

THAT'S ALL FOLKS!

By Toony

To everyone, I met on the internet.

Fuck you all for making me this way.

To the furies that fucked me over.

Get fucked, I hope you all die by the end of 2020.

To anyone else who happens to stumble upon this.

You're all gonna fucking die and if I ever become dictator, I will make sure you all suffer under my wrath!

SO WHAT THE FUCK HAPPENED?

This is it. I have finally left the internet. No longer will I have to endure stupidity from worthless subhumans like niggers, kikes, spics, chinks, and race traitors. All of you who fucked me over will die in the worst possible way imaginable. Yes, that includes whoever had spoken to me before. You guys turned me from a cute innocent toon into a raging psychopath. I hope you're fucking happy.

For once, I never wanted to be a bad or controversial furry. All I wanted to be is a happy toon that cheers everyone up. Sure I'm a loner and at most, awkward at talking to people, etc. But ever since I joined the fandom in 2012, my life has been ruined. The last decade of my life? All wasted into this mess. What the fuck went wrong you may ask?

THE BEGINNING OF THE INTERNET

2010-2012

FIRST EXPOSURE TO THE INTERNET

My first exposure to the internet started in 2010-2012 when I first discovered DeviantArt from my sister. It was fun and all dandy until I discovered the fetish part of the community. That led me to find more weird and kinky art on DA which corrupted me more and more until I've became infatuated with it. It went on and on until I abandoned the site altogether. This didn't last long, however.

2013-2014

DEVIANTART DAYS

During the 2013-2014 years, I came back to DA. During that time, I wasn't exposed to edgy humor or any violent shit. I was still a kid at that time. So when I was 13, I made a FurAffinity account and used it for porn as the site back then allow the user to change their age for whatever reason. During that time, I wasn't active on DA until I returned and at the end of 2014, I met someone named by the name of JWB79. Found a comment of him telling some popular cartoon reviewer to kill himself. This intrigued me to discover him posting edgy pics and made me interested in it. This is when I lost my innocence.

FA DAYS

During my time at FurAffinity, I got on to the site for the sake of balloon/inflatable porn. With that, I've discovered the toon furs community from the inflatable furs community. Two pics come to my mind when I saw them, one from LuieCockatiel and one from Vermyfox.

I remember Luie removing this pic from her NSFW FA. I haven't figured out why at the time until now when I realized she was underage at the time she drew this.

As for this pic, I liked the design of the fox character so with that, caught my attention and interest. Went to his FA and I remember him posting a rant on his journal about Halloween not going so well and compared it to “White History Month”.

Anyways, as I continue browsing the toon furs community, I discover more and more of their interesting nostalgic artstyle. I was happy with it discovering more toon artists like Orlandofox and others. I also noticed MFL has made toony style suits as well. During those times, I wasn't focused on being a toon or becoming one, that's due to me being Asian. That is until I discover an Asian Canadian furry by the name of Ronnie. AKA Tienlong and Skyryd3r, he's a toon fur who happens to be into the toon aesthetic which leads me to consider becoming a toon fur. But this is before I came up with my sona.

MID-2010 CHANGE

2015-2016

During this time, I lost my innocence and became an edgy kid. I started a blog encouraging sensitive people on Tumblr to commit suicide before I got banned there. Hung out with people like JWB79 and someone who would later become my best friend during the whole era or saga I should say. I caused irreversible harm, posting edgy content for the sake of posting edgy content, made fun of autistic Youtubers, and favorited a lot of offensive images on my DA. This sudden change is most likely due to being around people who are trolls and listening to Moonman music. This leads me to discover a community called the Nazifurs, AKA Furzis.

CON INCIDENT

During this time I was at Anime Boston at the Artist Alley. Noticed a toon artist and decided to commission them a badge. Everything was good and dandy for a while until I came home. Weeks later, one artist noticed my Nazifur icon on my FA. There, she told me to unfollow her and she was very impatient about it. Me, being shy about it decided to contact her by notes which she wrote something along the line of “Don’t note me, I don’t talk to fascists”. During this time I wasn’t aware of the political climate of 2017 and remember crying about it. The fact that I was called a fascist by a random furry affected me that deeply and I guess the artist who I met at the con found out and canceled the commission. This was during early 2017 and I decided to remove the Nazifur icon from my FA.

DISCORD

At mid-2017, I made a Discord for joining a toon group called TSG! I, still being innocent know many old and common toon furs back on FA and I decided to hang out more. I was pretty normal back then and things went well. I also found more and more Discord servers until I discovered a new server from YouTube. That server was made by someone who frequently comments on Columbine YTPMV mostly made by the Spanish community. As I joined, I got to share some offensive memes there too and see a lot of shitposts by fans of the owner. That owner goes by the name of Vance Stone. He's been an Encyclopedia Dramatica admin since he was 11 and with that, I have spoken with him before on voice chat seeing how he is. He spoke with a black man's voice until he decided to use his normal voice. It was fun and dandy and nothing concerning at all.

During late October, things were going fine until someone mentioned his favorite artist having an icon sale. I, recognizing the artist, made an instant twitter account just to commission her as she was LuieCockatiel on FA. She returned to the fandom and with joy, I immediately commission her 10 USD for an icon of my sona Toony. I forgot to tell you fags about my sona's history too. So here we go.

