1.0 Introduction

I am very sure when you read this document that you knew about KiwiiZee at least once. No matter if you view KiwiiZee as a good or a bad person, you would know about how she became an ableist, a racist, a transphobe and asked a very popular person to dox a person's private account solely for revenge. Now, think of what HopefulDream98 is. You would think of the person as being a completely different person who seems to be nothing in association to Kiwii. But what if I tell you that they're both the same person? You may not know it, but the difference is obvious if you knew where to look for clues and that's why I made this document.

2. Similarities

To begin with, I have laid out different subsections of what KiwiiZee and HopefulDream98 are related in terms of each other.

2.1 Basic Profile

2.2 Online posts/Interests

2.3 Animation/Art style

2.4 In real life examples

2.1 Basic Profile

Let's compare the profiles between these two.

The image shows two YouTube channel profiles side-by-side for comparison. The left profile is for 'KiwiiZee' and the right is for 'DannyBoyê'. Red annotations highlight similarities and differences between the two channels.

KiwiiZee Profile:

- Profile picture: A character with glasses and a green background.
- Name: KiwiiZee
- Handle: @KiwiiZee
- Stats: 1.17K subscribers • 32 videos
- Bio: Names Kiwiizee, i make comics, renders and meme animation mostly.
- Subscribe button: Present.
- Navigation: Home, Videos, Shorts, Community.

DannyBoyê Profile:

- Profile picture: A character with glasses and a red background.
- Name: DannyBoyê
- Handle: @Hopefuldream98
- Stats: 9 subscribers • 7 videos
- Bio: décroché pour toujours
- Link: x.com/HopefulDream98
- Subscribe button: Present.
- Navigation: Home, Videos (circled in red).

Annotations:

- Same Style: A red box highlights the profile pictures of both channels, with a note: "Non-english proficient person. (US, UK, AU, etc)".
- Lack of Community Posts, indicating a new channel: A red box highlights the 'Videos' tab on the DannyBoyê profile, with a note: "Lack of Community Posts, indicating a new channel".

2.2 Online Posts/Interests

There are also quite a number of similarities between HopefulDream98 and KiwiiZee in terms of how the person typically posts. A good example as shown in a picture is the endless amounts of appreciation for a Squid Sister idol, Marie, as well as featuring her in multiple posters.

KiwiiZee also fantasies Marie in an oddly similar pattern, as shown in an excerpt from a screenshot here.

Like Hope, Kiwii features Marie in quite a number of animations and posters.

In addition, Kiwii has made an animation of her MARRYING Marie to “get revenge on PearlWoomy”

Both also put up their staw pages at roughly the same time, which is highly coincidental if not suspicious.

To top it all off, the two accounts both share an interest in Pokémon, as shown by these four images. (Kiwii was talking in stream about how she loves Pokémon after a message FYI)

2.3 Animation/Art Style

There are a lot of red flags that are reflected in the art style and overall design of the OCs created by Hope as it resembles uncannily to KiwiiZee's designs.

Most notably, the animation style is similar if not IDENTICAL to each other, in spite of the differences in audio.

For context, I have two videos from the two channels and you can witness the similarities yourself.

Kiwii's Video

Hope's Video

The two accounts also similarly post content consisting of light gore, as shown in the two images below.

[I always wanted to make serious artwork, and i was kinda going back and forth on posting this, but i think its very powerfull, in a good and bad way, so YOLO]

2.4 In real life examples

Now we're getting to the more "solid" evidence that we've found out. Both Kiwii and Hope tend to document suspiciously similar lifestyles on platforms X and YouTube. In a now deleted tweet by Hope, the account posted a picture of an orange squid which is also found sitting on a similar surface material during the house tour video by KiwiiZee. A community post made by her only reinforces the evidence.

KiwiiZee

Cozy 😊

👍 90    🗨    ➡    💬 13

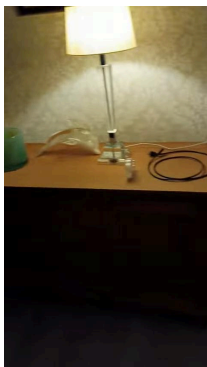

What makes it even more suspicious is that after the house tour video was published, the initial tweet about the amiibo vanished from Hope's account.

No results for "from:HopefulDream98 orange"

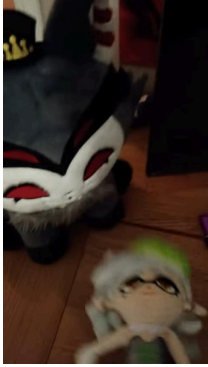

Try searching for something else, or check your Search settings to see if they're protecting you from potentially sensitive content.

To further add to the mystery, the two images shown have EXACTLY the same wallpaper and drawer surface it is from.

Hope also has expressed interest in owning a few splatoon plushies, which although not confirmed, aligns well with Kiwii already owning a few of them.

Although Hope did not directly mention the brand of soda the person often drinks, it lines up well with Kiwii often drinking Pepsi Max.

What ties the current evidence stronger is that AnimeGirlSplats said in a post that KiwiiZee also had a shirt HopefulDream98 had, as shown here.

