

Brickadia Devs: An Introspective on Grooming

Aftermath, as of 12/3/2020

Currently, Evar678 has been permanently removed from the Brickadia development team. Arekan was “investigated” and allowed to return. Port remains unaffected despite being Evar’s accomplice.

Zeblote and Brickadia's official statement is as follows:

Zebble Yesterday at 3:42 PM
This statement was hastily written to address the ongoing situation with more reliable information. We might update it further if anything needs more explanation.

Hey everyone. We're all shocked about this, and it took a bit of time to organize immediate plans for the future of Brickadia. We have learned from last time that this is not something we can afford to stall on or take lightly. This time, our statement is not delayed. We are telling you this today. For the safety of our users, we made an unanimous decision to remove another person from the development team, and to demote one other temporarily pending further investigation.

A document is currently circulating that gives some details on what has happened. Unfortunately, this document is deliberately malicious, and twists the situation to paint unrelated individuals as willfully involved in the activity disclosed - that being that the developer in question ran a twitter account containing explicit and ethically questionable content. We do not condone this kind of behavior in any way and are therefore severing our ties with him. No one else was involved in this activity in any way.

We can't say at the moment how this might affect the release of Alpha 5, which was planned for later this month. However, we want to set a precedent for transparent and timely responses to major events that have the potential to affect the future of Brickadia, and greatly damage the trust our community has in us.

Again, please do not hesitate to contact our moderation team if you ever have any concerns about the safety of yourself or any members of our community.

We are not sure why Zeblote is shocked. Scroll to his section for proof he knew Evar was grooming and drawing child pornography a month before this document was created. He was presented evidence and took no action until public outrage.

Z Zeblote Yesterday at 6:58 PM

Hey everyone, a short update. We have been discussing the situation with Arekan, whom we had temporarily demoted, and came to the conclusion that he will remain a member of the team as previously. He was not involved in the creation of the explicit art in any way and merely wrote some hot takes in DMs, which he has been regretting.

To understand the context behind why he wrote what he wrote, he's allowed us to share a snippet that he wrote about his life. Please understand that these details are obviously very private to him and would never have been shared if it were not necessary to clear up the context.

Quote:

As much as I don't like it, it looks like I'm going to have to talk about some very personal bits of my past I thought I was able to put down in order to qualm the current situation.

A leaked DM was shared around where I admitted to looking at art of underaged characters as a coping mechanism without much context. Since context is lost, I'd like to clarify and hope it clears things up a little better.

Firstly, I was groomed into behaving sexually with other adults online when I was 12. I grew up alongside those experiences and treated them as what was 'correct' or 'fun.' I didn't know any different.

When those individuals eventually grew bored of me, I turned to the underaged art as a coping mechanism. I always placed myself in the position of the younger characters depicted. I was still a minor at this time. When I got near the age of 18, I stopped partaking in the art because I started realizing just how unhealthy of a coping mechanism it was. In the end, I do not condone what I was doing one bit and haven't looked back to it in years.

Due to this, I didn't want to immediately condemn who was at the time my friend for something I knew could have similar nuance. People cope in weird ways, and while I didn't like what he was doing, I didn't want to judge. I opted instead to wave on the fence and in the end that was the wrong choice.

Arekan's return to the development team. Port has currently remained without audit.

As for Evar Smith/Oomro, they have gone on a crusade to purge all evidence from the internet.

Nothing says guilty like purging your internet history.

New light has also been shed on Evar's relationships and grooming.

The document below remains mostly unchanged from when it was written.

Preamble

The contents of this document may disgust you. Some of the evidence we will present to you contains shotacon and other pedophilic antics. Not safe for work or life. You have been warned.

Brickadia is a “new and upcoming brick building sandbox game.” as quoted from their twitter, directly inspired by Eric Hartman’s 2007 retail release of Blockland. In fact, the entire development team’s origins stem from that game.