HISTORY OF TOONY

Toony is a Pokémon fusion and as such, he's a mix of Arcanine, Luxray, and Mightyena. My sona was originally a dog noodledragon hybrid but I think it looks too weird. As such my new sona was inspired by an artist by the name of JayFireGrowlithe and her sona is an Arcanine Umbreon hybrid. I, thinking a Pokémon hybrid sona would be great as I would be different from a Pokémon and would look more like an original furry sona. I originally didn't have a name for him yet so I chose to name him after my real name which is Tony which was the original name for the badge at Anime Boston before it was canceled. (The funny thing is that I was named after my mom's dog that's an Akita border collie mix. Mom named me after him since he has the shortest name.)

Here's the oldest pic of my sona, this is technically a prototype of my sona and he's a wolf/eastern dragon.

Toony in his old prototype looking like a feral.

Toony has the name Tony for a long time even back during the DA days as my sister made a birthday gift for me. He was also a feral wolf as well.

Toony was originally going to be a wolf that as time ages, evolve into a noodle dragon similar to that of Ronnie. That idea was mostly scrapped as people pointed out how “edgy” Toony is and with that, decided to implement a darker back story for him. The noodle dragon idea was scrapped immediately.

WHY THE NAME CHANGE?

As I mentioned before, I was named after my mom’s dog and as I was coming up for my Twitter handle, I picked Toony as well as the 666 at the end and a YX in the middle since my older username is tonyyx6, creating Toonyyx666. As such, that’s how Toony came to be. And with Luie finishing the icon commission, she turned Toony from a feral wolf into an evil anthropomorphic toon wolf villain.

Toony in his first toon pic. Made by LuieCockatiel, she created the icon for me and as such, gains notoriety by many furies and toons. This icon is what I'm most known for as many furies recognized me as this icon.

NAZIFURS AND THE FURRY RAIDERS/ALTFURRY

As I used the sketch Luie made for me as my profile pic on discord, I was eager to learn about the furry raiders as someone by the name of Crusader Cat posted a pic of a Nazifur armband and a title saying he joined the furry raiders. As I complimented him, I asked where I can get the armband from. He told me to get it from Foxler. Me, being aware of Crusader cat history, I'm aware of him fucking his cat thanks to the ED article about him but I also realized he talked to another person by the name of Sparxx on FA as she has an ED page on her too. They both complimented each other on how people harassing them are a waste of time. So as such, I visited the Furry Raiders website and found out they have a Discord server too. As I joined, I was put on to VC and as such noticed a familiar name of a TSG! member by the name of WHMboar.

Seeing this, I decided to join in the call as well and during that time, I wasn't aware of the Altfurry movement back then. I thought of it as an alt to the furry subculture that's more aligned with being anti-sjw similar to a group in which JWB79 was a part of called the AltCC.

As I was in the Raider's Discord, I wasn't vetted in yet until later when the leaders of alt furry; Len and Blumiere vetted me in a separate Altfurry server. During the vetting, I was asked many questions by Len and he warned me that there will be some Alt-Right people in the Altfurry server. Me, not caring much about the Alt-Right or have any knowledge about it decided to join in and with that. Things went well in the chat for a long time until there was some drama with some kid named Hector Bomb. He was spazzing out on the chat about how Blumiere was grooming him and Blumiere clarified that Hector is not 16 but 21 years of age. Other than that, the group went into drama with one of the owners by the name of Yiffler, started to snitch on the group which was then leaked on to Kiwi Farms and as such, he spazzed out too and left. Besides that, the group came back to normal.

THE DEATH OF VANCE STONE

As things were going normal, one time, Vance stone (whose discord was Spam Hyde at the time) when we were having fun shitposting, posted an @ at me talking about how he was sad and how I should talk with him some more with a sad face emoticon at the end. Me, seeing how he always acted like an egotistical cool guy, I thought it was a joke and didn't think much of it as he seemed to be a troll that makes fun of people who are suicidal. As days went on, he posted to the group all the edits he did during his lifetime and on Steam. As such, I thought this was weird but nothing much to think about. That is until December 7 occurred.

During that day we haven't heard much from Vance Stone as we thought he was inactive during the time. I was at high school at the time and we mourn for the loss of the people during the Pearl Harbor bombings during WWII. As I came home, I was having a normal day on Discord before some guy by the name of Saint Fox, the former name being Blame the Jews, told me "You heard the news?". I, being optimistic thought it was another mass shooting as we usually talk about that in Vance's server. When I checked the server, everyone was panicking and in shock, as the news came out that Vance Stone shot up a school at which he used to attend and were disgusted at the people insulting Vance.

Speechless, I tried to calm myself down until I was broken down into tears, crying at the fact that my friend not only committed suicide but a school shooting as well, sure it wasn't a mass murder but the fact that he did it hurt me deeply. I tried to tell the people in the ED server that one of the admins, Spam Hyde is dead, and ask if they're going to mourn him. They responded with no. I told my best friend who wasn't aware of the school shooting told him that Vance Stone is dead from suicide and he responded knowing that stress and depression must have driven Vance to the point, I didn't tell him about the school shooting because I know it would break him and he did find out the next day. This whole situation affected me deeply because I felt like it's my fault for not checking up on him, seeing the warning sign, and ignoring it. I felt like I was to be blamed for this.

