NOTHING HAS BEEN RESOLVED NOR HAVE I TAKEN BACK ANYTHING IN THIS DOCUMENT AS OF MONDAY SEPTEMBER 15TH, 8:41 PM EST

response to recent thread 9/24/2025- those texts and calls was me reaching him because my mother ended her own life. i was letting everyone who knew her know because i thought that's what she would have wanted and what was right. she liked him when we were dating and they've talked multiple times. shame on you eli for trying to use this against me. you're disgusting.

My mom died August 19th 2025 by Suicide. Here are the texts he posted in full, the date reads, August 19th 2025. The police left around 5:30 pm, i was left to gather my things and this is the time i started to contact everyone (that wasn't family) about the news.

another update regarding the recent edit : i am seething with anger tbh, the fact i am made to explain my sexual assault story because this loser can't take accountability is beyond me, plus the post date was the date i attempted to reach him regarding my mom. the second person only knows my info cause person A decided it was funny to give my gov name, so if you see this, y'all also aint getting shit!

aug 12 2025- i have deleted all of my photos (to make space for a concert this weekend) and added all these screenshots + recordings into a drive if needed once more. i am pretty sure i have everything saved, in the off chance i do not, hopefully the screenshot missing is in here..

august 22nd 2025 - i attempted to make contact with hytoko, this is due to a personal issue that does not pertain to this. he did not reply and that is fine, if he tries to use this against me then i'll tell what i contacted about, if not i'd rather keep it private as it is extremely traumatic.

I just saw the post he made 8/19/25.

this is the same screenshot he posted. since i feel the need to put this out there so he can't use it against me after wishing for me he could do something, here it is August 2024 to November of 2024, i was in a relationship with someone i met on instagram (turned IRL) around september i went homeless and ended up living with him where he would constantly hurt me, putting his hands on me, yelling, we fought often, etc. in october it got worse, leading to him sexually assaulting me, i will not be going into detail of this assault as i can't think about it given everything going on in my life currently, it'll just lead me down a road i don't want to go down mentally. November we broke up, i told what happened to one of his friends that stayed in contact and that led to the court and restraining order for Domestic Violence.

I do not know the second person which makes it very difficult for me to disprove but i assume it's the person's friend who i got into the debate with as mentioned below, he's still mad he lost i guess...

How did person B know my name? Redacted above and me went to school together, since kindergarten to 3rd grade. i don't care if my full name is out there, i don't care if my info is also out there, the know you more about me is how you are able to trust a person. plus y'all aint scary so...

Hytoko @Hytok0 · 8/19/25

I was told a handful of things by these two. For one they were able to confirm with me that she was doing this purely for attention alongside the fact that I've grown successful. All of this despite us resolving our toxic relationship back in December-January this year. She won't t views. She said he is doing this your game is good and she is talking to make a video heads up

Now I can say I didn't know who she was talking about at this time. I don't talk down to anyone besides the people I hate and I didn't know WHO she was talking about at this time.

I didn't want this screenshot to look like I was shitting on you, I didn't know who this was but if you need more information this is what I have

