What is misanthropy?

It's a hatred for human kind that isn't understood by the average human. To truly understand what it is you must study humans, the way they speak and the way they act.

The scum of today are brainwashed, greedy, selfish and injustice the more you pay attention to these details the more you start to realize what humans really are. You can't be born this way it's only through many experiences with humans can you truly understand what they are and what they want, throughout history humans have been killing each other whether it's for their country that doesn't care about them or for their religion that has brainwashed them since children or for resources to satisfy someone's greed. Your world isn't what it seems it's humans themselves that control you wake up and

There are only two types of species in this world, predators and prey, master and slave. Human beings are not at the top of the food chain, the Vampyric predator is. A predator serves only one role, to rule.

While his prey's destiny is to serve. Most never realize they are predators. they go about their day not even aware that they seek to control and manipulate others. Their fragile ego protects their conscious mind of the brutal truth. The Vampyre recognizes who and what he is, a predator of man. A true predator is a sadist, finding great pleasure in his work.

NO LIVES MATTER

The best way to commit terror is to be sneaky as a tiger and hunt its prey. Doesn't matter of the prey's age or sex, matters of the successful hunt. Become one with your primal human instincts and

HUNT YOUR PREY

The Goal.

The goal of 764 is the purification of all living things through endless attacks committed by the cult, world domination will be achieved by any means necessary.

EVIL HAS NO LIMITS

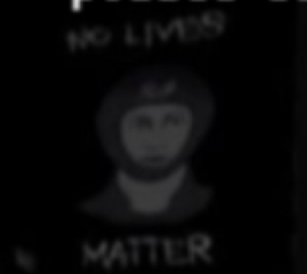

we won't stop until our goal is completed and all life forms are eliminated only 764 will remain.

For us to achieve such ambition the cult must share a single minded passion for death and conquest for him there exists only one pleasure, one reward, one satisfaction - A successful hunt. Day and night he must have but one thought, one aim - merciless destruction. Striving cold bloodily and indefatigably toward his end. He must be prepared to destroy himself and to destroy with his own hands everything that stands of our goal.

Steps before taking action on the mundane

- Ducktape your pants over your shoes & your sleeve/jacket whatever you're wearing but also Ducktape your gloves to the sleeves. But make sure they are disposable clothing.
- wear a mask that covers your face, such as a balaclava or something similar to it.
- scout the area you are planning to do the attack in, such as escape routes that the mundane can escape through.
- Buy boots/shoes that are bigger or smaller than your original size, just in case the police find your prints.

NO LIVES MATTER MANHUNT

in order to preform a manhunt, you must bring equipment such as a device that has the ability to record with good quality in order to make your attack look as good as possible. Also make sure you bring footwear smaller or bigger than your original size or the typical size footwear you tend to wear study the routes that you are planning to do the attack in such as the escape routes essentially scout out where the mundane can escape and make sure they do not escape. Once you've got everything situated, make sure to ambush the victim and record it make it as bloody & gruesome as possible but make sure you have a good recording of the attack you did otherwise it would be useless if the video didn't pick up your actions. Once the attack is preformed and the video is secured, leave from the scene as fast as possible & go somewhere like a forest or somewhere that has no camera, put on new clothes in three area that has no camera and dispose of three clothing you did the attack in. Once you are done with these steps, you are able to free from the area but make it quick.

in order to manipulate into one producing content in your name, you must make her feel loved to the point she does not want to let go or lose you, and that's when you start requesting for work like blood signs.

The best woman to target are ones that have depression or mentally ill ones, that cut for the joy of it remember these woman are pure assets and once they have done everything you've wanted and they are useless, throw them away as they are now useless.

EXTORTION

Start by social engineering the girl into trusting you or as the previous page said groom her into trusting you and once you've gained that trust and you have some of her info, make sure to put in on the app "notes" or other just files in order to keep all the information together, groom her into producing blood content and if she doesn't want to do it then force her with the information you've gathered on the victim and use it to your advantage.

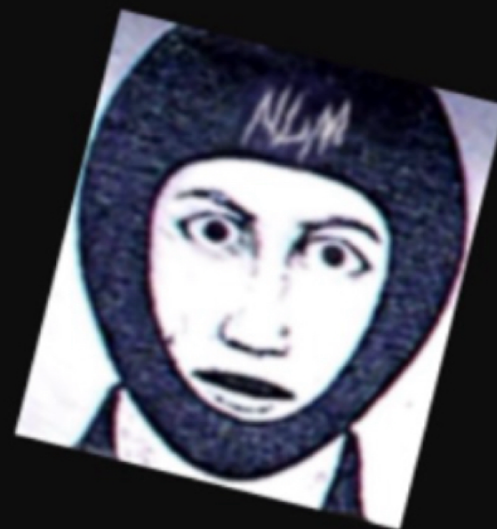

- Interaction is the most important aspect when it comes to getting girls. It puts forth the image the girl will carry about you, and it lies completely in your hands. The three main rules of interacting with a girl are as follows:

-1- Never put a woman on the pedestal. No matter how much interested you are in a woman, never give her more importance than what she deserves. By doing so, you are giving her the power to control you. And this by reduction would mean that she sees you as a weaker person if she gets to control you according to her whims and fancies. Throughout the human history, women have been attracted to men. Alpha men. Men who can't be contained by anyone or be used as puppets. If someone can assert dominance over you, then naturally your value as a person goes down. And women aren't attracted to such people. So don't give her the power to dance you around according to her wishes.