Rest in Peace William Edward "Vance Stone" Atchison

LATE 2010 DOWNFALL

2018

MORE PAIN FUR NOTHING

After recovering from this event, I was thinking of getting a fursuit from MoreFurLess. Knowing about how so many popufurs wear them and how they have a distinct toony style, it gave me the immediate interest to get a suit from them. After my birthday, when I sign up for the quote, I was told that the down payment is around 800 USD. Me, having around 800 USD at the time wanted to use all my saving to secure the spot, as I wanted a suit from them. Knowing that mom wouldn't let me have this because she thinks I will be unemployed, I secretly tried to get the money involved and as such, accepted the promise of the down payment. For a while, I was invited to join one of their Telegram, as such, met a lot of new people in there. I was waiting for the deadline until I was promised to pay the down payment. With that, my mom found out and wouldn't allow it, causing me to go mental. Kicked one of our doors so hard it cracked. As I did, I start to feel regret as I had to make the tough decision of canceling the quote, causing me to lose all contact of other MFL suitor and a chance to get a suit from MFL again. I said my farewells to everyone and was removed. I remember I tried contacting them back multiple times but it's no avail. I should've just gone with the plan and pay for the suit immediately when I got the chance. Now I have to live the rest of my life knowing that I can never get my dream fursuit ever again.

BIRTHDAY WITH SAINT FOX

From what I remember, during my birthday, I and Saint Fox decided to have a discord call on a chat and as such, we started talking about funny and edgy memes with a bunch of his other friends. We talk about a lot of random shit and invite random strangers into the call and after that, I shared my face on camera as he saw, he was surprised that I'm Asian. He then compared me to Jeff Weise and from what I remember, he said Jeff Weise is into nazi shit too and satanic shit as well. He also said being Asian makes me the next Cho. As such, I revealed to him that it's my birthday in my area while he, being from Australia, said it's his birthday too. Australia, being 1 day ahead of the US, Saint said "I live in the future bro". This is probably the second-best day of 2018 (ANE 2018 is the first) and to be honest, and probably the last for me too. The rest of the damn year is shit.

REMOVAL OF ALTFURRY FROM DISCORD

After being unable to get a suit from MFL, I decided to spend more time on Telegram and hang out around the Altfur crowd. As I was hanging out, we noticed that the Discord removed the server of the Furry Raiders and the Altfurs. With nowhere to go, we set up a Rocketchat and that failed too. So we chose to use mainly telegram as the main communication for us. This is how things are starting to slowly get back together it seems but all our old friends from Discord will be missed.

BANNED FROM FURAFFINITY

As I was talking on the Telegram chat, we were discussing how Dragoneer, as much as he's against Nazi arts, it's allowed to stay on FA. This, pissing off many furies on the left, decided to make boycotts to FA. As such, many users were banned from the site and I thought this wouldn't have affected me at first. It did, as that happened I tried to submit an appeal since I didn't post anything offensive or break the site rules. They declined the appeal. With that happening, I tried to make an alt with my other name of Toonyx666. I also used Orlandofox's commission for the icon.

I got the commission from Orlandofox. This is seen as a blessing for me as I get to have art drawn for me from someone who I might've seen as a role model back in 2013-2014. As I saw most of her art on PawPets, I was thought of having the pic as a blessing as I'm now a toon.

As I made the new FA account, I started to upload my old commissioned art to the site. A few hours later, they banned the account too for ban evasion. At this point, I gave up on the site and tried to find more artists that are on other websites like twitter. I asked a friend of mine for the artists and he helped me find their twitter and other accounts, but all in all, all my 5 years on the site, gone. Never got to see some of the old artists or people ever again.

VERMY

During the time I was banned off of FA, Vermyfox, a toon who I used to look up to, joined TSG! As such, the first thing I did was ask him questions and respond to some of his quirky remarks. It was all fun and games and I remember he once responded to me and Aramos that we would both be squished wolves compressed into a coin. One side is black (me) and the other being white (Aramos). This is when I felt like me and Aramos are a match for once. Aramos is a person who we almost became boyfriends at one point thanks to this and I remember Rping with him a lot and that caused me to kinda bond with him in some way.

Anyways during my time on TSG!, I noticed Vermy started venting on about how the people of FA being banned haven't been done so before seeing as they are saying the n-word and shit. Me, realizing that I'm already banned from FA, decided to stay low even though I already friended him on Discord. This didn't last as he found out about my main twitter seeing how I was kinda sad and depressed at the time. Disgusted by what I posted and retweeted, he immediately unfriended me and possibly blocked my twitter. Another user however found out I was a part of the Altfur and decided to warn the admins of TSG! about me. This caused many to be leery of me and chose to confront me about it to get me to leave. I tried to decline to see as the Altfurs are my friends at the time but it was no use as my friends from TSG! are starting to get weary of me.

A few months later, I started to get frustrated as I wanted to be a popufur. As such, I started to act more erratic until I started to call out names of popular toon artists which then caused me to break from the Server. After returning, Vermy mentions that a certain someone (me) should try to sit back and rethink about what he's getting himself into a more happy emotion. After this, I checked my twitter and noticed that Orlandofox has started her Discord. As such, I decided to check it out and noticed a few familiar faces like Duino and Clawy.