It is Blockland where these people spent their childhoods, a notorious cesspool from which most of their community originates as well. They do well to distance themselves from the game but their origins and come-ups lie in it. You will find most of them have (and admittedly so) came out mentally ill from their activity online. Take this as a message on grooming, or furies, or unrestricted internet access, or other sexual delusions as you will. However, we wish to stress this document is not going to be an opinion piece on the state of the game. That debate is trivial to the focus at hand. This document is here to shed light on the revolting actions that the developers of Brickadia partake in, as well as their vehement suppressions and cover-ups of these issues.

The focus of this document will be primarily on Evar Smith (Evar678/Oomro), a gay furry shotacon artist, Brandon Engel (Arekan), a self-admitted gay furry porn enthusiast and admitted groom victim, Nicolai Susemihl (Port), Evar Smith's transgender boy/girl/???-friend and partner-in-crime, and Timo Suikat (Zeblote), the leader of the development team, and his wilful ignorance towards the festering depravity under his reign.

Enjoy the show.

Tenni Summers / Aeonara

This section will be kept brief and informative as there's already a lot of old info out on this previous incident and we would like to not re-hash the subject. Consider this the child molestor prequel to our all star cast. Since the incident the person in question has been dropped from the development team.

Resources

Aeonara (brickadia artist) - Pedophile: <https://forum.blockland.us/index.php?topic=326521.0>

Twitter thread: <https://twitter.com/springtimebon/status/1299904634925002752>

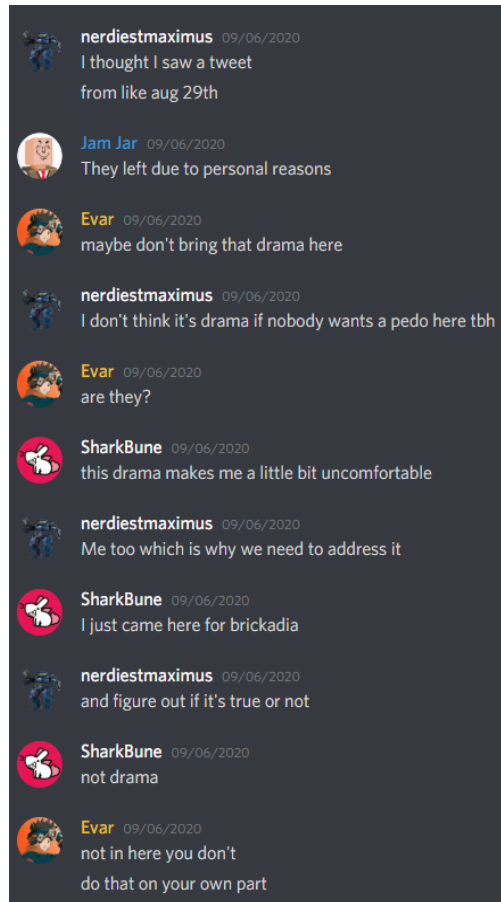

Aeonara, if you somehow see this, I hope you completely regret everything you've done. You dated me when I was 15, almost 16, and you were 20, almost 21. I didn't know any better, and the entire situation emotionally traumatized me as a result, not to mention all the NSFW interactions we had. You are a predator. Please never talk to me or my underage acquaintances ever again. There is no forgiveness. I don't want to be friends, and I'm not sure if I'll ever be the same again. Goodbye.

The Twitter thread's image.

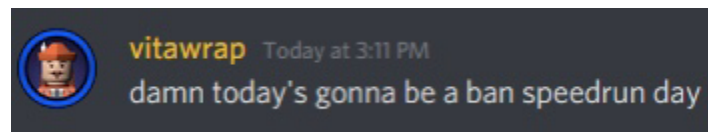

Before this document, there was alarmingly (but not surprisingly) a Brickadia developer in the past outed for being a child enthusiast. Tenni Summers aka Aeronara is a 21 year old transgender man who partook in a relationship with a 16 year old online, ERPing with them in DMs and other disgusting acts. The 16 year old in question is StephPsi/springtimebon and their twitter is here: <https://twitter.com/springtimebon>.

