Exhibit A: @dunkbunko: his infamous and only message on Oct 31, joined on Aug 16, 2024

im ngl i feel at rock bottom so I'm coming here. This is datsmojo/fallenchungus/whatever, and the account i've been using to view this thread. I want fallenchungus to end, whatever this saga is. I'm attempting to take some of the criticism that makes sense here, and I really do just want to move on from the public eye, cus it's not worth the incessant hate anymore. The least yall can do is report the account as well, unless you dont want to, which is fine as well. Despite everything I hope yall had a nice halloween, and I hope things can improve, just generally.

The biggest mistake he could make, now not only do people know he's in the thread, it raises my suspicion that the other accounts mentioned in this doc are him.

- +ANALYSIS ON TYPING+ (+ means sure, ? means idk)
- + sometimes capitalizes (i) when referring to self, sometimes doesn't.
- + uses commas very often
- + sometimes doesn't use apostrophes (')

+OTHER OBSERVATIONS+

? You don't need an account to view a thread, (maybe this wasn't the case back then) but he mentions that he made one to lurk.

+ He wishes everyone a nice day, you see this closing in @buddyfellaadventures

Exhibit B: @ocean helgrammite: joined on Jan 21, 2025 (his username is similar to microplasticgp, analyzed in exhibit D. Might be coincidence)

Wednesday at 9:22 PM

I've just got a question, as someone who knows Mojo, WHY are you all so obsessed with him and what he does? (no, I'm not going to send anything about him here nor do i tell him about any of this as he's better off for not hearing all this shit said about him)

I come check in every two months or so to see what's going on and most of the time it's either just meaningless hating or seeing things he does in the worst light possible (which i can understand why, this is a very one tracked thread dedicated to a man with a bumpy, rocky past) which just has me confused. A lot of things here mentioned recently were either jokes poking fun at certain varieties of twitter users (e.x, the thick stick figure) or were things mentioned to reinforce a point he was trying to make like cold opening with stating his fetish. (I understand what he said on the thread should be obvious to anyone, but as you all like to point out here too: twitter is a fucking awful site. it is simply not a thought that crosses many user's minds, especially minors that are more often than not being groomed into having gross fetishes on twitter.)

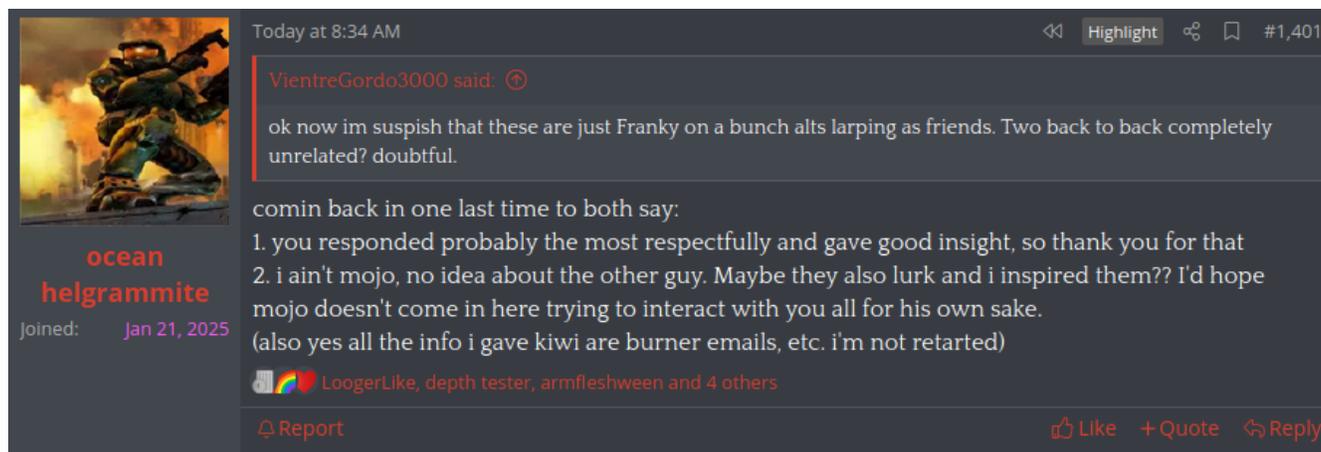

A great many of you claim to want to see him grow for the better, but within the same breath I've seen the people that wish for his betterment wish he had actually killed himself or are praying that he does something genuinely substantial to give way to his downfall. I understand that none of you know him personally as friends or even acquaintances so it may be hard to see it from the view I'm coming from however.