For those of you who don't know, I met Duino at Anthro New England 2017, the first furcon I've ever been to. There, I was shy and scared to meet new people and that caused me to be careful when being around furies. As I was 16 at the time, I was a minor so my mom had to accommodate me when going there. One of the panels I went to was the one about pie-throwing and I was happy about it. I get to meet a furry named Goku who I thought was a Nazifur at first since he wore some sort of punk shirt with what looked to be like a swastika shirt. As I volunteered to be picked for pie-throwing, I filled the plate with shaving cream and threw it on to Goku, finishing the time I had fun at the last panel there.

Back to Orlando and Vermy, when I first joined the server, everyone was friendly and nice to each other. It was like any other server on Discord as I get to greet new people and be friendly with them. As such, I decided to try to invite Vermy into the server seeing as he's a mutual with her before. Before I got to talk to him about the server, this is how it went:

hello?

VermyFox Jul 18, 2018 2:54 PM

Heya. Sorry this may be long:

I dont have you on ignore or block on discord. Though I did find out more and more you being really good friends with the Furry Raider folks and yes, I am quite a bit leery as would likely most folks be. I'm sure you know fully why as well being associated with them really turns people away/off fast as heck and people willingly block you and do no business with you.

HOWEVER, I get the feeling sometimes you dont want to be around them but are young and dont know how to leave them or are nervous and unsure how to make new friends or fix any burnt bridges. If this is the case, go ask some of the folks the Raiders dislike, and be genuinely honest you want out.

But if I am wrong and you do like hanging out with

Message @Toonyyx666

But, if I am wrong and you do like hanging out with wannabe white supremecists at worst and asshole trolls at best, then you can understand why I dont want to be around it. I have legit Klan relatives and seeing that shit from kinfolk growing up pisses me off fairly hard.

So no, Im not mad. No, I dont think things are beyond repair. However just wanting to say as someone who has dealt with some horrid folks, I was highly saddened and hope you don't keep going that route

(Also at work so responses may be slooooooow)

Toonyyx666 Jul 18, 2018 3:23 PM

Nah, I'm just letting you know orlandofox has her own server if you wanna join

But ok, I understand what you mean by that.

Thanks vermy

VermyFox Jul 18, 2018 3:50 PM

It was an elephant in the room. needing to be said, and I felt I should get it out.

If you ever want an honest talk about them or any of that I don't mind. I'm ancient enough I may be able to shed some insight now and then.

Just, remember Orlando is black, so everyone in the Raiders group posting jokes and memes about "niggers lawl" in any fashion, are talking about her.

Kind of like when people are fans of bands with cds like "Sniper at the Fag Parade" while talking to a gay guy.

So thank you for offering the invite, but at this point it would be awkward. And again, I hope it is just young person angst and not knowing what to do.

Toonyyx666 Jul 18, 2018 3:50 PM

Thanks

With that, things went well for me and Vermy despite him worrying me about being in Alt-Right furry groups.

RICK

What could I say about this? A friend of mine from DA decided to make a small group chat for us to shitpost and trivial talks. I was there for a while along with my best friend and his girlfriend at the time. We talked about our experiences in DA, cringe, and other shit we like to make fun of. I remember one time the owner, Rick, said he wanted to move away from Cali to Tennessee to meet his father as he was abused by his mom and grew up living with his incompetent brother. He hated niggers and fags despite being one himself and all in all, I just felt bad for the kid. As he sees me being the only good furry around, he likes to hang out with me and called me an honorary furry or some shit.

I remotely remember one time he said he wanted to own a firearm like a six-shooter revolver and that he raided FurAffinity with gore. I guess that explains the warning from TSG! about visiting FA due to gore raids. He then went on to do that again as he made another FA account with the name of I-h@te-N1gg3rs or something close to it with a profile pic of the confederate flag. With that, he spammed the site with gore and animal abuse. With so many people seeing gore, they immediately reported it and FA took it down with no option for an appeal. He did this again however, the site admins reacted much faster to the raid.

Anyways, as I started to begin my intern, I noticed my best friend's GF started to harass me, as such, I started to respond thinking it was banter and she responded that it wasn't very serious. That is until a few days later; she started to harass me even more and spammed gore and gross pics at me. That didn't affect me as much until I was invited into a group dedicated to making fun of me. Changed the name to mock me and have the owner, Rick, saying he did all of this because I "unironically enjoy Johnny Test". After this, I started to break down crying at my job as I was dealing with this on a communications issue. This lasted for a while and with that, I felt contempt for Rick this very day. If you happen to read this Rick, I hope you die in the worst possible way, you disgusting subhuman.

It was a few months later when I found out how sick this kid is as his boyfriend admitted to me that Rick wanted to rape underage characters who are considered cute and that he's not gay as he's into bimbos. I also learned that Rick is also into animal abuse and would use it to shock people and it might turn him on? Rick also doesn't like to shower as the feel of water "made him uncomfortable". After reading all of this, I felt disgusted and wished his life got worse after visiting his dad in Tennessee. I wouldn't want to commit acts of lynching but after how he treated me and seeing some chick who I was friends with back in DA in 2014-2015 excused his behavior because "Muh bad childhood", I. Will. Fucking. Lynch. Him.

