

CUPCAKES LIFE OF DEATH

SCENE 01 [Rarity's House: Zombie Apocalypse Time (ZAT)]

[army vehicles roll into the scene, after that, Srgt. Sniper was introduced]

Sniper: Secure the Building.

[both Sniper and craz3 step out of the vehicle][and Commander craz3 was introduced]

[cam look up to Rarity's Boutique]

[both Sniper and craz3 walking round the Boutique]

Commando: We've scoured every inch of "The Carousel Boutique" sir, except this room.

[both Sniper and craz3 enter Rarity's room][Rarity was introduced]

Rarity: Safety's on, dipshit.

craz3: Hey, drama queen. Was Twilight Sparkle here?

Sniper: Miss Rarity! Pinkamena Diane Pie is the leader of ZAT, and the most dangerous killer since she killed craz3's girlfriend.

[flashback begins with Zombie Twilight (good one), walking in her room, and giving her the Element of Loyalty, then flashback ends]

Sniper: Fucking waste of time, mare's a vegetable.

craz3: Back off!

[Rarity gave craz3 the Element of Loyalty]

Rarity: All she said was "Votre ami est toujours là." That's French for "Your friend is always here", Dipshit.

[craz3 start seeing visions of Rainbow being killed by Pinkie]

Rainbow(vision)(echo fx): No Pinkie! NO! NO! [Screams] PLEASE STOP! PLEASE, PLEASE STOP! [crying]

Rarity: You boys better get your shit together...they're gonna attack.

Sniper: If you have information about a threat to the citizens of Ponyville, you gotta tell us.

Rarity: Turn the camera on.

[Sniper turns camera on]

Rarity: Your friend Twilight, she was doing okay in Ponyville, fucking things showed up...

[FLASHBACK SCENE: After Rainbow Dash was killed][Spike was introduced]

Spike: ooohhhh...

[Then Twilight Sparkle was introduced]

Twilight: Don't worry, Spike. I'll find something that'll cure you.

[They went to SugarCube Corner, hoping Pinkie has a cure for him]

Twilight: Hello? Is anyone in? Hellooooo? Pinkie?

[Pinkie walks up the stairs from the "basement"]

Twilight: Oh thank Equestria you're open! I need a special order made!

[Pinkie was introduced]

Pinkie: Okay Twilight. What might that be?

Twilight: I need you to make one portion of medical Purplepuff Pie for Spike! He is really ill!

[Pinkie stood smiling. After a brief pause, Pinkie agreed.]

Pinkie: Okay Twilight, I will go downstairs and get the ingredients, but remember; don't come down! I will be back in a jiffy.

[7 minutes later]

Twilight: ...Pinkie? Can you please...you know...hurry up? Please?

[No reply. Twilight just heard small banging noises and whispering. Twilight was getting nervous and edgy. She wanted to go downstairs, but remembered Pinkie Pie's warning not to. But what harm could it bring? It is to help a fellow citizen of Ponyville. Twilight edged her way over to the door. The banging was starting to get louder and louder and louder and louder as Twilight walked closer. She arrived at the door and a small shiver flowed through her. A small breeze creaked open the door. It was way too dark, she couldn't see her own hooves. She kept squinting to try and see the first step. Even though she couldn't see, she took her first step. And slipped. She rolled, tumbled and banged down the stairs. She was in so much pain. She couldn't make out anything in the room.]

Pinkie: Twilight, Twilight, Twilight. I told you to stay upstairs didn't I? Hahahahaha.....

SCENE 02 [The Apocalypse Begins]

[Twilight wakes up and she see herself tied up on the table and she looked around it was dark but she try to use magic but nothing happened]

Twilight: PINKIE? WHATS GOING ON?!

[Then she saw pinkie with her hair down with the evil looking smile]

Pinkie pie: Ah your awake now we can get started!

Twilight: Pinkie what's happening?! What happen to my horn?!

Pinkie: SILLY! I have to tie you up because we are going to try something different! I have to cut your horn so you can't do any magic!

Twilight: pinkie...why are you alone in the dark?