Hytoko @Hytok0 · 8/19/25

Tell you this because if she did it would

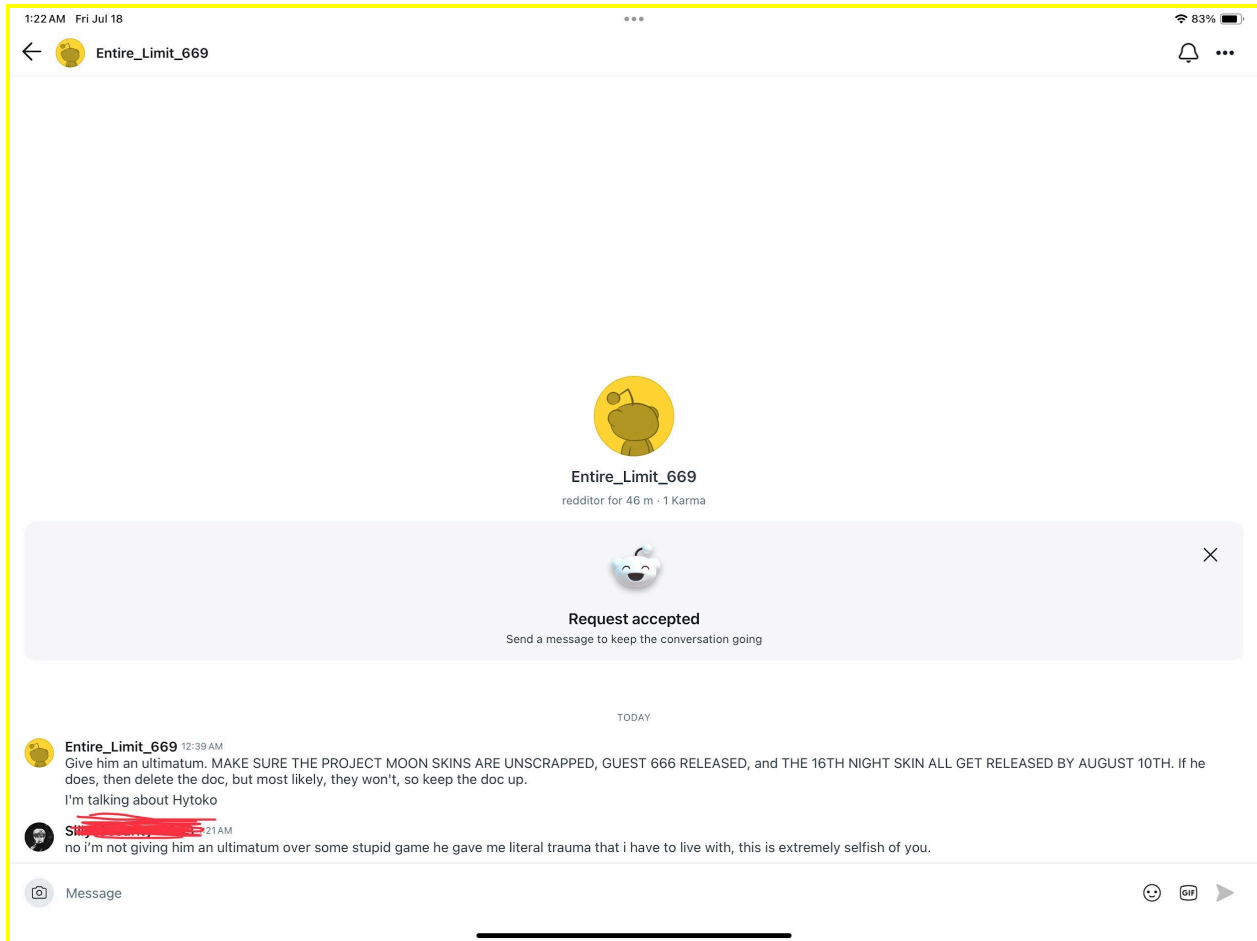

This first screenshot from this person is falsified. They had blocked me due to one of their friends starting a political war with me (i'm a very vocally anarchist) and ended up getting pissy i proved them wrong with articles about how donald trump is the worst mf on the planet. I will not namedrop as much as i want to but consider this a good reason i haven't reached out to you or your mom about how you're doing + ashes. I'm done taking disrespect from you and your alcoholic mom that ended up leading to what events unfolded.

i know who he was talking to. The post with timestamps of 4/26/2025 was the court date of me facing my rapist. My ex after eli put his hands on me and sexually assaulted me, that message was not about eli but about my ex who i currently have a big fat restraining order on. since 8/22/25, i have fled my home state due to a recent incident. The claim " i'm doing this to <https://youtu.be/0eRsu3JF5qA> — an update from the shrimp (7/23/25) released a small video outlining some things, nothing too big like a large update more of how i feel watching my whole story being shifted and more by eli. Im not a content creator and i have a really bad laptop so its not going to be high quality. sorry.

the pillar chase subreddit (mods) with the original post has been taken down for rule breaking..."no controversial topics" how is this doc controversial if you found the doc on reddit let's not do this. this isn't about you, or your stupid little roblox game, it's about me and my trauma related to eli. thanks y'all lost comment perms cause y'all keep messing around.

Why did i leave his name in the document? - hytoko is an online name. i did not know him online, only irl. referring to him as his online name wipes the idea of "this happened to me in person". if i only said "hytoko, hytoko" it also erases the fact that there's a person behind this persona. a person that harmed me. so i'm keeping his name in here, i don't care if he doesn't like it, or if you don't like it. this is my trauma, and my experience and i'm not going to let someone with a "large online presence" erase the fact that the person i know was not who you think hytoko is.

Eli, this attempt in trying to deflect blame back onto me after you texted me asking to take down the document is so childish. Own up to what you did and how you still act a whole year later. you are 20. you are not 17 and going through a friendship breakup, you are dealing with serious allegations from me. You have zero proof i was the problem and there's a reason for that. because i wasn't, and you know this. stop deflecting blame and own up, it was going to come out eventually. you wouldn't have asked for the document to be taken down if you were not in the wrong. — his PR training is good i gotta admit. i'm more angry than anything right now, claiming he's owning up to it then throwing back "well here's this, and here's this" completely attempting to destroy my lived experience. "I got into a hit and run..well my dog died so" type of thing. This is my experience, what I had to deal with and for the one person begging me to take this document down after "owning up" turning around and doing the same exact thing he did a year ago is just a re-run of a show that shouldn't have even aired. if you really want to dismiss my problem with you like it was all me you can do that eli, but you do not have anything that i cannot rebuttal with proof. you aren't changed, you're worse.

(7/16/25) I mentioned somewhere in here that he texted me before this document started heavily circulating. A lot of what he said in that big thread he put out about the document was a full lie. He has not changed. In the screenshot below (originally a video of the entire conversation) this can somewhat prove what i mean by "He (Hytoko) has not changed." Guilt tripping is a very wide range of manipulation and he uses it here, trying to claim "you're so stubborn, you haven't changed" to get his way with the doc being taken down. "well how is this guilt tripping dear shrimp (me if you haven't figured that out yet)?" When people try to guilt trip others, it's usually used to break the other person down to gain what they want in the process. This can include commenting about someone's character, looks, actions, or them in general. This also applies to commenting about a past issue that they might hold grief over, or regrets to make them feel worse about it and cause them to 'give in' due to 'wanting to be better.' I admit, i am a very stubborn person, but that is literally due to how he treated me. My guard walls have been up ever since him and another ex and i refuse to let anyone walk over me like the way he attempted to during this past conversation. (he started screen recording so i said "i can do that too" — I was on a call with someone for multiple hours prior to this point and confronted him for lying to this other person then lying to me, this person is Gwamgo. Gwamgo has the full recording but i literally cannot post it myself without cutting out parts that are extremely sensitive and pertain to something different than me and Hytoko. please understand :)

(why was this added? to prove that hytoko manipulates his fan base into thinking he is the victim or the good guy. it helps me put my side into more of a perception where i'm heard too instead of hytoko being able to be like "nuh u" and getting y'all to shut my entire issue down)

let me also add the screenshot since it has something to do with souls situation (i do not know anything about it i just know something happened) he admits in "twisting public perception” to change minds about soul?

i don't know what happened but him literally telling this person "i had to say that to twist the public perception" is really all i need when replying to the thread he made.

(7/13/25) - "Why is the document still up if he's saying you were supposed to delete it?"

He didn't keep his end of the deal. I gave him an ultimatum, i'll delete the doc IF he tells his friends who attacked me that what he told them was not true and showed them the doc, and go on twt, delete the thread where he turned tables and post a new one explaining how the doc was not fabricated. I private the doc after he did this (didn't delete it because i knew he wasn't gonna keep it up) and through the grapevine i heard that the thread was deleted, so i published the doc once more.

here's the thread he posted claiming the issue being on him and that he "tried to reach out". my replies are to the "i reached out." part. (Crossed out is my main account username, refer to above highlighted for any questions.)