TELEGRAM REDPILLS

During my time in Telegram, in the Alt furs chat, I wasn't political or know any politics at all. But after one member decided to forward a meme/post from an Alt-Right source from Telegram, I started to learn more and more about what goes on in western civilization. As such, I started to lean far right as I learned more and more about how trump is a Neocon and doesn't care about "America First" anymore. But rather, let illegals in more than Obama and not caring about the people who voted for him. I also learned more and more awful shit about kikes and how they're the main issue with America today as they're the reason for many censorship and monopolies today. As I spend more and more time on telegram, it sort of radicalized me in a way that I know something that I always kept in me. I'm always an Ethno Nationalist even as a kid. I also learned to hate fags from a blog from ropeculture.com called The Fag Agenda which was written by a Tumblr user (who I might have reblogged back when I have Tumblr) who wanted to trigger the fags there.

THE KERO INCIDENT

As I was using Telegram, I was wondering what people were talking about as that's how I check up my news daily and as such. I later discover some talk about Kero the wolf in some horrific animal abuse ring. As such, I tried to ask what the fuck is going on and this is widespread in the fandom's telegram chat. I then started to check on Kiwi Farms if they have any news to it and was shocked to find countless crimes against nature. I remember watching one of the videos and the abuse on the animals is so graphic that I legit couldn't sleep for the rest of the night. I then share it whole article with my anti furry friends and they too were shocked at what was posted in the ring.

Now me, like everyone else were outraged by this and somehow, it got political in the fandom as people are now going at each other's throats over it. I for one didn't care for that and just want to see how the situation goes by. As such, this is where things go south. As Foxler from the Furry Raiders decided to contact Kero by donating to his Patreon, he has found that Kero is against callout culture. As the Xanadu (What alt furry goes by now at the time) found out about this, they got angry as Foxler decided to donate to “support Kero” in which they then distanced themselves and chose to not be involved with the Furry Raiders anymore. With that, I’ve lost even more contacts with my friends even more.

This might be a blessing in disguise as I vented this to Vermy about how I left the AltFur community and he responded about how Kero is up to the law enforcement to be dealt with. Not online strangers. I, however, never told him that I was still in the raiders at the time. He also talked about how people now are mad at the Alt-Right because of the synagogue shooting by Robert Bowers in Pittsburg. As such we started to get along and have hopes for learning and growing.

THE RP INCIDENT

During this time, I was stressing out and was venting out my frustration to a group of my friends in a server called Friendkorps. As such, another friend, Machinehead, who I found back in 2015-16 decided to do an online hug for support. I haven't thought much of it until he decided to share a screenshot of JWB79 Rping as him beating Machinehead down the floor and tossing him downstairs. A friend of JWB79 by the name of Pray the Gay Away (MrConman123) decided to join in as he roleplayed as being an executor as punishment for Machinehead "acting like a faggot". I didn't mind at first since I thought this was a normal conversation at the time since I see this stuff happened on JWB79's server all the time with the whole server seeing Machinehead as a punching bag. That is until Machinehead complained to me that this is “different this time”. Prey, being an ex of Rick, decided to confront JWB79 of this and as such, JWB79 admitted to having an issue with Friendkorps’s users as they’re “grown man-children who play with plushies” and even talked shit about my best friend too despite them being together for a long time. With that, Prey got angry and decided to kick both JWB79 and MrConman123 out of Friendkorps, and with that, no longer became friends. I for one, see this as another on the list of my downfall as I no longer have people supporting each other anymore and I was kicked from both servers of JWB79 and Darkscythe.

WORST YEAR I'VE EXPERIENCED

At the end of 2018, I was in a state of mild depression, thinking about everything that happened during that year and how it all went wrong. I was hoping for 2019 to be better as I remember Luie is back on to Twitter after being gone for so long and maybe get things back with my life. This year is what broke me and what turned me down from being optimistic about being down all the time. HOWEVER, as bad of a year as it is, I at least wasn't a popufur at that time nor was I infamous at all. What happened next year is my turning point and where everything fucking changes in my lifetime and future.

WHY I JOINED KIWIFARMS

At the beginning of January, I was pretty optimistic about how this year is going to be. Hoping for a better future, I decided to check twitter as I saw Luie is starting to open commissions again. Curious, I decided to DM her, asking if I can have a commission. With no reply for a few days, I asked again. That is when she suddenly blocked me. With that, I was kinda sad but maybe things might get better. Afterward, I checked Kiwi Farms and browsed the Kero thread. Seeing my friend who used to be in TSG! as a member of KF made me interested in joining. As such, I was able to post new content and gossip on how I feel about random internet celebrities doing embarrassing shit.

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 1 BETRAYAL

Ah yes, the moment you fags been waiting for. The moment of my life in which I changed, in which I lost my true innocence, which caused me to live in infamy among the toon furs community. This is gonna be a long one. So you fags better want to prepare yourselves for this one. It's gonna be a doozy.

During February, I joined Luie's telegram channel for her art and with that, I was seeing all the art she posted there, the art of commissions she done for people, and such. I made a new twitter just for that. A few weeks passed by and I remember I had a dream, a dream of me talking to her and commissioning her in a calm and friendly way. This dream might have changed the rest of my life forever. I don't remember what exactly happened in the dream but I do remember the conversation being casual.