I'm not barging in here to tell you all to GrOw Up AnD bE bEtTeR and sing kumbaya, but I just want to know what the obsession is? And I want to offer my own viewpoint on the matter to all of you who may not know him too well at all beyond seeing the outer shell on twitter.

- +ANALYSIS ON TYPING- (- is less + is more. Referring to possibility of being an alt. I use ? here to indicate I'm not quite sure, but wrote it down as a note)
- + sometimes capitalizes (i) when referring to self, sometimes doesn't.
- + uses 1-2 commas in some sentences
- + sometimes doesn't use apostrophes (')
- ? Says crap like "ain't"
- sometimes doesn't capitalize start of sentences (see 2nd post)
- rarely does not finish (ing) suffixes
- has very long paragraphs, not really something that Francis did before

+OTHER OBSERVATIONS+

+ He notes in the first post, 2nd paragraph: "I come check in every two months or so to see what's going on" He had been lurking the thread prior to making an account, so he had highly likely started checking around the time that dunkbunko made his Oct 31st post. Or if he is Francis, this statement would simply be doublespeak.

+ HE MIGHT HAVE SLIPPED UP; In the second post he says something quite suspicious: "I ain't mojo, no idea about the other guy. Maybe they also lurk and I inspired them?? I'd hope mojo doesn't come in here trying to interact with you all for his own sake."

First off, he says "I ain't mojo" but then says the first highlight. Is he saying that he ain't mojo but he is @buddyfellaadventures? Is it poor grammar? And the second highlight says that because he posted before @bfa's new posts that meant that the guy took inspiration after him, but no, @bfa was created way back then. It seems like he poorly made an alibi that he wasn't @bfa by saying he "inspired" him.

+ 2nd post, he posted the day after @buddyfellaadventures post on Jan 24th. Early in the morning too. If both accounts were Francis, then perhaps he couldn't see the for the whole night and pretended that the other guy didn't exist to him.

Exhibit B: @buddyfellaadventures: Was created on the same day as his first post, Sep 21, 2024, (below) This is the account I believe to be most likely Francis.

First messages: Sep 21, 2024 (tried to convince people to contact mango)

He feigns innocence.

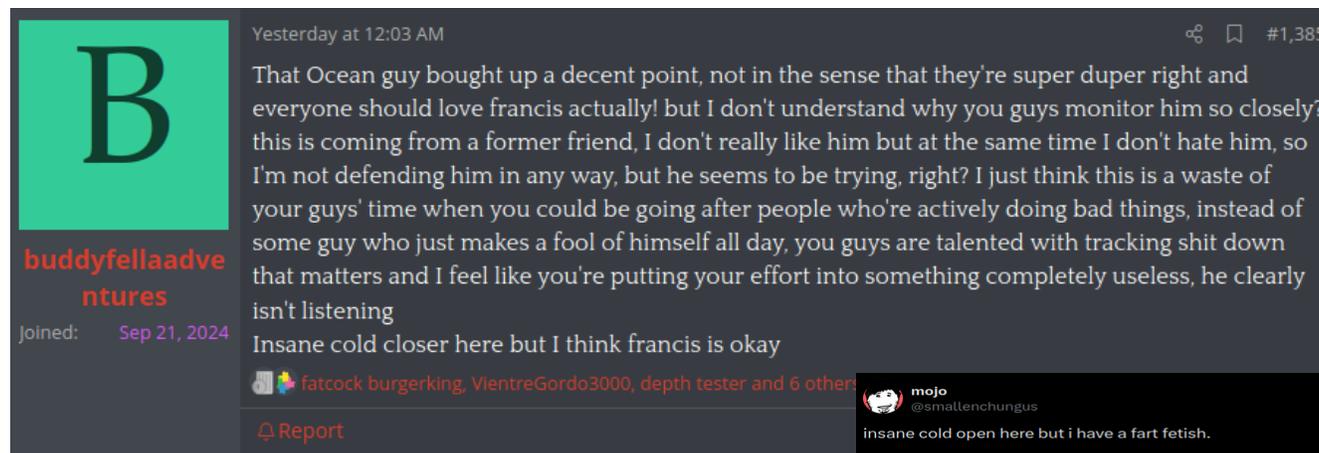

He responds to Psychonaut (the name is alien farmer for some odd reason) This is his last message before later in the thread (jan 24, 2025)