(7/12/25) Hello, I wanted to add that i Do Not retract anything in this document nor will i ever. This document is to highlight my personal experience and the treatment i was put through with hytoko and in no way shape or form will I ever "take it back." According to a couple people I have talked to, hytoko is stating this, This is not the case. Me and him made an agreement he (admittedly) fell short on so i kept the document up. Thank you! (formatting might be a little weird on certain devices, this is due to me writing the entirety of this document on an ipad, i apologize!)

(7/12/25 - 3 hours later) This is gaining a lot of traction and i thank the people who are commenting on my reddit post with support and everyone else who is supporting me. I wanted to add that the screenshots down below was when he added me on snapchat asking me to take down the document because "he's more popular", i told him no. (obviously.) Due to how much attention this document is getting i'm scared he's going to start lying about the entire situation once again.

REPLY TO THREAD (7/12/25 - 30 minutes after last update) He is lying again. The youtuber Gwango, is currently editing the video on this and the only thing he is using against me (claiming i said he's going to shoot up a university) is proven false. I never once said in the email to the university that he is going to shoot someone, i claimed he had homicidal thoughts in the past and plans in the future to conceal carry without permit which is legal in our state. I mentioned that i was concerned for the safety of other students due to those two reasons combined with how fast he snaps on people. I did not want anyone to be hurt especially after what i had gone through. Here is the screenshot of the email, the things marked out give out the university's name which i also attend (it's the only one in the city we live in) and would cause me to dox both of us, please understand the reason for the name crossed out, nothing else will be marked out though. — For his "she wanted to kill someone too" segment, yes i've had those types of thoughts but no plan, i don't carry ANY weapons and i literally have a restraining order on said person. if that doesn't explain why i've had those thoughts then idk what will. PTSD can cause these thoughts to occur aswell, it's wanting control back in the situation i was put in but i will never act on the, as much as i have anger and fear of the people who have harmed me. Once again, i do not carry any weapons, no knives, no guns, not even keys. the risk for safety on me towards others is extremely low, the risk for him is extremely high due to him carrying weapons and more.

May i also add, i have seen the thread. A lot of what he is claiming is an attempt to hit back at me to make him the victim. His own friends have come out to me stating he is abusive, he is a bad person. There's proof of this on lower pages.

Nowhere does it state "he is going to shoot up the school" When i dated him he actively carried knives, so i had right for concern on top of past homicidal thoughts and possible plans. I never said once that " he is going to do it" it was just a possibility.

Student Issues - Eli Adams

A student that is enrolled on your campus under the name Eli Adams has brought me some concerns for other students. He has told me he has thought of homicidal intentions and thought out plans to carry these attacks. This majorly concerns me for the safety of other students due to the fact that he has admitted to me personally he thought of physically hurting me as well. I am not a student of your campus but I do not see why I cannot fear for the safety of others enrolled at your campus. I believe you should look into this, and if you have any concerns, I have a document showing these harmful behaviors as well as emotional and mental abuse between him to me.

I have also heard that the co-owner has a hold on this document. Hytoko will lie about this document. I would want to reach out to you about this if needed but if not i'd like to remain anonymous. The only person who knows who I am is hytoko himself and i'd like to keep it that way if possible.

The screenshots below claim the deleted threat as mentioned above. We did not agree on deleting anything other than the document and I had no clue the entire threat he wrote out about this due to the ultimatum I gave him was deleted till AFTER he blocked me.

(also, in our states above the age of 18, full legal names are not considered private information, meaning i legally can keep his name in this document.)

My most recent relationship Eli H Adams .(with the online name “Hypo / Hytoko” on all platforms) has been a rollercoaster. He is emotionally abusive and verbally abusive. Even though the relationship lasted only a month and a half, i still have the proof to show what i mean.

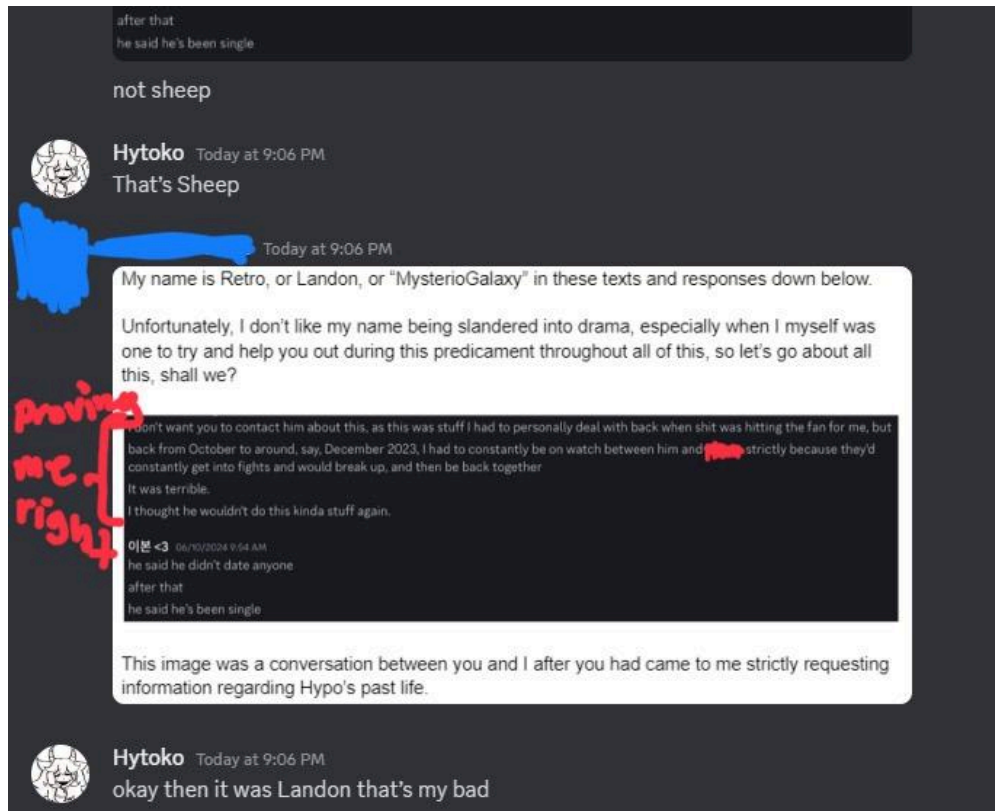

UPDATE 3- I have been confronted by someone with information that i am understanding to be completely contradictory to Hytokos claims of me abusing him.