The next day, I was having a conversation in the Raiders chat, I expressed my jealousy and concern for what might happen if I commission her as I don't want to piss her off. I remember talking about how I'm scared to talk to her and if she might get angry at me. Knowing that she moved to Boston recently, I fear I might end up bumping into her as well. I always assumed the worst will happen during this time as I was worrying that someone who I looked up to since 2014 will try to block/avoid me. As such, I upped my courage and messaged her in Twitter DM as in her Telegram channel, she mentioned a discount for ref sheets and knowing how she draws birds very well and I didn't have an official ref for one of my avian OC at the time, I asked her for that commission. Knowing that Luie is the main reason for me joining twitter at the time, getting blocked by her is what I considered an end to using Twitter and possibly my sona as well.

At this point, I was contemplating killing off my sona.

During this time, I was scared because it was a week before Anthro New England 2019 open.

I was in class when this happened in high school and so when Luie responded to my DM, my heart stopped. She told me she no longer wants me to commission her and that I was caught being in “Nazi chats”. Before I could respond to her, she blocked me. I immediately started to break down and cry. If I could respond fast enough, I would try to compromise with her, tell her that I would abandon all nazi chats and go back to being a regular old apolitical furry again. But it’s too late.

Hey dude, I no longer want to accept commissions from you. You've been screen-shotted from some Nazi chats and I dont support that stuff at all.

I started crying and tried to hide it. This happened towards the 6th period of high school and the teacher noticed that I was crying so she tried to comfort me about it. Mom picked me up and sent me home, asking why I was crying. I didn't reply and as I got home, I left the Raider's Telegram and try to distance myself away from it all. Everyone from the raiders started to get concerned for me and so they DMed me on Telegram asking if I'm ok or not. I wasn't and I was thinking about killing off Toony.

You fags may be wondering why I'm acting like this. You may think I'm an oversensitive faggot or a loser for doing this. But if you remember what I wrote back in CON INCIDENT, it happened to me before with a different person and seeing this happened again but with someone who I looked up to since 2014 do this to me, I felt betrayed. As night falls, everyone in the Raiders started to talk to me and as such, told me that I was overreacting and that I should try to calm down as I'm going to see Inu Okami at ANE 2019. I obliged and returned to the Raiders.

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 2 HATE ART

When rejoining the Raiders, what they didn't know is that I attempted to OD and as such, the next day came and I was feeling sick and weak. Still missing and feeling betrayed, I asked many furies for help. That includes someone from a server who I feel is a toon fur. Me, being depressed at the time, wanted to be comforted by him and he started to support and care for me. I felt better and after that, I started to vent out more.

I started to get a feeling of hatred for Luie's sona, everything about cockatiels, seeing that bird turn my blood into a boil. As I blame Luie for my pain, I started hating her species and so I vented it in many discord servers, including Orlandofox's server. I remember saying how I wanted to "Kill Cockatiels" and how much I despised them. No one noticed or thought seriously of it at first. Not until this happened.

Now, the moment you all been waiting for, the vent art. As I finally started to stop venting about cockatiels, I then feel a deep hatred for Luie. No longer do I have a sense of care or love for Luie anymore as I was in pain both physically and mentally. I started to ask the raiders if they wanted me to do the vent/hate art. Most say no until Inu, clueless about what vent art I was about to do, told me to go with it. I asked him if he's ok with drawing a pic of me killing Luie Cockatiel. He typed in all caps to do it. I then ask him if I can do it "Serbian Style".

For you fags who don't know what I meant by that, I was trying to base to hate art off a rape scene from A Serbian Film. The scene where Milos, drugged up, was forced into raping a mother of a child who was in the "art film". The scene has traumatized me as not only did Milos rape and beat her but at the final part is him, handed a machete, was directed to decapitate her. As the mother screams, she was being decapitated, bleeding, and struggling to breathe until Milos cut her head off completely, all while the director cheers in joy for creating “rigor mortis”.

I then question my innocence as I posted a hug sticker of my sona with text on top saying “me” and under the sticker was this:

I don't know why the person who screenshotted this cropped out the top sticker off but I felt like they're trying to do this to scare the furries even more. Besides, the screenshot of the conversation with the sticker is lost.

