
This is a calculated, direct response towards all allegations and claims against me (Rivernook).

This doc will serve the purpose of not only explaining the context to things I've said, proving the following:

- I am not a pedophile.
- I am not a groomer.
- I have consistently taken measures to prevent minors from accessing inappropriate content on my platforms.
- The allegations against me are based on misinformation and intentional manipulation.
- I have acted ethically and responsibly in all relevant contexts.
- The evidence used against me has been misrepresented or fabricated.
- I have upheld moral and legal standards in my actions and decisions.

But also proving that my accusers have acted dishonestly and with malicious intent

If you're currently unaware of the context, on the 27th of October 2024 some close friends of mine began countless rumours about me, which largely went taken at face value, and unquestioned. These rumours ranged from "allegations" that I was a pedophile, to even suggestions that i was somehow a CP distributor

Before i begin it's important to let you know who is responsible for these rumours in the first place, Which is

1. Tonida
2. Nepeta
3. Tarowo

Ranoyacord

Before I begin, I want to preface something:

I have always been open about my sexuality.

The conduct shown in the PDF was between what I thought was with close friends that were fine with my behavior, my work, and my venting.

One of these main people and the main perpetrator of the PDF was Tonida, who had lied and manipulated me, which he admitted here:

Tonida 25/10/2024 07:11

well, while i do agree that being doxxed is a valid fear, did you really think that me, your lover, would ever do such a thing? why even bother calling me your boyfriend? i understand that you almost being doxxed left a mark on you but you gotta realized that you are not defined by your traumas or past mistakes. love is supposed heal you and your traumas, not the other way around. plus, there's no point in loving someone if you never step out of your comfort zone, otherwise the relationship just plateaus and dies down quickly

Rivernøok 25/10/2024 07:11

but you broke my trust did you not?

2 blocked messages — Collapse messages

Tonida 25/10/2024 07:11

i'm very sorry that all happened to you by cheating on you?

Rivernøok 25/10/2024 07:12

yea
idk if having a boundary means i didnt trust you

3 blocked messages — Collapse messages

Tonida 25/10/2024 07:14

not letting the person you love the most know the most basic things about you shouldn't be considered a boundary i don't think a boundary would be like setting limits on alone time, where each person respects each other's space and it ultimately strengthens the relationship

- Never have I publicly acted like this in the leaked messages shown in the PDF,
- Never have used either persona for such conduct
- I have never coerced anyone (especially under 18) to engage and indulge in Ranoyacord, or RR34 for that matter.