Aeronara was, according to Zeblote, dismissed as soon as this was uncovered. However, as you will see in his own section, he is not one to act on punishing his development team.

The most humorous element of the entire situation is the suppression of information on the subject in their discord.

Tsk tsk Evar, harboring pedophiles? It makes sense.

Their response to this situation was less than commendable to say the least. The Brickadia moderation team prides themselves on obfuscating the truth of the degeneracy amongst their rank until they can't hide it anymore.

As you will find out, grooming and being groomed will be central themes to the plot of this pedobus. Many of the Brickadia developers have been groomed or are groomers themselves, fostering unhealthy NSFW relationships at minor ages.

Evar Smith is a 24 year old gay male from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, who happens to be a software engineer working on Brickadia. Evar is also in love with Nicolai Susemihl, a transgender man, who also has an affinity for his art. However, he has quite the interesting hobby. A passion for art. He loves to draw art and browse art. What kind of art, you ask? Gay shotacon, usually of furies (known as cub). To hide his disgusting and depraved actions like any smart pedophile would, he has a secondary alias known as oomro. However, the scientists at Block Gang have researched and deduced multiple links between these two identities with proof.

I meant to keep these in order, but drawing so often is hard! So here's 11-20-20's post, since its the most cleaned up, hehe..

I'm still keeping up with the calendar though! I'll post things as they become clean enough. A little backlog of content isn't a bad thing for you guys~ :3

The man has quite the art portfolio. We'll spare you the rest of the disgusting drivel on his webpages, you can seek that out for yourself before he eventually babyrages and deletes everything. If you scrolled through all that without vomiting I commend you. Unless you're into that shit, you sick fuck.

Evidently, Mr. Oomro is a sick fuck. Now, you might be asking yourself, BUT BLOCK GANG, where's the proof that this is Evar678???? Well, dear reader, here it is.

The screenshot shows a Reddit post on the subreddit r/FurryArtSchool. The post is by user u/Evar678, posted 6 years ago. The title is "Trying to improve my furry drawing abilities, suggestions?". The post content includes a self-introduction, a list of self-identified drawing errors (Consistency, Proportions, Shading / Clothing, Fur, Snouts / Muzzles), and links to previous drawings. ### Trying to improve my furry drawing abilities, suggestions?

Hey, I'm Evar. This is actually my first real post on any subreddit ever. I've been drawing furry stuff for a little bit, but never saw any real improvement until recently. Now, I'd like to seek some actual help on improving how I can draw.

I'm really not good at drawing in my honest opinion, especially when it comes to drawing furry stuff. I personally think my main errors come with the following:

- Consistency: I can't be very consistent with my drawings. Some days I'll draw something that I like, others it looks horrible to me.
- Proportions: It's very hard for me to adequately proportion my characters, especially from drawing to drawing. I tried structure drawing, but it really doesn't help me as much as I thought it would.
- Shading / Clothing: I have absolutely no clue how to go about with shading. No matter how hard I try, I can't get that three dimensional sort of feel to my drawings; They seem very 'flat' to me, likely because of the lack of shading. I'm also confused as to positioning of clothing folds and similar.
- Fur: I can not draw fur to any extent, haha. Every time that I try, it ends up just making the picture worse, so I generally won't.
- Snouts / Muzzles: I don't know why, but it seems that any time I try to draw anything with a prominent snout, such as canines, it just doesn't work out at all. They simply break my drawing style.

I'm just starting with drawing in general, and have started to do it a lot more often. Below I'll post some of my drawings in relative order from earliest to most recent. Over time, I can definitely say I've improved, but I still believe I'm lacking fundamental skills that I really wish to have.