He claims that my photos are cropped “Heavily” to make me seem like a bad person. Please know i have screenrecroded everything in our discord dms and will be posting them soon.

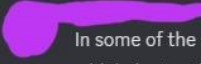

He also says my claims are all fake.

In the screenshot below, he used the photo as a way to defend himself but then goes on and uses the photo of his friend telling ME that this isn't Hytokos first time doing stuff like this and that his friend “thought he changed”. Also got the friend wrong then claimed it was landon's screenshot (it was mine, i cropped and blurred it.

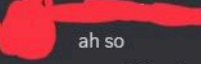

Him claiming he was a victim and then immediately taking it back after the screenshot HE provided just contradicted himself and proved me right. For the last part of this next screenshot. All i did was call him out because apparently he “didn’t know he was being manipulative” so i stood up for myself and tried to leave, he would apologize by deflecting the blame and manipulate my mind to think we both needed to work on ourselves. This turned out to be not true, it’s him who needs help. (View breakup message for full insight)

 Today at 8:36 PM
In some of the screenshots you admit to being manipulative at times and not handling the relationship well which, isnt really my business to get mad at you for but i was wondering about that bit

 Hytoko Today at 8:37 PM
Manipulated into saying that. She would crop them in a way where she would steadily make it seem like I was manipulating her until I eventually caved and said i was (edited)

 Hytoko Today at 8:29 PM
Yeah I'm free to chat
What's up Froggy?

 Today at 8:29 PM
ah so one of the developers found a post on twitter regarding you and a previous relationship, and they asked if I had seen it

yeah, my previous relationship with my mentally manipulative and abusive ex?

 Today at 8:30 PM
I haven't actually spoken with the doc creator, so i only know what was presented within the document Relationship stuff is not really our business, my only concern is that it was expressed that you would potentially hurt your ex out of anger within the document as in physically hurt them

 Hytoko Today at 8:31 PM
None of that's true Genuinely
Like

He would do this thing in all of his apologies to me where he would deflect the blame rather than take full responsibility. I'm sorry but i was never at fault for any of his actions towards me. Nor was i at fault for anything actually. I never once abused him in any way shape or form including manipulation as he claims. He is only claiming this because i have reached out to many of his family and friends to let them know what is going on. I will provide a screenshot of what his father said about his actions as well.

 Today at 9:23 PM
Hytoko, I haven't actually spoken to this person so i don't really know that much, only what me and the devs saw going down publicly on twitter
I dont really want to go out of my way to message them when everything is already on twitter but,,,its kinda upsetting that you have lied to me saying you were actually a victim and did nothing wrong and only admitted that you were actually at fault after i pointed out that your own screenshots proved their claims true

 Hytoko Today at 9:24 PM
I didnt mean to claim that I was a victim...I'm sorry...
We were both at fault
Her more than me, but we were both at genuine fault for how this ended but I understand your disappointment in me... and I'm sorry...

 Today at 9:25 PM
Your own friend collaborates that you have mistreated the ex, at least in some fashion which is confirmed in both documents the fact you said all their claims were a lie, and then didnt realize your friend was actually collaborating on what they were saying makes me skeptical as to what is being claimed

*Deflection of blame
- by unknowingly
- Deflection*

This is his friend literally saying he is not a victim and that he did infact do something wrong and is lying about it. Purple blur has seen all of the screen recordings and knows a lot about this situation. more than hytoko knows about.

This is his father telling me he will talk to his son about his actions and that how he treated me and his language towards me is not acceptable from his views which in my bias means a lot in this situation.

UPDATE 2 - On the 12th of July he replied to this document. He states he's never done anything to me and that this is all defamation. I have screenshots of him admitting to this terrible behavior.

I emailed his college because he confided in me possible plans to kill people. He carries a knife in his grey and red satchel bag and mentioned carrying a gun in his center console. The gun was mentioned near a turn off next to the place his friend works. The murder plans were mentioned next to a now pink and white snowball shack AND down a road with a bridge in his town. The bridge is a turned/curved bridge. He has since claimed this was a joke.

This is a reply to my attempted breakup message, just to remake that clear can't keep myself happy if you ignore me, and forget that i'm a person too.

I woke up around 12:13, that's the current time that I've begun writing this. I know you want to call, and I am more than happy to once this message goes through. But I'm far better at conveying emotion and such through text and writings compared to in person...

I'm gonna start this off by saying sorry. Especially today. You kept trying to talk to me and let your emotions out as I had told you. Instead of...well...doing what I should have...what I wanted to do I instead focused on other things. That shouldn't have been an excuse and I shouldn't have just brushed you off and let your emotions sit and lie. I should have done what a boyfriend should do...I should have been there for you. Instead I just...didn't. And I don't know why...