Claim: my server had ZERO age verification

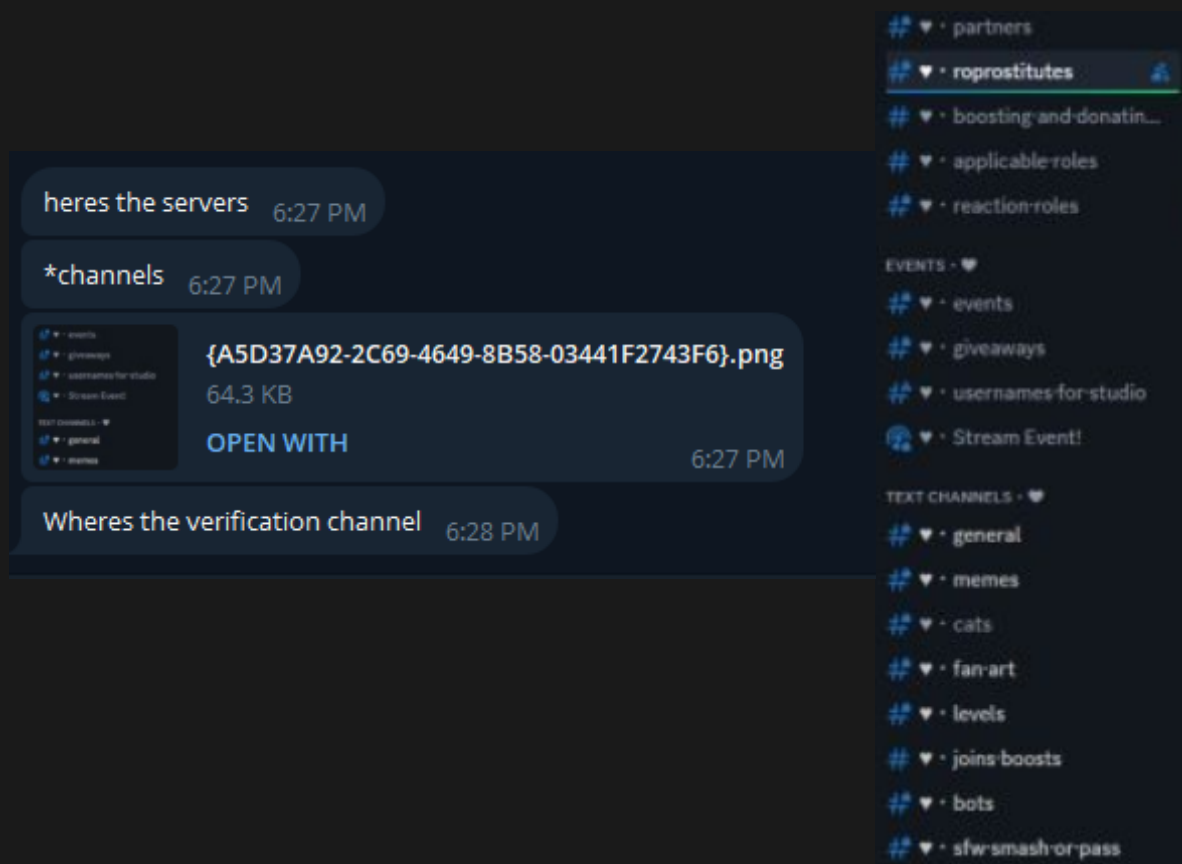

Response: Ranoyacord served the purpose of a fan server for a channel I owned on an 18+ site, it was one of many 18+ servers on Discord, however mine was specifically deemed “Pedophillic” over there apparently not being enough age verification or because it was on Roblox, respectively, both are not true and reductionist.

Many screenshots of the age verification portion of the server was deliberately cropped out by Tonida (an admin on Ranoyacord) to exaggerate this false rumour.

On the 27th of October, Tonida used his admin in Ranoyacord to nuke the server, and in the process erase most evidence of age verification.

The image above is a screenshot of the ID verification process through staff DM's

Like I mentioned earlier, here's an example where they deliberately leave out a critical fact:

unlocked-for-all

#🔒 locked-for-all

Unlocked-for-all = open to users (no lock icon)

Locked-for-all = closed to users (lock icon)