 AnimeGirlSplats @AnimeGirlSplats · 11h ...
Yoooooo! my friend KiwiiZee has the same shirt too, and I have a Team Callie shirt as well.

For more conformational evidence, take a look at these two hands. The left is Hope's while the right is Kiwii's.

Notice how identical the thumbs appear. The sizes looked like they match up and the skin tone is roughly the same, although Kiwii's appear to be darker due to the lighting.

3. Behaviour

Now we're getting to the nitty gritty part of this document. Cheers to you if you haven't doom scrolled all the way down to see this. Anyway, what's very suspicious is that both Kiwii and Hope both share a shy and introverted type of personality they convey to the internet. Many of the posts Hope made could be callbacks of similar experiences Kiwii had gone through.

Suspiciously, Kiwii had also conveyed a similar if not identical message from her own account, with the phrasing and word choice changed.

To make things even more suspicious, both Kiwii and Hope directly frame their mothers as “abusive/negligent”

I do not want to drag the mentality of the two out too much, so I'll add in a final few things in no chronological order. Firstly, in spite of labelling oneself as French, the person talks as little French the account could give away as besides the YouTube description does the user mention anything in French.

Secondly, when Hope was mentioned by someone to add Kiwii in a poster, Hope immediately knew who Kiwii is even though the account had little to benign indication of interacting with similar tweets in the past. Another instance is Hope interacting with Kiber and RogerDatSoldier in a similar fashion with seemingly no background knowledge.

Both Kiwii and Hope described in their AUs that Marie is an alcoholic, a suspiciously recurring theme that is present between these two accounts. While I do not have photographic evidence of Kiwii's art of Marie being drunk and collapsing onto the floor, I managed to dig up a response directly linking this up.

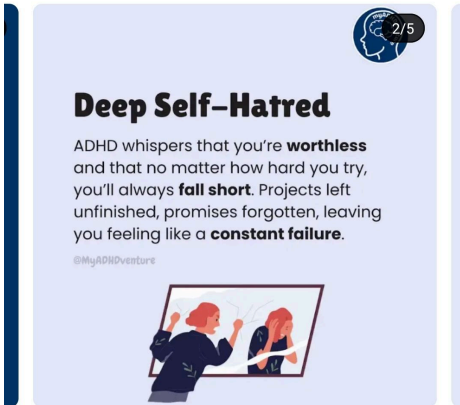

The two also have A.D.H.D and while it doesn't identify much between Kiwii and Hope, it is a little suspicious to even mention.

I have ADHD. I feel like people with adhd dont get as much understanding as other disabilities get. People know too little about the diagnosis and most people think its just hyper activity. Wrong! In fact, Adhd share many similar traits with autism.
Its hard, and unfair! We deserve understanding too! We're not mean, we're not evil, we're misunderstood.

The two accounts both share an eerily similar contempt for Big Man's team during the FrostyFest 2024-2025 season as shown in the pictures below.

Splatfests can be a bit of a pain sometimes, make sure to take breaks in the middle of the Splatfest and find something more relaxing to do (I've learned to do it myself because I can get stressed out, especially during a losing streak, and I have broken down during a few)

Lastly, Hope expressed the accusation of pedophiles and controversial members being normal people, even though there is compelling evidence in open secret suggesting otherwise.

UPDATE: Although Hope no longer supports CheesyLeft, it is still suspicious that Hope has managed to fend off criticism for Cheesy while the account was still clearly friends with Cheesy.

4. Suspicious followers

Though not as important as focusing on Hope as a whole, it is questionable that many of the controversial members of the Splatoon community do indeed follow the account. Most notably, CheesyLeft followed the account with Hope also following back, even though the account had already been warned of Cheesy being a pedophile.

4.1 CheesyLeft

CheesyLeft previously following Hope before the falling out was a major issue surrounding the two accounts as both share a history of potential controversies made worse when such interaction between them happens.

CheesyLeft has been linked to many controversies in the Splatoon community before, but I won't address all here because it will be tiring and grueling to mention even in summary. Instead, I will only talk up on one controversy plus a summary of the more major ones Cheesy was involved in but no one else knew about, the issue between a troll and JereToky.

- Strikes wishes 4OctoLover4 a happy birthday whom is a moot of Grim
- CheesyLeft told Strikes that he was banned by 4OctoLover4 (Maive), someone unrelated said that Maive is something bad
- CheesyLeft sends his document which will not be shown here
- Strikes refuses to read the document, as the screenshots are said to be unreliable
- CheesyLeft was quoted by Strikes to have been catfished on T*nder

While I described only two individuals today, there are more that I am unwilling to further share about as it will only drag out the document further.

5. Summary

To summarise, HopefulDream98 is just KiwiiZee under a new mask with many of her properties being present into Hope's account with many being unaware of what they are expecting from what Hope publishes day in and day out. No matter what KiwiiZee can try to do, she must be held accountable for her actions and her cowardice to establish a new account is laughable to avoid punishment. Apologising to your fanbase is the only way out Kiwii, apologise for your actions now, keep your words and abandon the Hope account for good.