Pinkie pie: oh I'm not alone in the dark.

[Pinkie turns on the lights twilight's fear is starting to grow she saw ponies town apart and eyes missing with blood. Then she saw rainbow dash]

Twilight: PINKIE?! WHAT HAPPEN TO RAINBOW DASH?! WHATS HAPPENING?!?!?!

Pinkie pie: there going to be fine and dashie is fine to. Look I'm going to try to do this thing to bring my friends back and you to. You are going to have lots of fun!

Twilight: pinkie...you did this?

Pinkie pie: Of course I did silly! don't tell anypony wait no you won't because you'll be with me forever!

Twilight: but your my friend we did fun things.

[She's starting to cry]

Pinkie pie: we are friends and we are doing fun stuff! Now it's time to begin.

[Pinkie grabs the knife and stabs twilight's stomach]

Twilight: (Screams on pain)

[pinkie takes every organ out of twilight's insides while making crazy puns and take out the heart and twilight was gone]

Pinkie pie: I'll just put this here and DONE!

[Pinkie turn on the switch and electrocution starts and the other dead ponies starts to move even rainbow dash's body. Then she turn of the electrocution and the dead bodies come together with pinkie and looks at twilight's body. Twilight wakes up and walks like a zombie and pinkie smile]

Pinkie pie: Well your friends can call me Pinkamena but now you can call me Zombie Die!

[Flashback ends]

SCENE 03 [Rarity's House: Zombie Apocalypse Time (ZAT)]

Rarity: That's how it started. Your best friends killed by that psychopath, the PIA wants payback...even if it takes decades. The PIA, back then...they were uh...big fishes in a small pond... Pinkie made her cake by running SugarCube Corner on her own. It was a hand-me-down, the PIA smoked her Rock Family. Old PDP is pretty pissed at Canterlot. While we're fucking around doing our jobs, the Applousians and Cloudsdalers get real cozy. Now the ponititians, they want you to think this is about ideology. That's a lot of horseshit. Give me your knife.

[Sniper hands her his knife]

Rarity: Rare Killing Utensils. The whole fucking world runs on that shit. Who controls all of it? Cloudsdale. So while Castle Canterlot's kissing Cloudsdale's ass... "Zombie Die"? My ass! Pinkamena Diane fucking Pie! Asshole! I told the UNPC...but they were too busy. See the Drone race had started. Really guys? You're gonna build an entire military based on a mineral element that is wholly controlled by Cloudsdale? I need a drink. Dipshit, go get me a soda. Get it from Sweetie Bell's stash, none of that diet crap. After all the dirty shit Ponyville has gotten away with, this time they're innocent. And no pony fucking believes them. They take out ZAT's network. Two days later, the Director of the FPI, stabbed to death. Right now, a billion people believe that Pinkie is their savior. Well, guess what boys, she's not. You'd better take her out pretty fucking quick. Bad shit's gonna happen.

SCENE 04 [Hollow Shades: Zombie Apocalypse Time (ZAT)]

Sniper: Well look at that. Zombie's got a whole private fucking army hidden out there.

craz3: Zomponies. Brute forms. Acid Spitters.

Sniper: How many followers does ZAT have right now? What, a billion people?

craz3: Try two billion, who'll never believe their leader's a psychopathic canabal. They think Zombie is their savior.

Sniper: They've got a hell of a disappointment coming. That's all I could say.

craz3: Time to go see what Zombie has got hidden out there. You ready, Sniper?

Sniper: Wide open. Little more than a skeleton crew. Walk in the park, baby.

Crosby: Hey what does ZAT mean, exactly?

Sniper: Zombie Apocalypse Time.

craz3: Sounds like something noble. That's what Zombie wants her followers to believe. Trust me... it isn't.

[5 minutes later]

Sniper: Vorheese, this is Sniper. Come in. Enemy is preparing to leave location Advise.

Adm. Laskey: We need firm intel on their capabilities. You are clear to engage.

[50 enemies killed later...]

Sniper: Holy shit. Look at this.

craz3: What we saw up top was just a front.