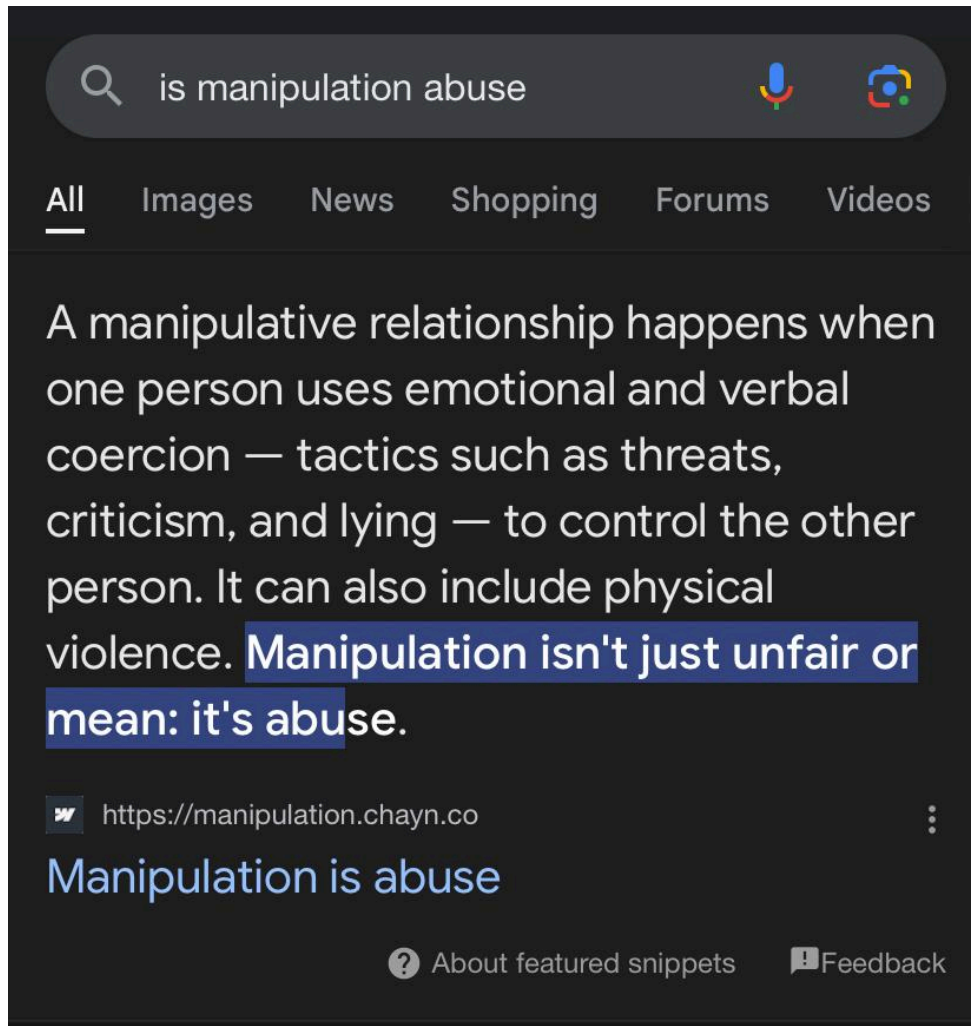

I'm not gonna blame you for all that's happened. It's mostly been me. Neglecting, not putting in enough effort, and just...not being a good boyfriend. Like you said yourself...I'm becoming my ex...and I hate that...

You have every right to be disappointed and upset with me. And just...wanting to break away from me is completely reasonable too...despite how much it hurts and makes me shake typing that.

I'm not gonna excuse my actions. I already explained that I was in the wrong, but...I'm also scared. I don't want you to have an image of me always being this positive and bubbly person...that's what I think I give off anyway normally. It scares me and having the mindset I do makes me think that I need to be a specific way. I need to be tough and kind, hard as stone but cold...I don't know why I think like this but I do...and I'm sorry...

I'm sorry for manipulating and deceiving you...even if I didn't realize that i was doing it. There's no excuse for my actions and I'm sorry that I've been making you feel this way, for making you feel like you don't have a choice and for draining you. Now that I think about it it makes sense why I've drained you....im sorry...

I'm not gonna beg you to stay either. If...you want to move on then you're more than welcome too. Even if it hurts me. I don't want you to leave...but that's because i love you and want you to stay...I see you as someone I can love forever...but if u can't better myself then there's no point.... I'm sorry...and I'm

He admitted it after writing and sending my breakup message down near the last couple of last paragraphs. He states that he was scared so he manipulated, yelled, lied, deceived, mentally and emotionally abused me. I am not two faced as he claims and all of these screenshots are cropped for extremely personal reasons and not to “make him look bad”. He is bad and he admitted it himself. The only reason his friends are standing up for him is due to the fact that they stood up for him during the times he fucked up bad too. Men are men i suppose. For example, one of my close friends got upset at a terrible comment one of them made and they all stood up for the person making the comment rather than the hurt it brang.

what else are you hiding from me.

I don't know...genuinely I don't know...

what are your intentions when you degrade me.

are you trying to hurt me to get me to stay with you

This is when i broke down and broke up with him after finding out he talked to his exes. He is admitting that he has degraded me, hurt me. HE IS ABUSIVE.

screenshot 1 and 2 - This day i was going through a SI crisis and needed someone to talk to. I was told to go to him whenever i needed him and that he would be here for me. This was the day one of his “friends” was having a twitter argument and he needed to be there for them instead while i was planning on my d3ath. He told me he was too tired to help and told me i was acting like his abusive ex (who he was helping with the twt drama) for seeking the help he told me i could confide in him.

screenshots 3 and 4 - This day we had an argument which led to him ghosting me for a bit. He asked why i loved him and that set off a red flag to me. Red flag as in possible SI and not to be left alone until i know for sure he was okay. He yelled at me, causing me to breakdown in a VC i was in with his friends (not naming out of respect.) I gave him an ultimatum. The messages will be pictured below in screenshot 5.

ss 5 -

He never said anywhere through these messages that he wanted to be left alone, as stated above.

screenshot 6

During these messages (as stated above i was going through a breakdown crisis) he shot down my feeling and told me he was too 'fatigued' from helping his ex beat ped0 allegations to understand that i needed him too. The message i sent was the first time i attempted to break up with him. We talked it out but I had a lingering feeling that nothing said was a full truth statement.

screenshot 7 and 8 - my (attempted) breakup message.