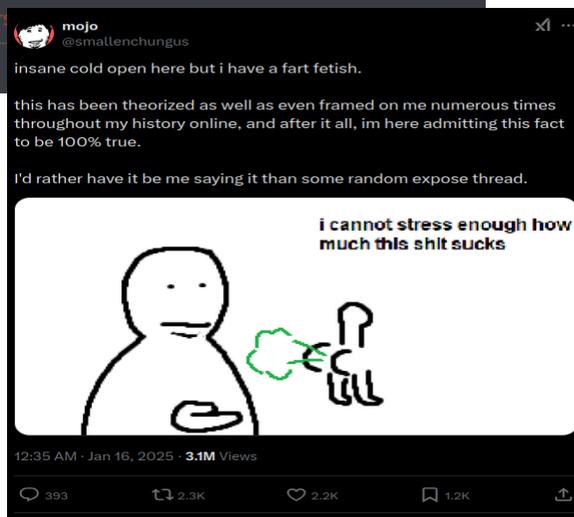

From here, he would not respond for 4 months. Then, suddenly he makes a post on the thread.

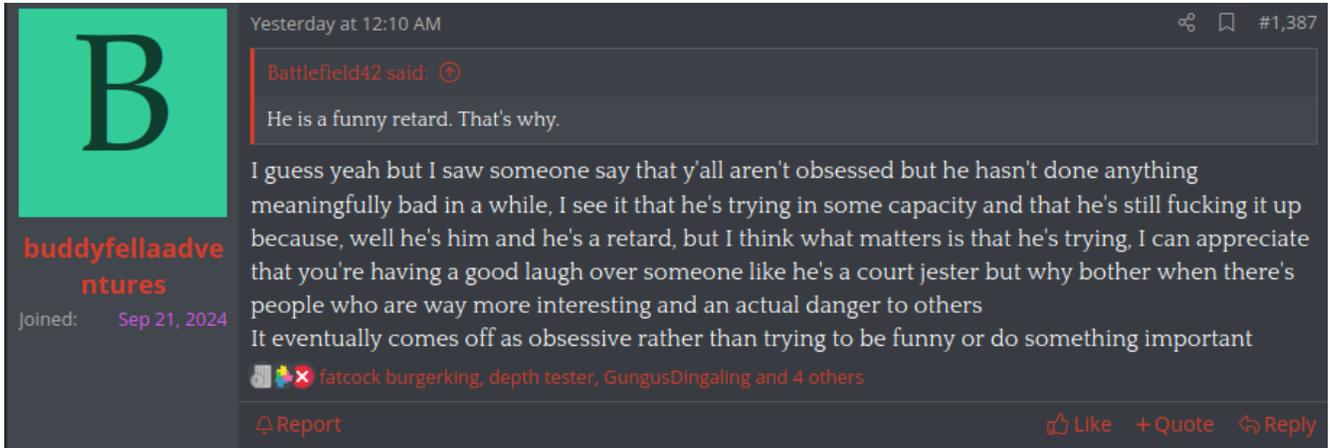

His 4 new messages, Jan 24. where he responds to @oceanhelgrammite (I make a note here that he didn't use ocean's full username. In fact he didn't quote his message either.)

I noticed that he said 'insane cold closer' similar to the beginning of Francis' fart post (insane cold in Francis' fart fetish confession post on xitter.) ----->

