That 10% I gave you mongoloids credit for taking is back, and then some. $4000 last week. 1300+ every night since the election. Most nights 1500.

And you can't stay away hahahaha! I love it.

You spergs have the nerve to talk cope and denial! 😁😁😁

If you're doing so well, why don't you buy a house instead of renting another crack shack?

That'd be a great way to own us alawgs by buying a nice house for your child bride and future child.

And seriously man, the beard looked better.

I already own a house, dude lol. In Arkansas. And more property in Louisiana, timber farm land. You really should learn a bit more if you're going to a-log properly!

I would move back, but there's several reasons why I don't at this time. Just like anyone had reasons for moving or not moving.

Also yea, no shit it looked better lmao. It was an accident, I said that on air. I accidentally shaved too much in one spot and had to cut it all off.

Also, the house I live in now is not substandard. That's a misnomer. You can see the inside of it on Zillow, it's not even bad lol. Now, looks wise! Ok, not that great on the outside. But so what, I rent this place. What kind of moron would spend a ton of money to fix up the outside of a place he doesn't even love in?

That said, the new house has 4 bedrooms, upstairs. It is nicer, to be sure.

lol I was laughing so hard I was almost late for work. You know about that since you're late every night and you even set your own hours. Louisiana timber farm land LOL sure bud.

Yeah, I didn't hear you say that about the beard since I haven't watched, even on mute, since election night. I just saw it looking at the Don Lemon clip. Nice rage quit by the way on election night by the way. Next time you should knock the camera over and then end the stream.

And yeah, I've seen the Zillow pics, it looks like old, tiny shit on the inside too. It's barely 1k sqft. But maybe you can clear something up. https://photos.zillowstatic.com/fp/803ae09028afce3a33cf84487ad2851b-uncropped\_scaled\_within\_1536\_1152.webp Does that fucking door open into that ugly ass cabinet shit? It looks like you could barely open the door and I have a hard time believing you could open it enough to fit your gunt through.

Oh, more stuff from your dad, not property you bought with all the mountains of lemons you're getting.

Why are you even telling me this? I stopped sniping you, didn't email you again, and suddenly you're emailing me to gloat about how much shit your dad left you. Is it just because I talked shit in the thread?

I'm getting the feeling that you want this info in the thread but don't want to log in to do it yourself.

I never said I bought it lol. I'd do pretty well, though! Plenty well enough to live the lifestyle I want, which isn't very extravagant outside some tech gadgets.

And nah, I actually just get annoyed by the lies, believe it or not. Oh and I did think it was funny that you're still so into it all, regardless of what you say. As for it being in the thread, I assumed it was off the record, but people will do what they do.

Oh, I don't know that you told a specific one. I think I saw the email comment is all lol, I don't recall now.

Tbf you were the only one who actually realized that it was just some kind of error with the website and not some Machiavellian scheme to do... something?

I never commented on our previous emails in the thread.

I do my best to keep the facts straight and true. That's why I pointed out that your theory about the site was plausible and makes the most sense. That's why I have a problem with people faking shit and passing it off as real. I also called out that fake screenshot of you claiming to have flagged Baked.

It's alright man, you don't have to actually admit why you emailed me to gloat. I know what caused it. Same shit that always triggers you: insults. You can dish them out, but can't take them being thrown at you.

What ratings? You've been down on viewers since you got back from Atlanta. You refuse to address anything from Elric, instead screencapping some completely unimportant shit about the gender test.
You've yet to make anyone look like a fool but yourself.

Where's Faith, Ralph?

All you boring faggots can do is watch me lmao. This will be our last correspondence. But remember what I said here. Egg will be on the proverbial face...when I feel like it. You losers are my hype squad and you've yet to figure it out.

Happy Thanksgiving!!