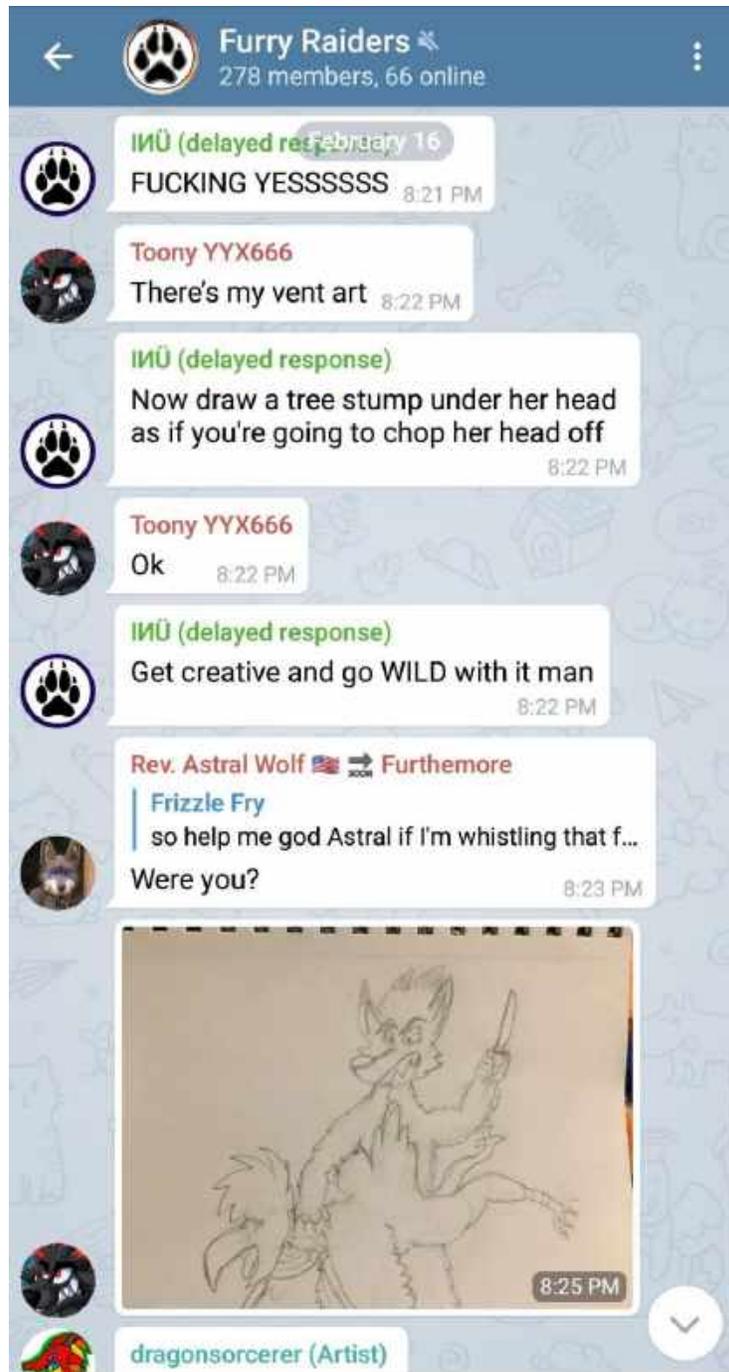

As such, I drew the pic, and lo and behold, I received praise for it.

Higher quality pic

As I posted this, Inu praised me for it. I thought this was it and that the art was over but Inu has other plans.

As I posted the first pic, Inu encourage me to draw more and suggested me to draw a stump under Luie's head and go mental with it. As such, I added a stump under her neck as I held my knife up, ready to decapitate her.

As such, a few Raiders decided to complement the artwork as I let out all my hatred for Luie

I thought it was the end of it as I finished drawing the hate art. But that isn't enough for Inu. He wanted more to be drawn. He wanted her "comrades" tortured and chained to the wall, struggling to stop the "murderer" from killing their friend. With that, I started listing all the toon furs that are mutual with Luie:

Dclawycat

Vermyfox

Orlandofox

And finally, everyone in goup and the toon furs community.

Some furries though I was about to shoot up ANE 2019 because I asked "Kill all the toon furs?" and they thought it's a call to action.

I also asked the members of the Raiders if they all enjoying a pic of me killing and raping Luie. I also responded to someone saying that “I’m killing another furry”. I don’t know the context to that but it could be a response to a question or my plan to add Clawy in the pic. As for the rape question, Inu responded to it by saying to leave it off since it’s NSFW, not due to its content.

I also asked about adding Vermey to the pic as well.

The last part of the pic in which I felt like I betrayed Clawy seeing as I once talked to her on twitter and furry amino before. I know she wasn't involved in the drama but she is a mutual of Luie which hurts me to include her in the art.

After finishing the vent art, I was about to add Vermy into the pic. As such, I confronted Inu about it in the DMs. He then told me how I feel after drawing the vent art. I replied saying that I felt a bit better but felt it's somehow wrong. I then ask about adding Vermy again which before, replied saying if Vermy is another person who I'd like to harm. This time he responded in a more demanding way and to "fucking kill that prick". I decline drawing myself or Vermy being killed seeing as he kinda introduced me to the fandom. HOWEVER, I did draw Vermy in the pic in chains like Clawy but not gagged or hung up but as a floating head since I didn't fully finish the pic.

Inu, seeing all the expressions, thinks they were all characters in which I reminded him that they're based on real people. He was happy with the pic as he saw the toons in the pic suffering from my tortures with their multiple facial expressions, describing them as "priceless". I however felt somewhat guilty for adding them in and as such, asked if I was in the right to do this but he suggested as long as it makes me happy, he's fine with it.

At this point, I was starting to question my actions.

Inu showing his praise for how I have drawn the toon's emotions.