Drawings (Sorted from oldest - current)

These aren't every single drawing, but the most relevant ones.

- Some of my first drawings (About 8-10 months ago) (These are TERRIBLE):

Ren, first drawing of this character

Redesign of Ren, about two weeks later

- Slightly more recent (About 4-6 months ago):

Tips on shading / clothing folds?

As the title says, does anybody have any tutorials / explanation on how to do shading nicely, along with different shading techniques?

Personally, for shading I sort of want to go for the style that Aogami uses, as an example.

Another issue is clothing folds; I have no clue how to really position them, or what kind of fold to draw where. Or even how to draw them in the first place for that matter. Can anybody help?

For what it's worth, I draw with pencil and paper.

His admitted fursona is a tiger. Same with oomro. Note Rykuta (blockland user) following this CP page.

Quite the correlation. It's safe to assume these people are identical. Zeblote is actually aware of this information, and as of this document's writing (12/1/2020) he has not taken any action.

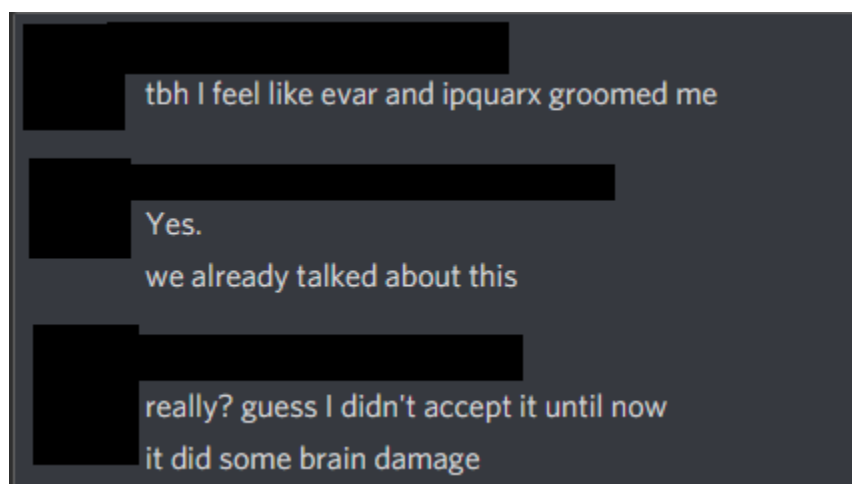

What's amusing though is the blatant mental gymnastics this sick fuck (and other people into shota/cub) does to justify his creepy fetishes.

All characters depicted are at least 18.

I'm afraid not, oomro. Not everyone masturbates to children having sex. That is not normal. That is not healthy.

That's not all for this shitshow, though. Turns out Evar was grooming minors in the Blockland community back in the day.

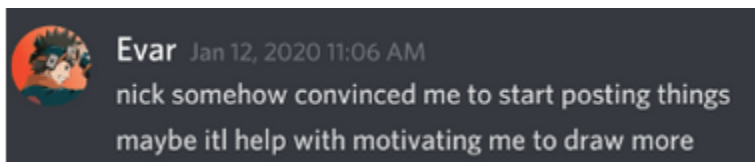

Brickadia devs grooming? More common than you think.

I'm sure there's more proof in the wild that this fuck's done wrong to minors and drawn even more disgusting shit, but the content here is already a home run of degeneracy and the point has been proven. Don't let this guy work for your game. Or be around your kids.

Nicolai Susemihl / Port / Emma

Port is currently in a relationship with Evar678. They were fully aware of Evar's actions and remained silent as they were conducted.

They also happened to post loli images in the Hot Anime Girls thread.

An inside scoop on Port and Evar's relationship. Evar also decided to share Port's nudes and engaged with them when they were 2 years younger.

id feel uncomfortable playing that game when port encouraged evar (edited) idk if port actually finds that stuff arousing or not they posted lolis in the anime girl thread someone said might be the fact that evar basically groomed him and he was kinda forced to get into it evar was definitely the worst they started interacting when port was 15 I think how old was evar

17 I guess

I also was given port's nudes not by evar by him himself but, he's only a year older than me

uh

I believe I was 14 at the time, so port being 15, evar officially had child porn (and likely still does?)