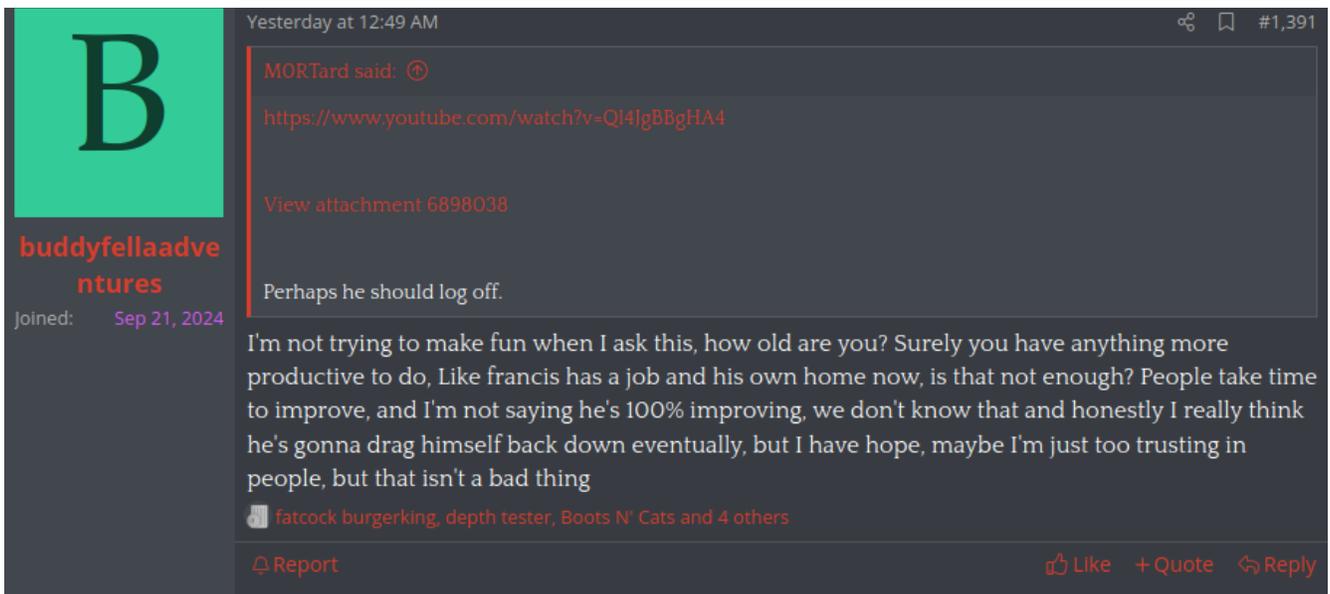

Anyways, he would continue:

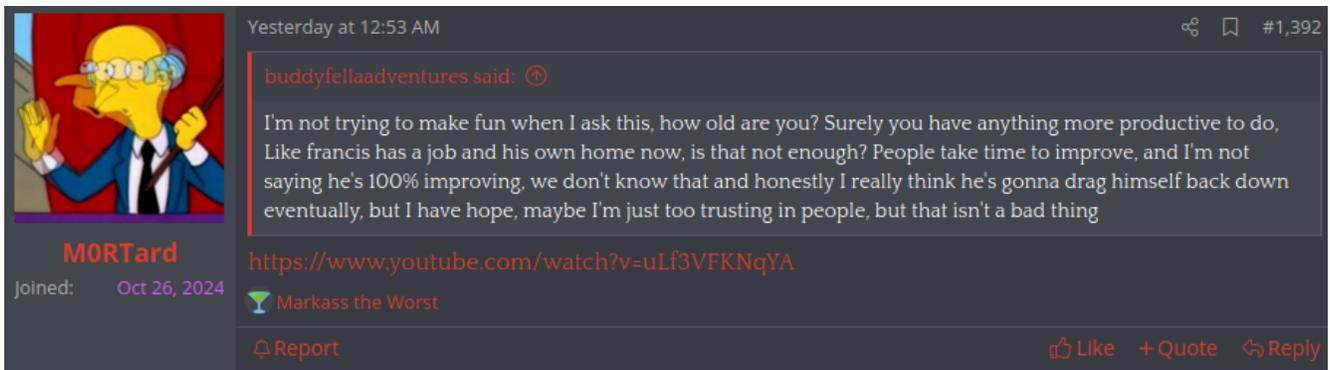

A screenshot of a forum post. On the left is a profile card for 'buddyfellaadventures' with a large green 'B' icon and a 'Joined: Sep 21, 2024' date. The main post area shows a timestamp 'Yesterday at 12:10 AM' and a thread count of '#1,387'. A quote from 'Battlefield42' says 'He is a funny retard. That's why.' The main text reads: 'I guess yeah but I saw someone say that y'all aren't obsessed but he hasn't done anything meaningfully bad in a while, I see it that he's trying in some capacity and that he's still fucking it up because, well he's him and he's a retard, but I think what matters is that he's trying, I can appreciate that you're having a good laugh over someone like he's a court jester but why bother when there's people who are way more interesting and an actual danger to others It eventually comes off as obsessive rather than trying to be funny or do something important'. Below the text are icons for 'fatcock burgerking, depth tester, GungusDingaling and 4 others' and interaction buttons for 'Report', 'Like', '+ Quote', and 'Reply'.