(resending because i hit max characters on discord.) i think just gonna break it off with you. you can say that you're tired and this and that, but how do you think i feel?. I can't voice my concerns without you thinking i'm just a version of your ex. I cant feel anything because you're dealing with your friend instead. i can't keep being confined when you don't want to talk to me about this. you can say you care but you've proven enough that you don't. i've tried to talk to you before i make up my mind to see if anything changes but obviously it hasn't and i don't think it will. whenever you want to come get your stuff, text me on messages. i don't have you unadded on there. I've tried to convey how i feel and once again you're just another person to shut it down to worry about something else. i've listened to you, i've tried to make you happy but it seems like i can't do that. i don't think i want to give you another chance because the chances i've given were already too much and i just don't want to deal with this. you have problems and i have problems, but you don't need to shut me down because a problem got too big for you. i'm a person too. i have feelings too. i really did try to talk to you about this before i made up my mind but once again you showed that you do not care. i don't want to do this but i feel like i don't have a choice unless i want to keep having my feelings pushed aside. you haven't tried to show that you care. i love you but you don't want to talk to me about these things and it just shows that you. do. not. care. you only seem to care about your feelings. i don't care to leave you alone right now because you have shown me i am not important enough for you to care so i am returning the favor. You aren't this person you think you are and any kind of criticism you get seems to just make you worse. like i said, i love you and i really did see a future with us, the same way you saw one with me but you have shown to me that other things are more important than someone you say you love with your whole heart. You don't listen to my concerns and you turn the blame onto me. You name call me and demonize me. you are turning into someone who i do not wish to love. and you not replying to anything i have concerns about further proves all of my past statements. i really wish i could give you another chance but i feel like you're just gonna get worse, plus you don't seem to care when i do, you beg for me to stay but you get mad at me when i tell you why i want to leave you. In all reality you are the one turning into your ex. Not me. you hurt my feelings then get upset when i'm not over it. That's manipulation and borderline abusive. You get defensive whenever someone says something you don't agree with and then think it's okay to pin the blame on them for your actions. i can't marry someone who will eventually turn into a monster. like i said i do not want to do this at all but you leave me no choice because you don't care enough to talk to me when i feel a certain way because you're too busy caring for someone else or you're too tired to think of how i feel in this situation. You make me push my feelings aside. You make me act like everything's okay or else you get upset and take it out on me. I don't care if my words hurt you because you obviously don't care enough about yours. Especially after yelling at me, saying i'm reminding you of your ex, saying that i'm rude, and more. I've come to realize you are the one draining me and i feel like you're doing it on purpose. You refuse to save this and i'm actually so tired with this cat and mouse game. You act like you care but in all reality you don't. You only care about how you feel. It's apparent now. As stated before, come get your things within a week or i am going to give it away. I really tried to save my love for you but you did and do not care. You're too tired to care about anybody but yourself. I made a mistake in thinking this would last long and i'm sorry to lead you like this. as much as i want to let you respond to save this, i'm scared you're just going to turn the blame back on me instead of listening to my feelings because you got all butthurt that you aren't a good boyfriend, and do nothing to try and change that. you refuse to talk to me and i can't do anything more then break up with you because you don't care enough to respond. i'm sorry, i really wish we could have talked about this beforehand, as much as this hurts me, i need to put my feelings first instead. i wish you could talk to me about this see if anything changes but obviously it hasn't and i don't think it will. whenever you want to come get your stuff, text me on messages. i don't have you unadded on there. You twist my words and ignore my feelings. That's not what i want in a boyfriend or future husband. i'll let you reply as one last time to save this because i do not want to do this but keep note that it's going to be hard to change my mind.

I've told you multiple times that I'm trying...
And if I'm shifting blame it's not intentional...

yeah i'm leaving you come get your stuff wednesday. this is what i was talking about.

When i meant that if i didn't see a change, i'm done i meant done. reading this still makes my blood run cold from how hurt i felt. This was after the breakup message was sent. We once again talked it out, i felt like i couldn't leave this situation though, in fear he would do something as he admitted when dropping off my things. "I didn't come inside due to a fear of me hurting you" when i asked him to elaborate, he meant physically.

screenshots 11 12 13 and 14 -

11 - This is his friend telling me that one of his closet friends was an Ex girlfriend. I had not known about this at all before we got together. I would have been fine with it but he hid the fact that they dated from me even though i told him i was still friends with my exes. It broke the trust i had in him, leading to another breakup message like sent before.

12 - This is his friend stating that this wasn't the first time he has stepped up for someone that was in my shoes.

13 - same friend stating that this isn't the first time this has happened. Also this was when I found out about the person that drained him was actually his ex.

14 - Person on twt responding to his defense against his exes ped0 allegations.

Arlo, stop hold on

I'm letting you know, he's not trying to be rude or anything on purpose, but the way you're speaking to him isn't helping, if you were serious about actually loving him, and scared about leaving him, you would've listened alright? Suki is Eli's ex and I will let you know that I was in the crossfire of that too, the reason they're still friends after a giant falling out, is because talked to both sides and made sure they were okay, they both put in the effort to try and work it out

this is NOT the first time I've had to deal with something like this with Eli.

이본 <3 06/10/2024 9:52 AM

so he is abusive.

I don't want you to contact him about this, as this was stuff I had to personally deal with back when shit was hitting the fan for me, but back from October to around, say, December 2023, I had to constantly be on watch between him and [REDACTED] strictly because they'd constantly get into fights and would break up, and then be back together
It was terrible.

I thought he wouldn't do this kinda stuff again.

이본 <3 06/10/2024 9:54 AM

he said he didn't date anyone after that he said he's been single

I'm also gonna say this, you're masking this entire situation and putting this shit under a rug.

You're acting like nobody will forget about any of this, you have used almost every excuse known to man.

You're ALSO getting your friends to help cover you up, since you can't speak for yourself publicly, and you're getting your ex that btw mentally/emotionally abused you to protect you online.

I also don't understand why you're trying to get the victim in this situation to speak out about you, and protect your side.

there is NOTHING he can say about this, since this is ALL your doing. YOU had the chance to remove him from the visualizer and the cover in general, you should have thought about the consequences that would come with this.

Creating a sexual influenced visualizer about you and a minor should've been a huge red flag at the beginning, and you can't always pull out the autism card whenever you get in trouble for your actions.

He stated last week the only reason he made amends with his 'abusive' ex was so he could be remembered as a "Good Person" and to give himself an ego boost for the future. I do not have any screenshots of this but he told me this at a red light right before the underpass of an exit ramp we were going to take to go get food at his exes work in town. the car in front of us was a black SUV.

His friends came to me with all of this information. I let him look through my phone to prove that I never asked for any of this to come to light.

that's crazy

fuck off

genuinely

you're a fucking liar

ME

I hope you find somebody who will love you plenty Goodbye

FARTLO

you're so full of shit
i am!
i have someone's number already!

Here's you admitting to cheating on me

i very much dislike you

i didn't cheat????