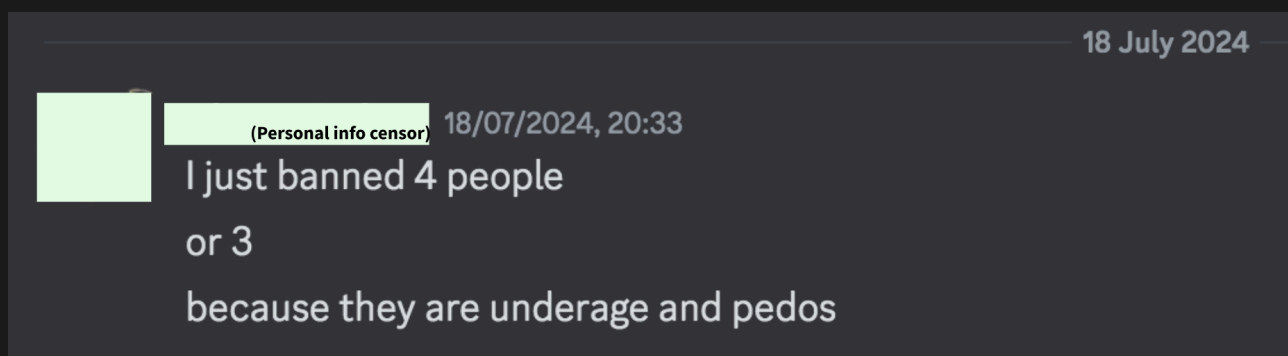

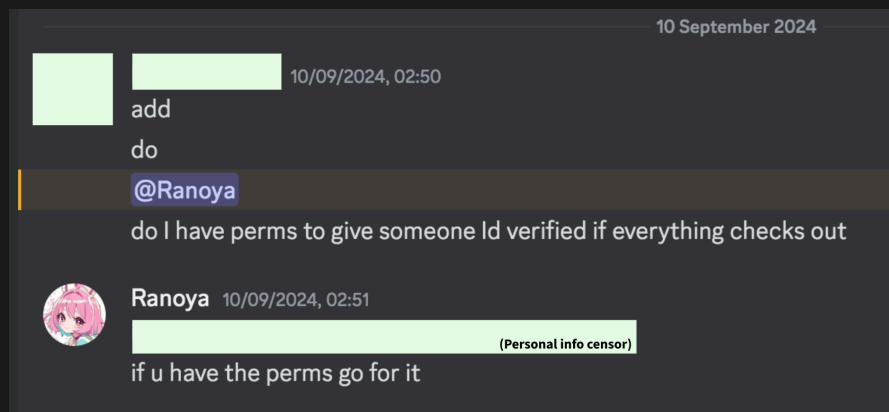

This means that in order to have access to these channels, you need to verify and agree you are 18 or older on our server.

This is just one example of verification on the server since they claim there is NO verification whatsoever.

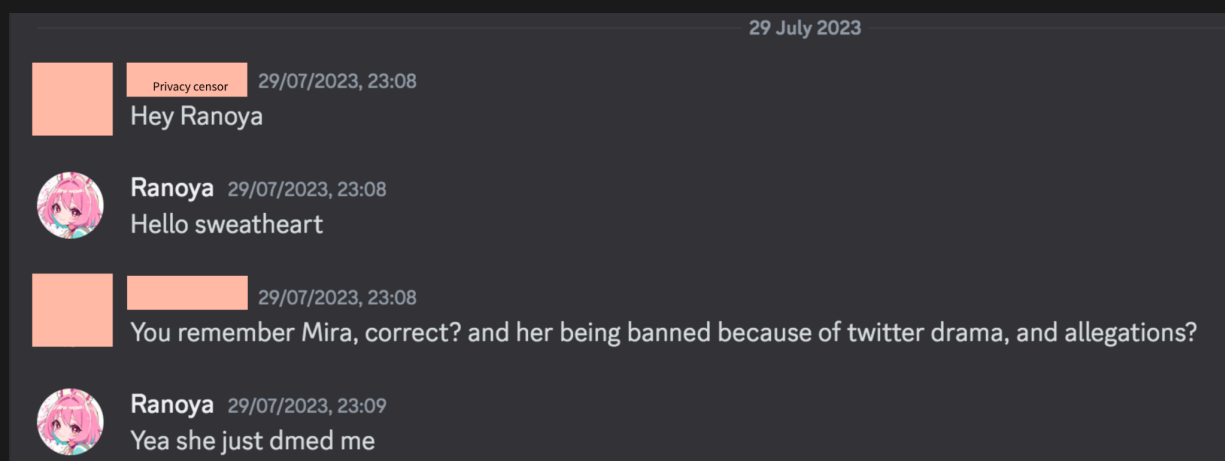

For ID verification, that was a role that was given to people that were able to verify by ID.

Age checks occurred randomly, and mods inspected profiles to catch minors easily, additionally we had a channel where people would get age checked to access the NSFW side of the server.

Here's some additional evidence age verification and the banning of minors WAS present in Ranoyacord its entire existence, the screenshots show dms between myself and some of my moderators who managed the system.

Here's an additional screenshot that mentions active moderation in ranoyacord that goes back all the way to 2023:

Evidence like this is so crucial because it disproves the false rumours that so many people have been manipulated to believe that ranoyacord had no moderation to keep minors or pedos out at all.

Discord member lists are in alphabetical order.

This means that out of 5,000+ members, this dumb fuck had to scroll atleast through $\frac{2}{3}$ of the server in order to find someone with a one letter nick as the last alphabetical letter that got missed by the staff team.

This was their best evidence of “active minors” in ranoyacord and yet it’s so cherry-picked and pretentious it’s laughable.

End of Section: Ranoyacord

“Almost 18” and Zio

Claim: Ranoyacord willfully harboured minors

Response: This screenshot above from Ranoyacord has been spread around for “evidence” that ranoyacord willfully harboured minors, however it leaves out the context that this admin (ZIO) was demoted for this enabling and unstable behaviour:

Ranoya 24/09/2024, 07:31

the reason i dont warn admins before i demote them is zio is emotionally volatile how do i know how hed react id rather neuter any threat before i explain

Here's a screenshot of me discussing his demotion a while back to back that up

The message he left in rules WASN'T agreed upon among ranoyacord staff, and it was a rule he wrote there under his own pure volition. He was not demoted for this, however:

When confronted, he became an emotional wreck, and while in retrospect I should've put my foot down, I am not someone who can confront people properly (more info later), and I was still figuring out maintaining a relatively young server/brand, so I let it pass without realizing the consequences of this statement ZIO put in place.