He asks a stupid question, and insults farmer's productivity when he himself is on the site seething:

The main post area shows a timestamp 'Yesterday at 12:49 AM' and a thread count of '#1,391'. A quote from 'MORTard' includes a YouTube link: 'https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ql4JgBBgHA4'. Below the quote is a 'View attachment 6898038' link. The main text reads: 'Perhaps he should log off. I'm not trying to make fun when I ask this, how old are you? Surely you have anything more productive to do, Like francis has a job and his own home now, is that not enough? People take time to improve, and I'm not saying he's 100% improving, we don't know that and honestly I really think he's gonna drag himself back down eventually, but I have hope, maybe I'm just too trusting in people, but that isn't a bad thing'. Below the text are icons for 'fatcock burgerking, depth tester, Boots N' Cats and 4 others' and interaction buttons for 'Report', 'Like', '+ Quote', and 'Reply'.

MORTard gives a helpful reply:

He then comes back from work at around 8 PM or 9 PM judging from this post on @smallenchungus (look at time: 9:10 PM, Jan 24.)

- +ANALYSIS ON TYPING- (- is less + is more. Referring to possibility of being an alt)
 - +/- Also sometimes doesn't capitalize his (i)'s when referring to self. This mostly disappears later.
 - + Sometimes doesn't capitalize the start of his sentences
 - + Uses "ya'll" typical xitspeak, but @dunkbunko used it in his post.
 - + His early posts write similar to how Francis writes most of the time. Using barely any capitalization.
 - Sometimes uses more commas than normal (see end of 3rd post)
 - /+ Does not put a empty line between two sentences and sometimes does.
 - /+ It seems his writing style evolved, using more capitalization and longer sentences, though I have seen xitlongers from users which wrote like shit when not talking 'serious' I'm 50/50 on this one because he did write like Francis earlier in the thread. AND seeing Francis' fart blogpost on xitter shows how he can switch how he writes on a whim.

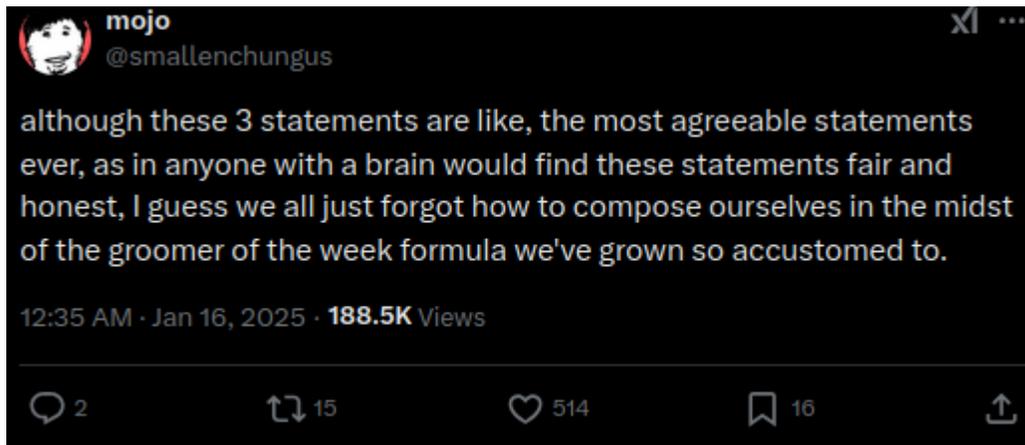

There is an example below on how @smallenchungus/@datssmojo spaces sentences between an old and a new one:

The screenshots are taken from the UNC, KID, GOONER thread
<https://x.com/smallenchungus/status/1879688969786646778>

The empty line, capitalization; this is one of the ways he writes

Then the opposite, no empty line, no capitalization (excluding the 'i')

And then again, notice his capitalization too.

And if you wanted an example of him using capitalization with no empty line.

And another.

+OTHER OBSERVATIONS+

+ The times of his Jan 24th posts on Kiwi farms (12:03-12:55 AM) are roughly one hour after (11:06 AM) @smallenchungus xitter posts.

Assuming this is Francis, his last post was at 12:55 AM, saying "I have shit to do today" I assume this is around the time he goes to work, which is roughly maybe 1:30 or 2:00. Then gets off work at around 8 or 9.

