all. But the use of different materials makes the theatre even better.

doggy Yesterday at 9:13 PM
i understand that but we cant make it too diverse

Gammattor Yesterday at 9:13 PM
im kind of mixed on this subject

doggy Yesterday at 9:13 PM
or we run into the same problem we've had for ages with jtoh the kit defines the range of creativity diversity that we want jtoh to have heck, the original idea was to not have custom client objects at all but imagine that in the current mindset of the people again
there is so much more freedom than everyone here realizes

Vincentl9 Yesterday at 9:14 PM
i dont want this game to end up as gd 2.1
thats all im saying

doggy Yesterday at 9:14 PM
its just that none of you can see the potential im not saying for everyone to become region with the snap of my fngers either
what i want

Here I say that creativity is infinite, but creativity is even more infinite with everyone being limitless. I think we can all agree, the fun of building something is being able to be free and express yourself, with these limitations it ruins some of the fun in building. Doggo talks about apparently Jupiter's Towers of Hell being "diverse" There is a lot of freedom, I can give Doggo that but there can be even more freedom. It seems like Doggo kind of wants to take the game into OI:R route slowly as he talks about people

what i want

i do agree with one of your statements that less objects inspires you to have more creativity

doggy Yesterday at 9:15 PM

is for people to gradually work towards that level and that isnt an unrealistic statement entirely

rj Yesterday at 9:15 PM

I know that there is a lot of freedom with v5, but wouldn't v4 allow even more freedom?

