

Thank you everyone who is defending me.

Everyone knows ruru is not RunNGun and the video was created to slander and paint me in the worst ways.

This man conveniently left out how i constantly complained about using element and stopped using it. How there was only a handful of active users, which more than half i banned on my discord server and how they cursed me in the element server, really showing how i wasnt around to moderate, only 3 mods. But its deleted now, like earth updates except i never allowed minors into my spaces.

I never agreed with RunNGun as he is pro-MAP. But, conveniently, that discussion was held in my previous discord server which is now gone. It was mass reported 4hrs after i promoted the movie Sound of Freedom, a movie that speaks out against child trafficking and pedophelic behaviors, and got into a heated debate with a pedo named Bob123 (from pomf) how he fled his country for doing a crime and believed japan would accept him as a asylum seeker cuz thats what all his lolicon friends told him would accept him only to find out nope, japan wont. And it was a super kind charity that was helping him and he didnt like how i spoke out against his friends, the prostasia foundation; a pro-MAP organization that seeks to lower the age of consent and allows minors into their pedo spaces.

Ive spoken out against pedophiles who truly meant harm. I've submitted reports to those i couldnt help, the ones bragging about breaking the law. It makes me sick.

You would be surprised how many lolicons pay me to call them a pedo. Its why i call it a "trigger kink" because its no different than dirty talk in the bedroom. A girl wants to be called a slut, whore, bitch when shes your loving wife or gf. Men like to be degraded; scum, worthless, loser. And some people cant get off unless you call them something worse. I provide that release because i dont judge people based on thoughts. I value freedom of speech and aim to help those who cannot be helped.

Many have reached out to me, saying how my content has helped them not sink further into hell. You all dont realize how my content has helped prevent CSA.

Antis harrass, redicule, defame, bully people into submission, isolation, and fear. What happens to a pyromaniac when they are harrassed and bullied into isolation and fear? What happens to a murderer who gets isolated? Bad things happen. The worst happens.

I truly believe love and acceptance can help change lives and prevent crime. But thats all i do, im an adult and rather have those people on the edge of life come to my content than the dark net. I'd rather they cum to my content than someone innocent who cant consent.

I never promote any kind of illegal content nor illegal actions. I never promote any pro-MAP belief. Its why i have disclaimers on my profiles and audios, which they also conveniently left out. I always stated my content is for fantasy purposes. If you cant tell the difference, just leave me alone.

I know what i stand for. My fans know what i stand for. But the clicks and views are always worth ruining someones life to an anti.