I would also like to clarify that Ranoyacord was NOT a "Condo server", If you are unaware what a condo server is, it's a discord server that uploads pornographic games to Roblox for people to play.

My server was focused on making animated 18+ video content purely for an 18+ site, which is a big difference morally, however because of the genre and how manipulatively these "Allegations" were framed this misconception remains.

End of Section: "Almost 18" and Zio

TONIDA & NEPETA

These two are especially important for context given the fact they were the first to begin the allegations in the first place.

Additionally its important context to note AGAIN:

Tonida WAS admin for a long time at Ranoyacord, meaning he knowingly was being untruthful about many of the details surrounding it.

However Tonida himself despite being the person to start these allegations has admitted that he doesn't even believe them himself:

karkat (Tonida)

Hey guys. I've had some time to reflect on everything that happened with Rivernook. I would like to start off by saying admitting the the situation was handled poorly on our part, and I know I was wrong to largely take part in something that ultimately tarnished Nook's reputation. I did not fully think about the consequences of what I was doing, and I now realize how damaging it was to him personally.

Admitting the allegations werent true

I want to make it clear that Nook is not the person we painted him out to be, a "pedophile". He did not deserve to have his reputation taken away or to be labeled as something that's not only unfair and false, but also harmful, given the stigma surrounding the word. I take full responsibility for my role in that, and I deeply regret the harm that it caused. Recently, Nook and I have talked, and I now see that he never intended to harm anyone, but rather to make others happy through his content.

On behalf of everyone involved, I think it's only fair that we repair Nook's image by clearing up all these harmful allegations against him. Sure, Nook may have done some questionable things, but he never had any ill-intents, nor did he deserve any of this. He is still human at the end of the day, and his irresponsibility and foolishness does not justify the harsh treatment that was given to him that day. I also want to say that I am truly sorry for any pain or frustration our actions have caused to Nook, friends, and the TriHard community/Soysphere.

Thanks for reading, and I hope we all can learn and move on from this eventually.

(Guy who started the allegations in the first place)

- Tonida (edited)

Above is an instances out of many where Tonida has openly admitted he doesn't even believe the allegations he started (AKA admitting he lied about many of them), however he's actively done next to nothing to reverse his actions

tabanococa 08/11/2024, 01:16

stop being such a greedy CUNT my nigganook... nobody wants your niggercord sobstory and thats the end of it

Above is a screenshot is a statement said in response to being asked about what they were going to do to reverse their actions after admitting they didn't truly believe their own allegations They feel no shame in the fact they've lied to ruin my reputation.

"Exposing" me was never about doing the greater good, it was, in intent, for malice and power.

PEDOPHILE SCUM

This fact is exceptionally visible given any look at their documents or anything about me, more attention is paid towards hating on me then actually explaining how i'm somehow a pedophile

If I was truly a pedophile that was actively victimising people like they claim, would you not expect to see more mature behaviour on their end?

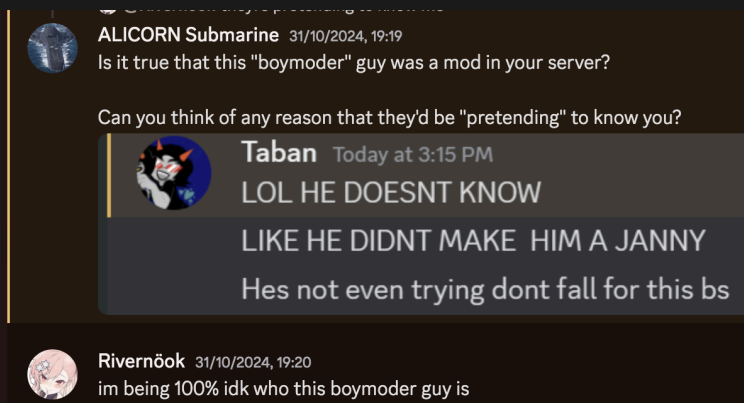

To further emphasize this point here's the first page of their PDF about me

For example, here's an instance of them lying about someone from 764 being in Ranoyacord's moderation team. This is not even possible in the slightest.