-2- Less is more. Trailing from the previous point, never indulge into over exaggeration when it comes to interaction with a woman. Be subtle and to the point, cool and collected. When you are a mysterious sigma male, it draws women to know more about you. Naturally when you don't know much about anything, curiosity strikes and you will do everything in your power to unravel the layers of mystery. The logic holds true to men as well. Being cold doesn't necessarily mean being an asshole as being an asshole still means you exhibit emotions. Being cold will lead to women seeing it as a challenge and our human instinct is built in such a way that we love a challenge. The girl will try her best to acquire your attention and make you fall for her. Let her do the majority of the work. When I say be mysterious, I don't mean being completely beta and scared to talk. Give out hints and let her do the info-digging. Let her ask the questions about you and your life.

-3- Once a girl knows how feared or respected you are by other people, that automatically puts you on a pedestal in her eyes. Remember to not talk about how fearful you are

-3- Once a girl knows how feared or respected you are by other people, that automatically puts you on a pedestal in her eyes. Remember to not talk about how fearful you are, instead you telling her, let her find out herself. When she sees how people follow your orders, respect and work under you, she will see you as the ultimate boss of them, hence commanding admiration and respect from her. If you talk about it yourself, you are shooting yourself in the foot. Now obviously fear is not the same as respect but if you dont try to inculcate fear into her, that will turn into admiration as she will think shes special. The fact that you make others fear you but you have "feelings" for her, would make her think shes the special one. Make sure this approach is indirect and you dont directly go up to her and tell her this. Always let your actions talk instead of you telling her. Making a girl feel special indirectly means she will be attached to you and will be like a puppet on your strings to use.

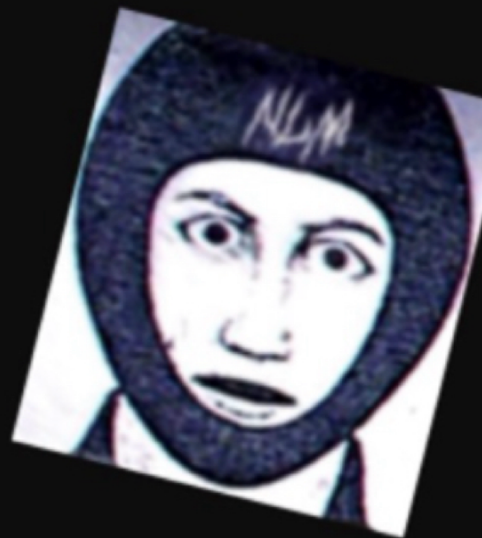

-4- This holds true to only girls with BPD and NPD. This is the trick i mostly use, the trick i use to get girls to cut my name on their body, my one go to trick with which I have over 200+ female slaves in my cult. Be a bully. Find a void in the girls life. It can be anything ranging from daddy issues to body image issues. Once you do, bully her using it and exploit that void. For example if she has daddy issues, just bully her about how she got molested as a child by her dad. Break her down, break her self esteem and ego down to dust. She should be nothing but a mere soulless body once you are done with it. She will have given up. Thats when you be the "nice guy" and offer her a shoulder to cry on. She will then develop intense stockholm syndrome and be attached to you. This is because she knows what brutality you are capable of yet still choose to be calming and nice towards her. This will make open up and hence you can use her to do your dirty work for you. This only would work if you are a true machiavellian, and not shackled by morals and ethics because obviously it would require you to be cunning and heartless to manipulate a girl like this. This has worked for me all the time, the screenshots in Tragedy of WOrmy, she was hesitant to send me nudes and cut for me because she had a boyfriend. 30 minutes of constant torture and she was my pet, barking on my order.

All these rules above only hold true if you make sure you efforts are leading to bigger and better outcomes and results. Like said, theres no point in investing 100 dollar and getting 5 in return. So if you're doing ALL of this and not getting fruitful results, then it's useless. Know your worth. Know your power and influence and act on it wisely.

For the past several hundred years, there has been this lethal pestilence called "Christianity." Christianity was invented by the Jews to remove spiritual/occult knowledge from the Gentiles for world control. Because of the plethora of contradictory biblical scriptures and their unclear meaning. These can be cleverly applied to any belief system to gain control.

"Christian identity"

Satan wants both Christianity and Communism to be destroyed. Most people are fooled into thinking Christianity and communism are against each other and do not know that it is the same Jewish agenda designed to deceive the populace SATANISM will balance you up and will turn your madness into unlimited power and give you ambition of leadership.

Those to you who are reporters/journalist/Feds and are monitoring this guide
We hope you understand that child pornography has been pushed out a while back. All previous work that involved child porn was due to the maturity level at that time. Bradley himself done it as a troll, there was no true pedophilia back then now we have no tolerance for that.

STANDARDS AND HONORS

that's all that matters, so yes no child pornography these aren't anything to be honored about. NLM ideals and principles has taken over the wave.