[then Борис (Boris) was introduced]

Борис: Walls are several meters thick. We'll lose comms inside.

craz3: Update Laskey. Tell him we're moving in.

Sniper: Vorheese, this is Sniper. Confirming sci-tech installation beneath the woods... Requesting immediate clean up and containment unit to our location. Be advised, we will lose comms as soon as we make our entry.

Adm. Laskey: Vorheese confirms. Ground team moving for immediate insertion. Stand by for ETA.

craz3: Rarity told us how much wealth Zombie built over the years. She's been investing it in weapons tech.

Sniper: Somebody's here.

[craz3 enters the code to the prison box (2-5-5-2) then Dr. Hooves was introduced]

Dr. Hooves: Please! Don't hurt me!

Sniper: Okay. Come on out! This lab is linked to a known psychopath. You start talking or I WILL hurt you.

Dr. Hooves: My name is Dr. Hooves. I'm a Zombielologist.

Sniper: Yeah? And what is, uh... Zombie's interest in you, buddy?

Dr. Hooves: They brought me here to process the Celerium. It's a new rare killing utensil that will render all existing pony skin tissues obsolete. They're coming! Get me out of here alive! I'll give you everything!

Sniper: Get the fuck down. Get down!

[50 enemies killed later...][Dr. Hooves reaches the keypad on the wall]

Dr. Hooves: On your go.

[craz3 and Hooves both enter the code (1-3-3-7)]

Dr. Hooves: Follow me.

[Dr. Hooves grabs the blade, and hands it to craz3]

Dr. Hooves: Quantum entanglement. This sword has more processing power than your entire military infrastructure. Rumors around the lab were that Zombie plans to use it as a basis for a massive zombie attack. I heard talk of something called 'Karma'... It may be the name for the infection weapon. If Zombie uses a Celerium worm to initiate an attack, there will be nothing anypony can do to stop it... I couldn't stop it.

[Dr. Hooves got shot by an Acid Spitter]

[22 enemies killed later...]

Adm. Laskey: craz3, your team can stand down.

craz3: It's Laskey. Stand down! It's the extraction team! Boy, aren't you a sight for sore eyes.

[Adm. Laskey was introduced]

Adm. Laskey: I guess we can call this mission accomplished.

craz3: Admiral Laskey. Good to see you.

Adm. Laskey: You too, craz3.

craz3: Whatever Zombie is planning, Celerium is key to it.

Adm. Laskey: Well, we finally we got one over on this zombie fucker.

Sniper: She's just a mare, Admiral. She'd like you to think she's something more... but she ain't nothin' but a sad, poor, pitiful excuse for a mare.

[Scene end][Enemies Killed: 222]

Scene 5 [The Shadow]

[Rarity runs out of her home and she starts looking for pinkie. Then she got shot the fainted. Then she waked up on a cliff tied up. Pinkie was holding her legs with the creepy face]

Rarity: YOU!

Pinkie pie: yes me me me me!

[She moves rarity slowly to the cliff]

Rarity: YOU WON'T GET AWAY WITH THIS!

[But she saw her horn was cut]

Pinkie pie: Don't you think you have enough magic?

[She throw rarity into the cliff and she falls but rarity grabs one of the sticks and she hangs there. She think of what is she going to do then her shadow somehow helps her get down to the ground]

Rarity: What? Who are you?

Shadow: I'm you. And come to tell you how to stop the apocalypse.

Rarity: Really?

Shadow: Yes.

Rarity: But where is pinkie?

Shadow: She went off but I know you can find and stop her just follow me.

[The shadow grabs her hoof and takes her through the sky. She see the town and looks for the sugarcube corner]

Rarity: There!

[She fly into sugarcube corner. The knocks down the door and rushed into the basement]

Rarity: PINKIE PIE WHERE ARE YOU!

Pinkie pie: Ah rarity what a surprise

[Behind pinkie was pony zombies and zombie dashie looking at her. Rarity was shocked and backing up]

Pinkie pie: Ready to play?