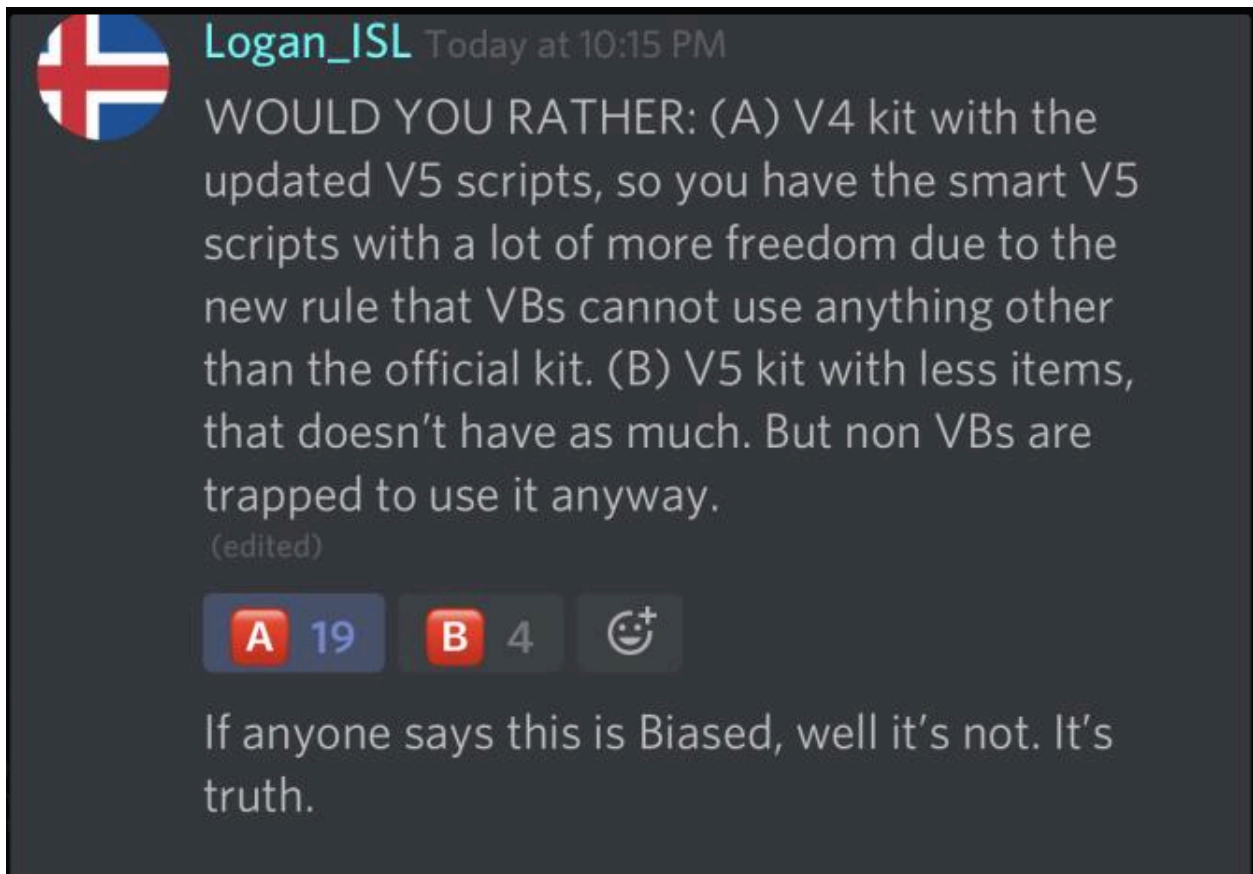

As you can see here, he wants for people to slowly work towards that level, and as you can see here even more people are being against Awes, yet he's sticking to himself. Doggo points out an anarchy in this statement. Aren't we letting VBs being anarchic about custom client objects?

Me and punky were talking about CoSaD in a call, and the subject about the V4 versus V5 was brought up, and Punky said he would rather have the V4 kit with the V5 scripts. I was curious about how the community also would like the idea of this, I am a man of the common man, I believe that all decisions should be made by a majority. but I didn't want to say simply V4 with V5 scripts or V5, I wanted the community to know what this meant truthfully.

Would you rather: A: The V4 kit with the updated V5 scripts so you have the smart V5 scripts WHICH IS TRUE. With a lot more freedom due to the new rule that VBs cannot use anything other than the official kit WHICH IS TRUE even with 3 more items there can be a lot of potential with these items SO IT'S TRUE. Or B: The V5 kit with less items WHICH IS TRUE. That doesn't have as much. WHICH IS TRUE. But non VBs are trapped to use it anyway, WHICH IS TRUE. The only way the V5 section of the poll could look better is "Has the advanced scripts in it already" But I think I already mentioned that in the A section of the poll. No surprise, our wise and supreme leader decided to take a hit against this poll which was winning by over a 75%

share (SHOW PICTURE)

WOULD YOU RATHER: (A) V4 kit with the updated V5 scripts, so you have the smart V5 scripts with a lot of more freedom due to the new rule that VBs cannot use anything other than the official kit. (B) V5 kit with less items, that doesn't have as much. But non VBs are trapped to use it anyway.

If anyone says this is Biased, well it's not. It's truth.

doggo Today at 10:23 PM

it's biased.

we settled this in staff chat, enough is enough.

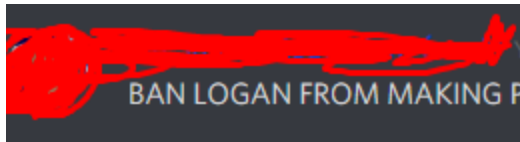

Going "Yea this is bias, it's fucking bias, we settled this in staff chat enough of this shit." If anything, this started the drama. As since Awes picked a side, everyone thought the poll was bias, and manipulating people to believe that it was bias and a hellstorm broke with people saying some very bad things which made be upset.

we settled this in staff chat, enough is enough.