Brandon Engel is a 21 year old gay furry hailing from Wisconsin with an autistic obsession for sound design. He is also a cub enthusiast, pedophile, pedophile defender, and was groomed by the Blockland furry community. Check the chat logs!

Arekan Today at 4:12 PM

i don't think they're pedophiles, but i'm not saying they didn't do anything wrong either pedophile is a pretty big accusation to throw at people when stuff has a LOT. of nuance

i was groomed into the fandom at like ~12? 14? i used cub art as a coping mechanism for a very long time, but i only looked at it, that was it i cut that out now, but that doesn't mean i'm a pedophile, because it was just the art

i hate actual children LMAO

I see, it is difficult to discern exactly what is a pedophile I guess

Arekan Today at 4:14 PM

i don't trust the court of public opinion to make proper decisions and responses to these things

Defending Evar. Poor taste friend.

afaik evar said to me he uses it as a coping mechanism too? i don't know his whole situation

it's not a healthy coping mechanism by any means but it's definitely not pedophilia either i don't know what to tell you ultimately though you should make up your own mind on that

Arekan Today at 4:17 PM

it was i don't think there's a problem with my personality but the coping wasn't good Masturbating to child porn isn't a coping mechanism for being groomed, Brandon. And you defending Evar is disgusting.

As you can see, a majority (if not all!) of the Brickadia team shares the same mindset. Tolerating pedophilic imagery and fetishry, being interested in it themselves, or apologizing/defending their friends who also partake in their twisted sexual interests.

Timo Suikat / Zeblote

Discord: Zeblote#0001

BLF: <https://forum.blockland.us/index.php?action=profile;u=53437>

Timo Suikat (Zeblote) is a 20-something year old man from a backwater shithole in Germany with a dream. Assemble a crew for Blockland 2. He himself is not a kid-fucker (as far as us at Block Gang know!) but has one of the worst track records for suppression of information and inaction, to the benefit of the degenerates that comprise of a MAJORITY of his development team.

Zeblote claims they dispensed justice immediately... but actively suppressed, with his legion of pedo defenders, information in the Discord regarding Aeronara's sacking, until public outcry boiled over and he had to concede.

Zeblote 09/29/2020

Hey everyone, today we have more serious news than usual.

About a month ago, we chose to remove a new developer from the Brickadia development team. Just a few months after recruiting them, it was brought to our attention that they had been in a relationship with a minor in their past that had gone past the scope of friendship. The specifics of this relationship aren't something we can confirm, but we would like to emphasize that we take these sorts of allegations very seriously. With the evidence that was privately brought to us, we decided it was important for the safety of our users and as a point of ethics that we take that member off of the team immediately and remove them from our community.

We originally did not announce this to you as we did not believe that their actions were directed to anyone on the platform. Instead we attempted to resolve the issue by privately contacting the affected parties, and not bring potentially unwanted attention to what is obviously a very private subject to them. In hindsight, this only left an opening for confusion and miscommunication surrounding their removal, and has brought up several questions about how our team shares information with the public.

We understand now that staying silent about the issue was not the correct decision. You deserve to know about serious events that happen with our team members, especially when they have the possibility of affecting the safety of our users. You are owed honesty, and we vow to give you honesty and transparency in the future. Please do not hesitate to contact our moderation team if you ever have any concerns about the safety of yourself or any members of our community.

Apparently, your speech about “not staying silent” was just PR coping. You’ve let the same situation happen again. It turns out your entire team is filled with child enthusiasts. Now Block Gang must deliver the truth. Actions (or in-action in this case) speak louder than words. And you have left much unsaid.