+ The account was created on Sep 21st, the @dunkbunko account was made on August 16th maybe Francis had made an alt to pose as a regular farmer.

+/- Maybe schizo? The Ocean question:

Okay let's assume that @bfa is Francis, and we're searching for proof to back that up:

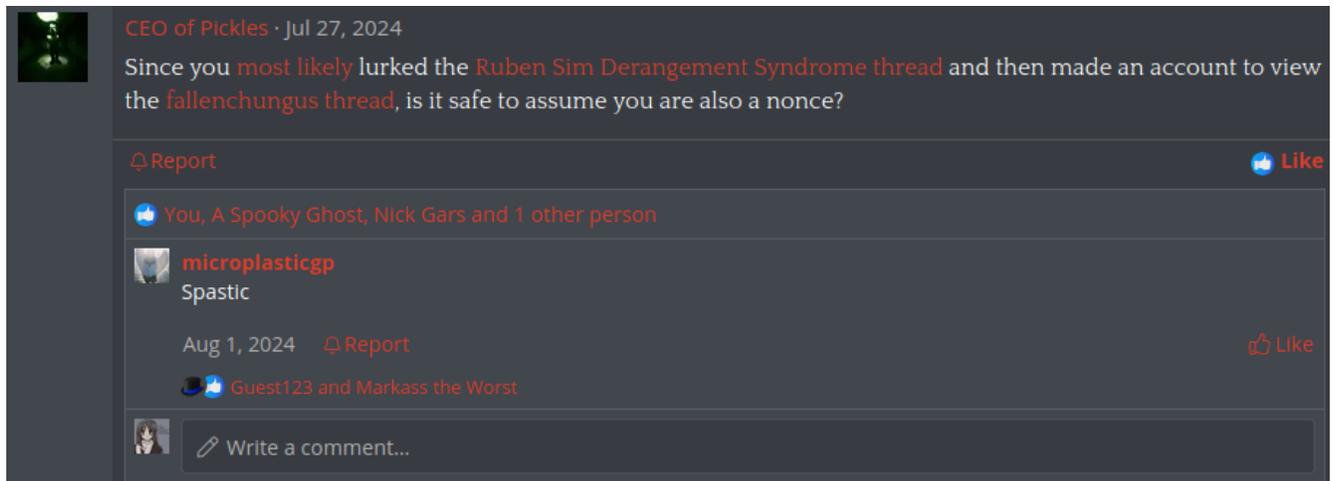

He used a shorter version of @ocean helgrammite's full username, calling him "That Ocean guy" I find this suspicious. Why? Because it seems strange that he didn't just say "Ocean" he had to go and say "guy" as if they were two separate entities. Also, he agreed with Ocean's point, and had caused slight trouble in the thread before. I noticed that in his cow-tipping post, he also referred to Mango as "that mango guy"

- Cow-tipping: In his very first post and day he created his account, he encouraged contacting Mango. This doesn't seem like a Francis thing to do.

Exhibit D: microplasticgp: this user is the one who I believe has the lowest percentage of being Francis, due to his short responses and capitalization. I'll show mostly screenshots, and not analyze his typing.

Ready? Set... Go.

Who only made an account to shit up the thread when it was still new. I still think it's either him or a friend of his.

I think you are riddled with autism and maybe some other miscellaneous disorder not yet known to science. You are practically stalking this person who has only been an adult for three months. Hopefully you will grow out of these kind of behaviors on your eighteenth birthday or before you are twenty-one if you're a late bloomer otherwise I'm sorry for your permanent, incurable faggotry.

This has to be fallenchungus in disguise.

I know that you fall into the latter camp and still have the rest of your adolescence to ride out before you put and end to this whole "Fallenchungus is a faggot piece of shit & we like to laugh at faggot pieces of shits. If you don't like what we're doing then please fuck off, Thank You." thing. 155 days a member of this forum, 778 messages posted.

And something that makes me 99% sure that this is not Francis whatsoever is the deliberate use of 'faggot' with it directed towards another person (AMHOLIO) Francis would never do this. This was on his account page.

Yeah. And that's pretty much it.

I have one more strange finding I found, which is that microplasticgp and ocean helgrammite both sounded very similar in the way they are formed. They are both nonsensical names which could only be understood by the person who made them. Perhaps, they were made by Francis to be alts on purpose...?

BWWWAAHHHHHHHHHHHHH!