For example:

Why would we hire a moderator from this community when one of our rules literally goes against the entire existence of their group? The FBI literally has labelled 764 as a terrorist group. Please, actually look at the evidence you're presenting.

Furthermore, I have only ever met this individual on the 19th of November, long after Ranoyacord had ceased to exist.

There's very little excuse for lies like this given the fact Tonida was an admin himself in Ranoyacord so he fully understood that this was untrue, yet allowed this lie to continue to be pushed anyways.

In this screenshot from the 27th of October you can see Nepeta speaking for Tonida, openly lying that my 3 month long relationship with Tonida was all larp.

hi nook. i am sorry for putting you through that because during that conversation I thought you were only joking and playing around , i didnt actually know you and tonida were that close , and I've been worried about how youre doing now because of that , this is my fault and please just know i didnt mean to cause any of your suffering now, i hope youre feeling better. and trust me you really deserve someone who is romantically loyal and will love you the same as you love them. i know its tough ive been through this before. i just hope youre doing okay and this doesnt take a huge toll on your mental health, im sorry. i hope you may forgive my mistake bc tōnida and i still want to be close to you yk?

However in the screenshot above from the 10th of October, it's the complete opposite, now Nepeta acknowledges it was a serious relationship.

Another great example of Tonida's dishonesty would be the time Tonida attempted to cover up the fact he also participated in making roblox pornography and ERP himself, and deleted all of his dms with me to try to do so @Rivernøok becoming more affectionate to me, it mustve took courage right?

Tonida 12/08/2024 01:23

 as he forcefully penetrated my lubed, tight entrance and slammed his 12-inch cock inside my precum-drenched boypussy, i'd let out a sharp yelp, followed by soft moaning from feeling sensations of pleasure mixed with pain. my perfectly-shaped and massively-proportioned bubble butt would shine a beautiful, yellow hue after his juicy cock had soaked it with its silky precum, before he rammed his monster cock straight inside my entrance, creating violent circular waves and ripples all across my juicy, wet, shiny booty, producing the loudest, juiciest, and wettest claps that could be heard from inside the entire building. i'd press my hands against the wall again to keep my balance as he brutally smashed his heavy, girthy cock inside, all the while i'd stick my wet tongue out in lustful pleasure and fill the room with my loud, slutty moans, letting my mind grow more obsessed with his perfect, mouthwatering cock.

08/13/2023 8:42 PM
 i have completely given into my primal lust as my arms tightened my arms grip around the boys body, as i swung my hips back and forth in an attempt to breed him as hard as i could, while i moaned out along with him expressing the unexplainably hot pleasure we are experiencing. i watched as i made his yellow-tint ass shine from how wet and juicy it was, as i grew even harder from watching his asscheeks brutally jiggle in such a violent way. i felt my mast stretch out his stomach as i entered his guts, as the sweat and fluids that our bodies produced mixed together and made an aura in the room that stimulated our senses tenfold. i wanted to make his ass jiggle as much as it possibly could, and i wanted to make his asscheeks clap so hard and wet, i was practically obsessed with how his ass was reacting so violently to being pounded. i watched as bits of moisture slapped off of his asscheeks from each brutal, unhinged pound i gave him, as the wall was barely able to keep its hold on the weight of our bodies combined. MOB RULE

Tarowo co-authored the “Expose” doc about me alongside Tonida

“I Dont even care about rivenook i just like fucking with people”

“I never cared about the doc it just was like a reason to do it”

Above you can see Tarowo openly admitting he never actually cared about the doc and treated it more like a joke, which makes many of the allegations against me even more questionable in their authenticity.

