They shouldn't offer a service for WOMEN if they are going to refuse WOMEN only because of their anti-LGBT bigotry. This is not complicated. Gender affirming care is a human right. You literally want to trample on the LGBT communities human rights, which all consider hateful.

More anti-LGBT bigotry. Kids need to feel comfortable with their bodies and need guidance from more experienced LGBT members in how to feel fully comfortable and unlock the potential of themselves.

Haha are you serious? That's just a crazy classic ant-LGBT canard. LGBT youth need to have safe spaces to learn who they really are, away from the judgement of parents. It helps to have experienced members of the community to help them find themselves.

It is important for LGBT youth to be able to express themselves as they see fit free of judging parents and guardians! It is also very helpful for these youth to be in proximity with older members of the community who can guide them along their journey and shelter from bigotry