Before he pulls it out of his ass too, i stated i already had someone's number. I did infact lie because he would not leave me alone. but it is not cheating because we broke up tuesday, this took place on thursday, 2 days after. I still sent him screenshots of my call logs on all social media apps to prove that i never once even thought about another person. He put it in his head, asking things like "Someone else i bet"

Hytoko 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

Who's it you been eyeing now

이본 <3 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

nobody

Hytoko 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

someone better I think

이본 <3 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

i don't want anyone

Hytoko 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

I'd guess

이본 <3 06/25/2024 11:20 AM i don't who

who do you fucking think because all i wanted was you.

Hytoko 06/25/2024 11:20 AM

I don't know

but you were already getting ready to turn away

So I bet there's somebody else

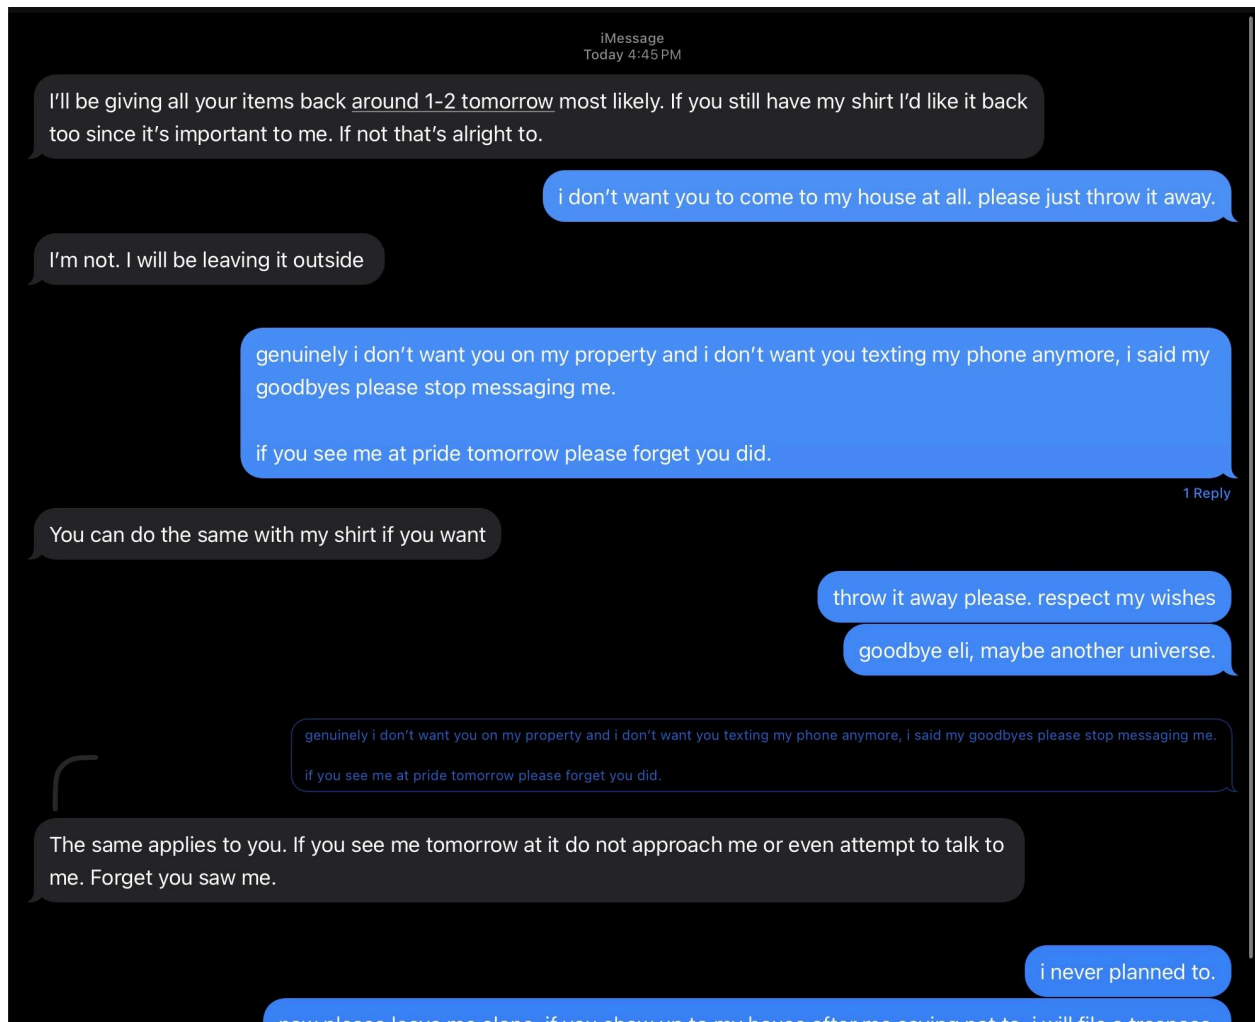

Screenshot 12 to prove above statements.