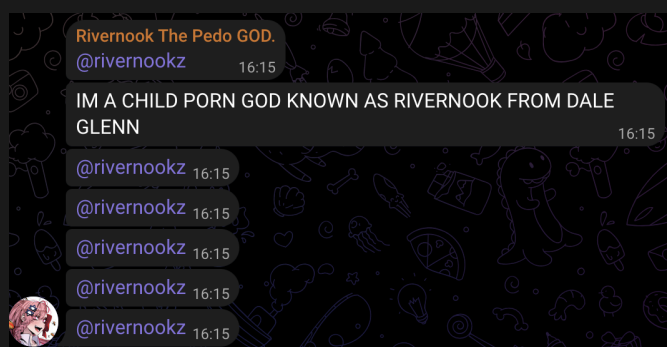

Above is an instance out of many where an unknown individual has been dishonestly making people believe im a pedophile through impersonation

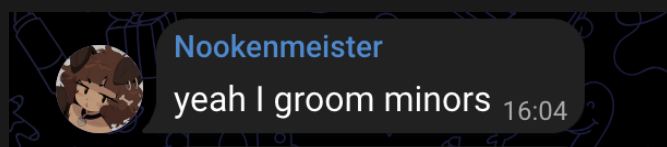

Rivernook The Pedo GOD.

last seen Dec 28 at 01:03

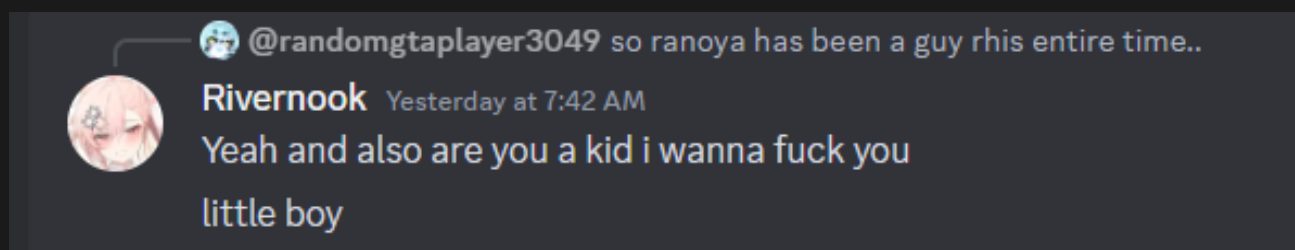

And some more instances of impersonation for good measure, how can anyone take these allegations seriously given the fact that the people who started them don't in the first place?

Even though they treat it as if its a joke they have undeniably caused countless untrue rumours that people genuinely believe

There are screenshots on Soyzellig Wiki that prove that their antics have caused irreparable, unremovable stigma made under my name while I was trying to defend myself against allegations:

These people manipulated (you) for their own amusement.

Lying on allegations like this should never be tolerated, as not only is it morally scandalous, it stirs doubt in real allegations against people who are actual pedophiles, taking justice away from real victims.

End of Section: MOB RULE

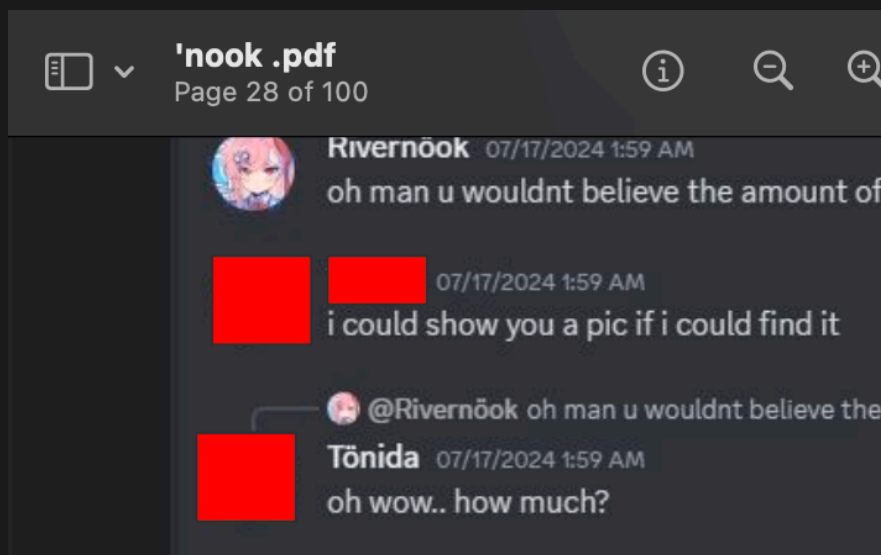

Context, and Cropping

Longest part of this doc that directly responds to all assumed or direct claims against me.

During my relationship with Tonida I very much saw him as a moral role model due to him being older and wiser than myself, and as a result I would confide in him about many moral dilemmas and feelings in which he would entertain and help me work out those feelings, which he has recently taken out of context to make me appear to be a bad person.

