Why The Trans Programmer?

IEEE Integrated STEM Education Conference · March 26, 2022

Through online anecdotal evidence and online communities, there is an in-group idea of trans people (specifically trans-feminine individuals) disproportionately entering computer science education & fields. Existing data suggests this is a plausible trend, yet no research has been done into exactly why. As computer science education (traditional schooling or self-taught methods) is integral to working in computer science fields, a simple research survey was conducted to gather data on 138 trans...

Your Turn To Thrive

2023

Your Turn To Thrive is a visual novel and stage play sequel to Your Turn To Die taking place 6 months after massacre ending with Nao Egokoro as the protagonist. Her and Sara Chidouin start over in a fresh environment as they continue to recover from the events of the death game, forming new bonds of mutual support, and unraveling the mystery of their new home. The story is focused around mental health, post-traumatic growth, and overcoming oppressive systems.

Fight Club's Incel To Exploitable Chad Pipeline

Jan 2022 - Oct 2022

A self-led project, with initial advising from Dr. Ami Shah of the Peddie School's English department, with contributions from Abriana Fergesun, Reed Turner, Doran Penner, and Eli McKinzie. Started as my high-school senior thesis, this project explores Fight Club: the movie by David Fincher and the book by Chuck Palahniuk; dissecting it, then using it as a lens of analysis for the 2016 presidential campaign of Donald Trump, primarily focusing on the aspects of micro-targeting incels and other...
