Bio : Welcome to my YouTube channel! I make videos based on whatever I'm passionate about which generally entails anime and video games, and my style varies from super in-depth video essay analysis stuff to sarcastic satirical parody since doing what I want above uninteresting trends ensures my content to remain in peak condition, may the memes be with you. Bio : Lol, if you're here then you already know me... I try to upload quality original content like 3 times a week and focusing on it aside from schooling and part-time work is near impossible so that's where you come in... Thanks so much for making your way here, it really means the world to me, I appreciate it immensely, and thanks for any help you can spare!