Almost every screenshot you see of me was in Tonidas DMs.

However he censored his username to “protect” himself, except for one slide which was uncensored in the ‘Nook pdf:

Rivernōok

ive been a big roblox porn fanatic since i was like 12 or so so ill likely be very biased but, seeing people care so much over minors in condos, and age gaps in condos

ive honestly never cared like not at all, idk if im a bad person or anything for this i just dont get it

im just scared a little cus i dont wanna sound like a pedo or some horrible person like bu5t for example

yeah no it's all good, i understand what u mean

Rivernōok

but having minors or whatever in condos, isnt a big deal to me and im tired of seeing people paint it as a huge deal, like theyll find porn any other way anyway, why ridicule them for what u urself are doing

Claim: I condone minors participating in explicit Roblox games and I failed to ban minors from Ranoyacord.

Position: In this conversation, I was reflecting on how prolonged exposure to X desensitized me to Y as a result from my emotional numbness, and this was not an endorsement of such situations but as a result of my own experiences.

This image has been misrepresented a multitude of times even Ruben Sim himself posted it.

I never actually practiced what the PDF claimed I did.

I have always understood, both morally and logically, the harm and wrongness in these contexts. I have taken steps to lock my server down with age verification, ban minors from my discord server and actively oppose such enabling environments, demonstrating my real opinions on this matter. The problem with misrepresenting my words is that actions DO speak louder than words.

Claim: I talked to Bu5t and refused to unfriend him because I sympathized with him

Position: Bu5t (Connor) was a very prominent member in Sharty, and a prominent raider too.

On September 20th, it was exposed that Bu5t was grooming a discord user named manglegirl188/Mangle, who was 16.

The logs here are from August, the sentiment was rapidly developing that Connor was a CP spammer and Cat Gore spammer, and later as you will see, I found out about Mangle. So why did I feel any sympathy towards this person?

Tonida decided to leave out crucial and much needed context towards my feelings of Connor:

I talked to Mangle myself, and I was upset at what Connor had done.

At the time, Connor had given me much motivation to continue with raiding clips. However, when I found out, I realized that it would be hard cutting off someone who was a big motivator for me that wasn't Tonida.

Tonida isolated these dms from each other and did this on purpose to make me a sympathizer to someone like Connor, this is a common theme of painting me as a sympathizer in this PDF.

Why I said I felt bad and why I'm so non confrontational:

GL0V3 is someone I used to talk to and I was very close with. He used to do raids with me and was one of the only people to reach out and talk to me after October 27th.

On January 22, 2025; There was a shooting at Antioch High School. The perpetrator was a Black Soyteen that was groomed by 764, one of the people that contributed to this grooming was GL0V3 (PuppyKnot in this SS):

I had a moment of conflict, just like with Connor, a person who motivated me, loved what I did, I had to cut them off, again.

It was like deja vu. It took me a minute to recollect what I wanted to do, but I sent him the following message, wiped our dms, and I stopped talking to him fully:

I felt bad for Connor, because he was trying so hard to try and stay in contact with me, he blocked people for me, and he motivated me heavily, just like GLOV3. I felt bad, but I knew he was a morally corrupt person who needed this wake-up call that no one wanted to interact with him because of his behavior.

Tonida, knowing the actual reason why I did this and the reason why I am not confrontational, left this crucial part out and painted me as a sympathizer.

And yes, I hate what bu5t did, the shit he spammed, and the problems he perpetrated from his corrupt. I'm sorry for what happened to Mangle, and I hope she recovers.

Claim: I am a pedo sympathizer for not liking videos of pedos beaten up Position: First and foremost, not enjoying or approving of violent interactions with people for internet vigilantism doesn't make someone a sympathizer. One can disapprove of both criminal behavior and vigilantism.

I do admit though that these people in these videos would've actually met up with a kid, they would not only molest them but probably kill them too.

However the actual intent is not me being sympathetic to pedophiles, but being the ethics of violence as a response to criminal behavior. This is a huge mischaracterization and one that separates me from someone who is empathetic towards violence, and one who feels bad for pedophiles.

