And most importantly: when I wrote your client, I asked him very sincerely to remove me and my copyrights. How he replied with such disregard for my feelings and how he then published it, really hurt.

I'm so incredibly grateful for the tenth circuit ruling in my favor because even a blind man can see that Moon is contributing to the infringement and harassment.

With that all said, I want to ask through email for Moon to settle this case for a few reasons:

1. I simply want to move on with my life.
2. I'm tired of hearing about kiwi farms.
3. This case should have been settled at least last year. That's right. Back in April of 2022, DJF, myself, Moon and the Skordas firm had a mediation. I simply wanted to be removed from the site and Moon was so incredibly cocky and rude.

I feel I will win:

This is why I wrote my book. Kiwi Farms has been stalking me since 2016. I knew the Taylor thing would follow me around and I wanted to explain myself. Also, to be honest: what her and her agents did to me was really shitty and since she was being touted as this wonderful, magical goddess, I wanted to share my story. Was it the best book ever? No, but it was adequate and I never had my chance to share my story because from Day 1: kiwi farms bombed it with bad reviews. How do I know it was kiwi farms? Because of literal links posted to good reads and Amazon linking the book "for free" to kiwi farms.

Even when I have moved on from the Taylor thing, Moon's followers have followed me. Bombing my music pages. Sending me taunts through email, declaring that "the fat American cops" can't catch them, contacting, for instance, every brothel here in Nevada and warning the owners about me because I'm an advocate for sex work.

And most importantly: when I wrote your client, I asked him very sincerely to remove

Sir, first of all: I'm a real person. Just because you can't see me, doesn't mean that I don't exist. Your client sure has this mindset with the atrocious site that he somehow is still running after receiving so much negative attention.

Kiwi Farms has ruined my life. They've twisted things about me that aren't true. They've bombed my works with slanderous reviews to where I can't even market them and when employers or investors or whomever searches me, they see twisted things. For instance, the Taylor situation has been twisted of me being a "celebrity cyber stalker". And when people see these multiple reviews and comments, they think, "oh damn. Can't work with this guy," instead of realizing, "ohhhh, this guy is being attacked by a website of people."

This is why I wrote my book. Kiwi Farms has been stalking me since 2016. I knew the Taylor thing would follow me around and I wanted to explain myself. Re: Attorney Conferral - Greer v. Moon

Hi, Matt.

As my former appellate counsel stated, they no longer represent me because your client has made it hard to find good work to pay them to have them stay on at the district level.

I am CC'ing them in my reply email to you because I saw after you sent them this email, that you filed a document requesting a scheduling order in district court. I know Andrew was trying to mediate with you before you filed a rehearing petition. I was reaching out personally for mediation because this case has gone on way too long and to offer your client an opportunity to avoid the finding of willful damages.

Sir, first of all: I'm a real person. Just because you can't see me, doesn't mean