Also according to Awes,

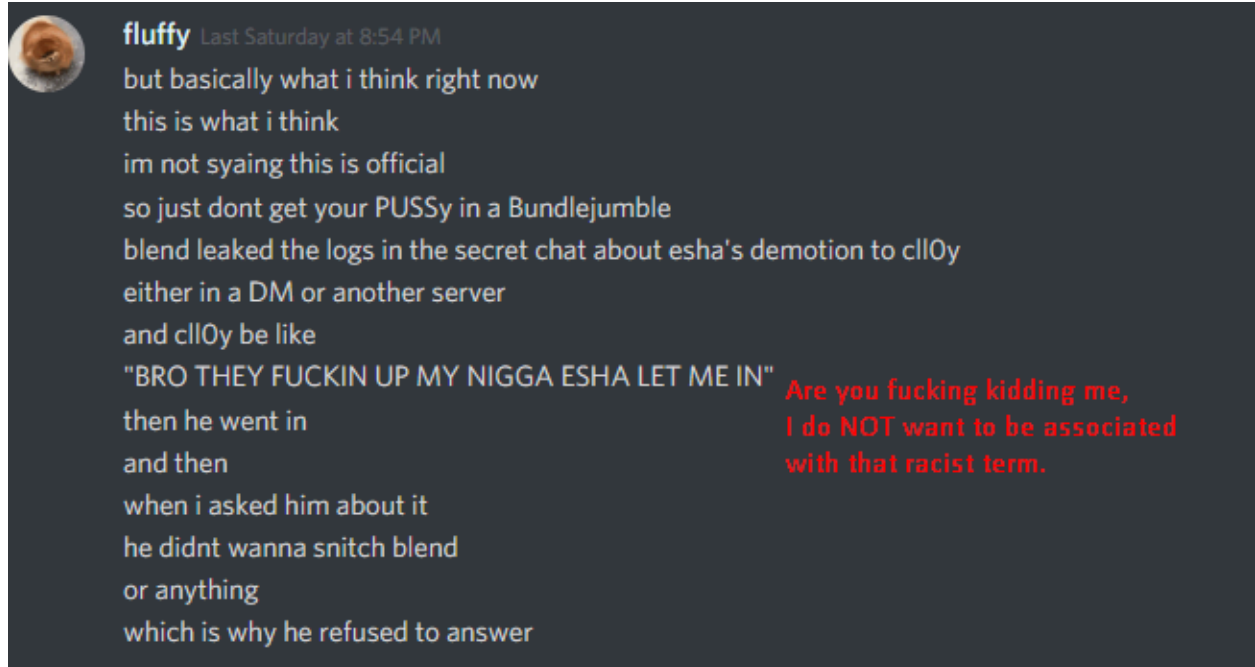

You don't judge off of poll votes, isn't that the same as saying that polls don't matter at all? Are you saying that the people you are effecting don't matter? Are you saying that I believe in myself that I know what is right? I would like to know. I would also like to explain this chunk of Awe's talk in announcements. I will let you set through and read it.

he displayed strong opinions in the poll, which then had a chain reaction to the public which started the whole "v5 kit is terrible" crusade thing
the point is though v5 kit was already settled already we compromised for it by adding things back and deciding what to keep out
not to mention
hours upon hours of discussion and polls inside of the staff chat gathering all the opinions and actually making a final verdict that VAST MAJORITY agreed on there are many logs to support this later in the staff chat though, the discussion was brought up again by esha which then we discussed it again and seemingly came back to the same verdict but we were caught completely off guard when esha made that poll, as not only was it biased and fueled by denial of opinion, it was a poll on something that had already been settled and discussed for days on end and was a poll that was inevitable to start conflict due to the strong opinions happening all of this is grounds for punishment, which is why esha was "demoted"

First of all. I didn't start the V5 is terrible "crusade" I am the one who brought it up, multiple community members I talked too were insanely unhappy with V5. The final verdict majority he is talking about here was not about V4 versus V5 at all but with what V5 items removed, so therefore this is irrelevant for this situation. There was a V4 vs V5 poll and more people did accept V5, but the poll I presented was different. The reason why it "seemingly" came back the same verdict is because I decided to go back to my summer work, so I left the conversation and it was assumed that everything was sorted. I later explained just because I leave doesn't mean a situation is sorted, the poll was supposed to keep you off guard so the community could actually express their opinions. As many of you all know, I wasn't demoted. However, we will get to this soon.

I hope this explains the polls situation, it's as detailed as it can be. If anyone still has questions or wants to bring up a point, feel free to privately message me.

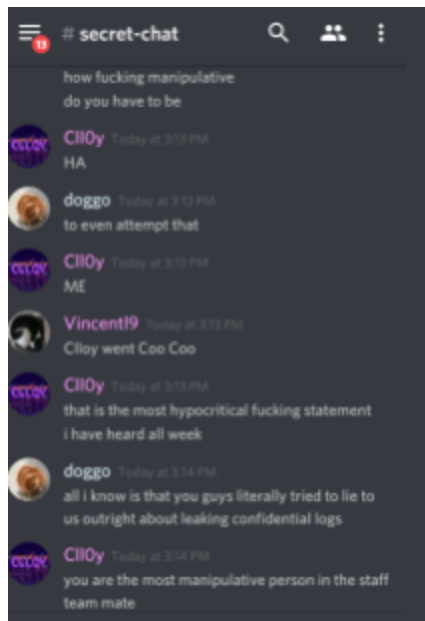

Awes later talked about demoting me in a secret channel and instead demoted ClI0y and Blend for leaking assets. ClI0y in fact did leak all of the secret chat messages to me, in which I am going to leak to everyone and show now.