Go to the police to report shit, if that doesn't work, make the entire neighborhood and town know. Don't give yourself a warrant for assault because you want to be an internet hero for upvotes and views.

one weird kink ive had for a while ive always struggled to explain is like having someone whos never done rosex or anything before and then getting them all into it and everything but its really hard since most women u meet are sorta tech illiterate and cant understand studio

Claim: I admitted to having a grooming kink by transforming people into RR34 ro-prostitutes

Position: Tonida when he took this screenshot left a major part of this message, here it is in full:

having someone whos never done rosex or anything before

8:58:48 one weird kink ive had for a while ive always struggled to explain is like its jsut the feeling of showing them everything theyve been missing out on n stuff ykwim

What I was trying to express here was just the satisfaction from seeing very close friends (who were willing to engage with RR34) enjoy a genre I was into.

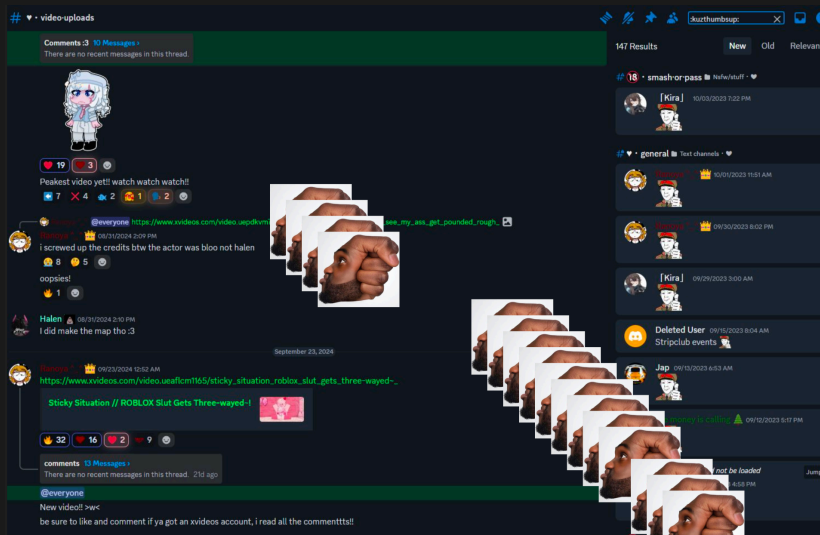

I didn't explain it well, but it certainly did not help Tonida left out the most important bit of context here.

It was not predatory in any way, and there is no evidence or any proof that I coerced anyone to make lego tits.

I wanted to provide those who were interested a safe place to grow and branch out into other brands. Again, did not coerce anyone who was not into gooner stuff to do this stuff, that IS grooming.

For whatever strange reason they felt the need to include countless irrelevant screenshots in the doc, here's a few examples

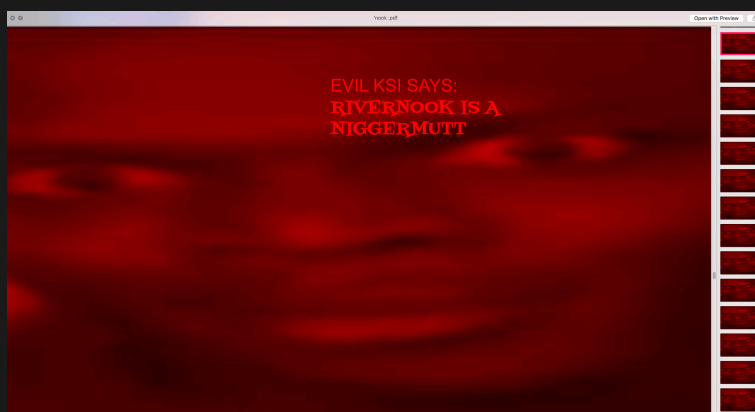

Their main allegation is that I'm a pedophile and a majority of their doc of "evidence" is screenshots of me posting soyjaks...?

Take a moment to question why they may feel the need to inflate the number of slides in the PDF about me with irrelevant "evidence"

A 60+ slide PDF of "Evidence" sounds incriminating but the truth is over 40+ of said slides is just a copy pasted image of KSI:

TO REITERATE:

I stand firm in my integrity and my honesty. The allegations against me are 100% are based on misinformation and malice, as it has been illustrated throughout this response.

I have always conducted myself ethically, taken measures to prevent drama and harm, and rectified any issues responsibly.

Although these false allegations have caused immense damage, I know that the truth will set one free, this document took much needed work, time, effort, and hopefully has cleared my name.

I hope the actions and the facts presented in the document speak louder than the lies that have been spoken against and about me.