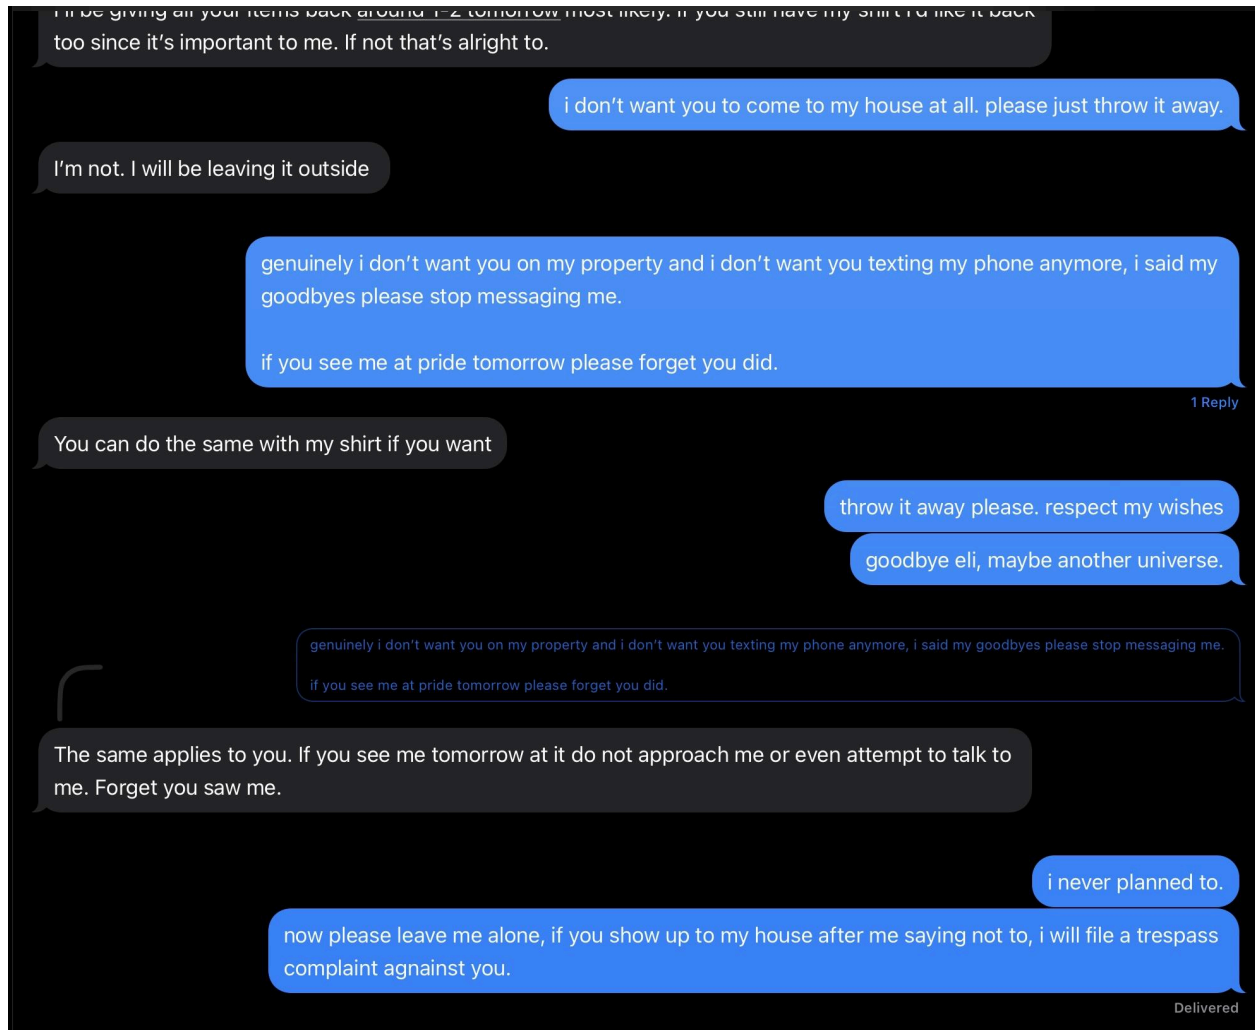

I was thinking about ending it, the way i've have been treated in this relationship was disgusting and i am making this document to warn others about his terrible actions and what i had to endure in the span of only a month.

He texted me today, june 28th. Saying he's coming to bring my things after i told him multiple times in the prior days to throw it. Here's a screenshot from today showing he wanted to defy my boundaries and show up at my house anyways. Also let's give an honorable mention to the selfishness displayed in all of this.

My feelings were pushed down because he was too tired to be a good boyfriend.

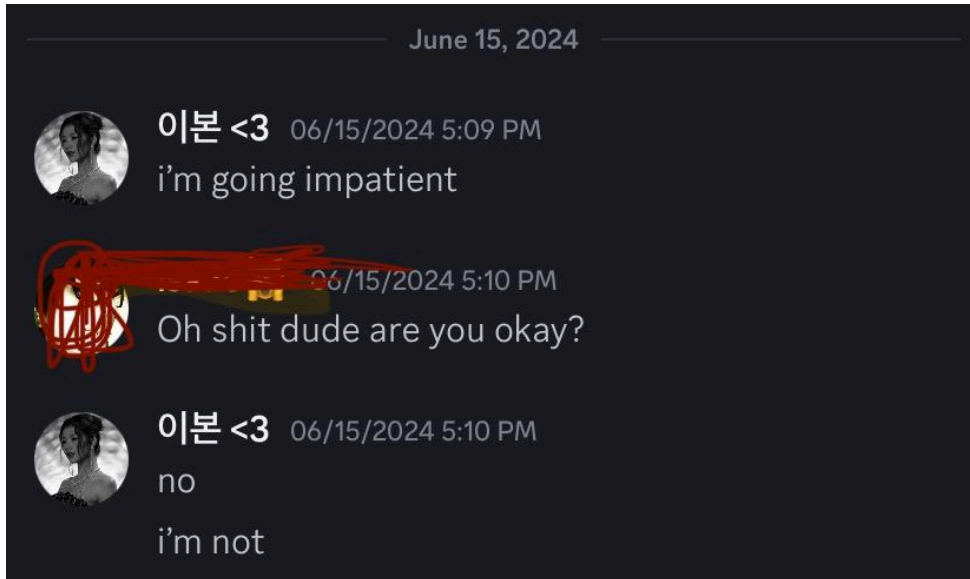

final screenshots -

I never once yelled, said anything hurtful, name called, or degraded him in any of this. Eli (Hytoko) is abusive. He cannot understand where he went wrong because he doesn't listen to how anybody but himself feels. He's a narcissist and extremely egotistical, pushing others feelings off because his is more important no matter what

Before he states that i 'suicide baited' I did not. I was admitted to the mental hospital for SI and they found the medication i took as my attempt in my samples i had to give. I will not be showing these labs because simply, they did not let me keep them, they needed the papers for file work. I do not have a way to prove this other than messages from me and my friend with me stating i'm checking myself in after taking medications i hoped killed me.

I was in the hospital from the 15th of June to the 21st.

UPDATE - On the 4th of July I attempted to take my life again and I got the closest I've ever been. I texted him that I loved him and he proceeded to yell at me. I do not have the SS for I did not see a reason to screenshot, I was supposed to not wake up the next morning.

Thank you for reading and hearing my voice because I'm done sitting quiet to this behavior.