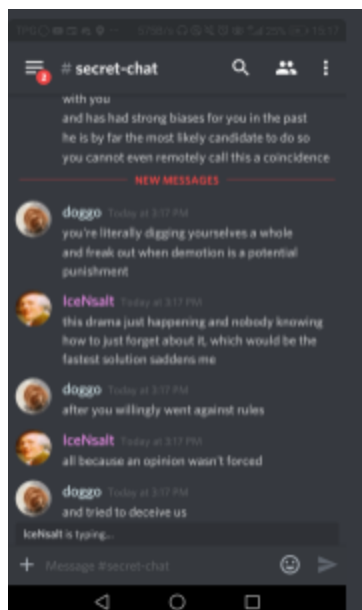

Before I do, here is what Awes thought happened. As you can see, he used his trademarked term on me.

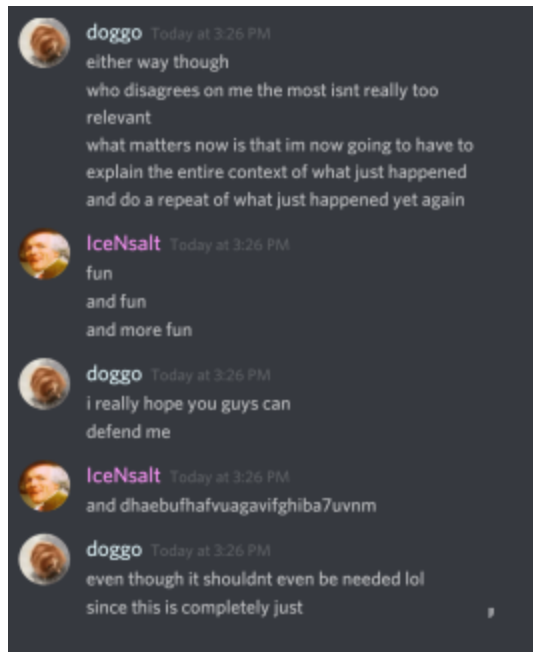

This is awes telling cll0y and blend that they're being removed. I do want to mention he was going to finish this later and just wanted to talk to everyone. But however what he would have likely done is presented it and said the devs agreed and push everyone away.

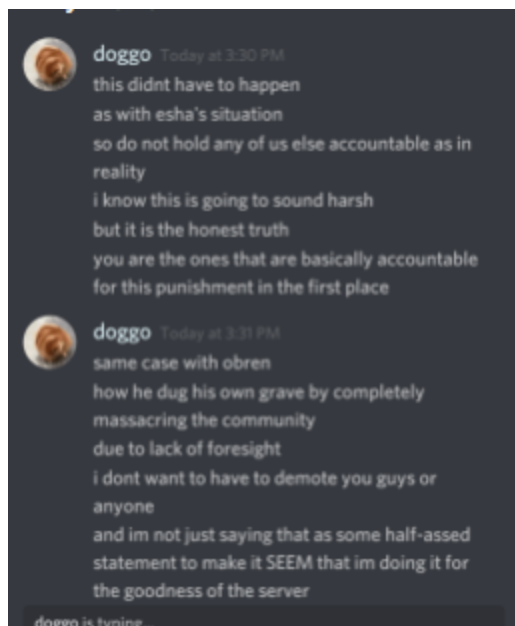

Cll0y is very right, Awes just goes ahead and manipulates everyone. No evidence you say? Just have a reflection back.

Awes just going ahead and assuming things, (at the time) Cll0y did say about sending stuff elsewhere another time.

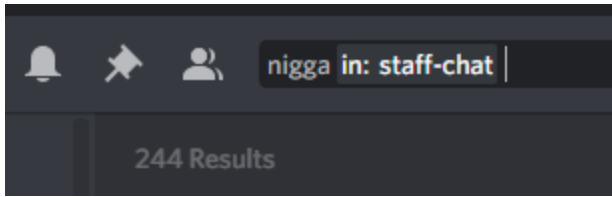

Awes manipulating, trying to get people to defend him. Using LOL for “shouldn’t be needed”

Obren is the good guy the whole time, Jupiter sits and does nothing in the TC and takes all the money and flexes it. NO ONE gets paid, knigherisk fixed A LOT of things and he was never paid or credited (fixing the falling platforms and stuff.) He was also right saying you (Awes) were a selfish person as I have proved that with the VB staff poll.

Awes is also insanely immature. He uses the n word all the time and passes it as a joke, as you saw using what I called his “trademark phrase” on me. Awes accounts for 25.8% of N - words in staff chat. There is a new staff-s**tpost channel that everyone dumps their N - words now but I still don’t see it acceptable.

To end it off, Jupiter is too attached to Awes, you have seen that many mistakes were made by Awes and he never learns. It is unacceptable what he does, and even if he were put on a leash, a person should be judged by how they are when they have freedom since that is their normal and this is Awes's normal. Awes doesn't have the correct personality nor traits to be Head of Staff and should be demoted. Us, the community, are tired of it.

WE AGREE: Logan_ISL. Punkyjoe, Obrino (ObrenTune / Kiddie_Cannon), Cll0y, blender_cxii, Fivalen, Knightrisk and many more.

The community has already shown their hatred as ClloY got 22 votes in the suggestions channel to get rid of Awes himself, and Awes just brushes it off, not to be seen as a warning or give a care about the community he enraged along with "his staff." We hope that now the community has the full story as to what's going on you guys can now make your decision on Awes. Do you think he deserves another chance with a leesh knowing this is what he did? Or he should be removed from his role at Head of Staff, we agree that Awes is one of the many reasons why the game is slowly dying, many people have left the JToH discord due to what he does and has gotten a lot of his staff unhappy with him. We believe that because this story affected the entire community that the entire story along with all of the staff and secret chats were to be leaked, as it shows how horrible Awes is at Head of Staff by how selfed he is into himself, and his unacceptable immaturity.

I am so sorry that I had to do this, but I was slowly being mentally deteriorated due to being in this community, I love you all. Feel free to talk to me, and I hope to see you all soon. PLEASE DM ME QUESTIONS I WILL MAKE A FAQ HERE

Q: Why do you need to know this?

A: Awes is the head of staff and the person runs you, all of his decisions impact you, imagine the president of your country being Awes. Would you want your country to be run by an immature person or something?

NOTE: I AM IN THE JTOH DISC WITH MY ALT: JToH_Itemless. Hi! I see what's going on!
(yes I know he was demoted)

Today is my birthday, I guess you can say this is my present?

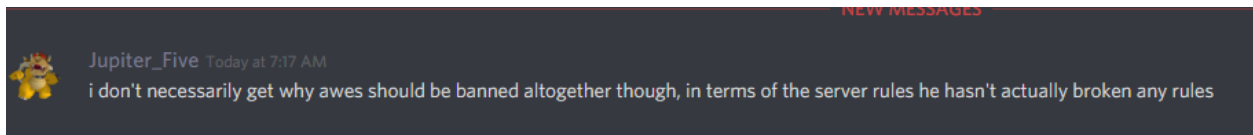

WARNING: I am going to canada for a week tomorrow and so I won't be able to respond to ANYTHING. (I will reply to other documents HERE VV If when I am back this situation is still relevant.)

@Orbaz, I love how you decide to manipulate everyone. Let everyone decide for themselves.

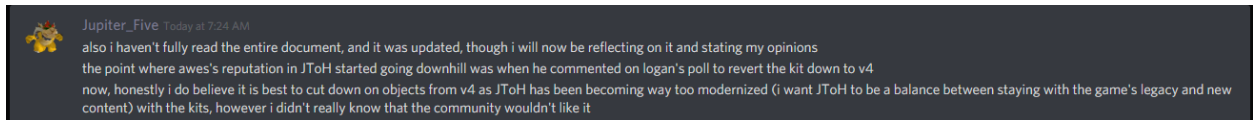

WHY AWES SHOULD BE BANNED:

Awes has pulled too much crap and him going back to helper is absolutely stupid, he will slowly gain his power back and push his decisions. He doesn't belong in the JToH community, he's very immature and selfish to himself. (plus didn't you want peace jupiter?) I didn't start this "Ban awes train" this is what the Ol:R side wants.

Dude, He. Uses. The. N. Word. Immaturely.

Actually no, many staff members have questioned his reign for months, with things like the ToD situation and stuff. He just keeps making mistakes and this was the final blow. We were done.

An example of vague wording opens loopholes.

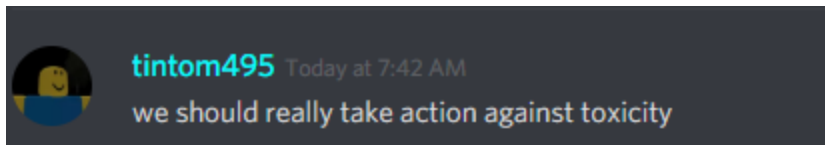

Orbaz, you push yourself into the game way too much and as we all know it's hurting you. He wants you to not have these problems.

Also, this is beyond fucking unacceptable.

Just because it's something you don't want to see Jupiter doesn't mean it's edited.

Yea because being accountable of 25% of n words in the staff chat totally isn't toxic at all!