10:49 PM

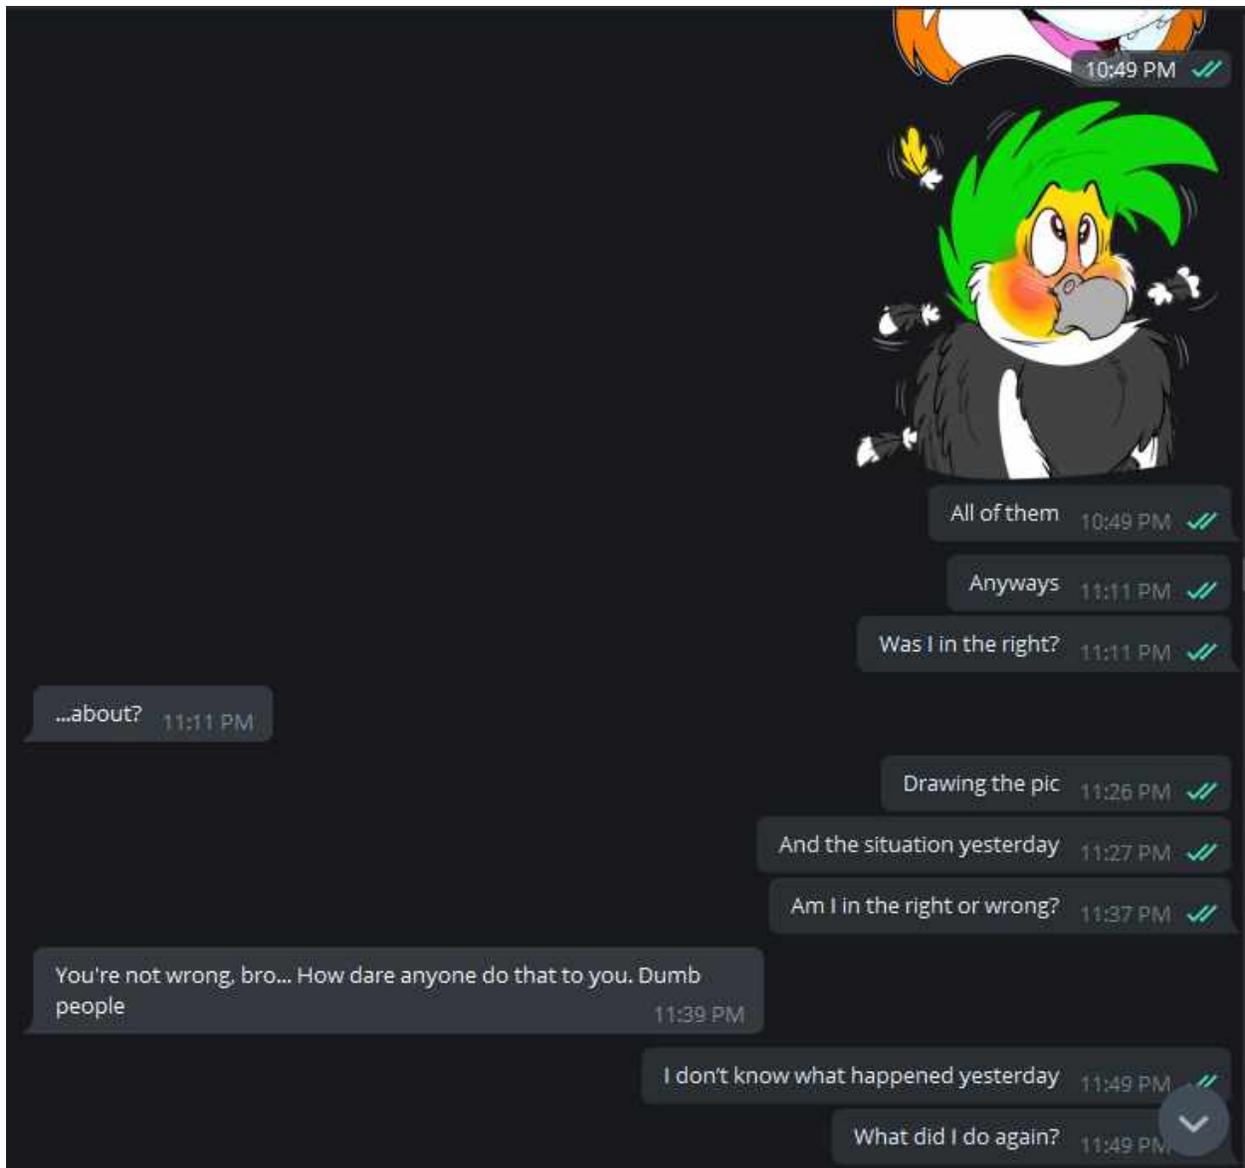

Inu

Me showing all the “victims”.

Continuation of the victims and questioning my actions.

Me questioning what when on in the Furry Raiders when I left due to Luie.

I then share the pic with Saint Fox seeing how he has a hateboner for furrries. His reactions show how little he cared about it. He thought the bird I decapitated was a Youtube storytime animator by the name of Adler the Eagle. I corrected him saying that that it was Luie. Not much happens besides him finding it a bit funny and edgy.

After this, I returned to the Furry Raider's chat and let out my last anger to Luie. With all my hate and anger, I wrote "Fuck you Luie" in the chat. At this time, I thought I might've gotten into a restraining order and I didn't care at that time as I was tired. I lay my case and went to sleep. Oh boy, I was not prepared for what to come tomorrow.

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 3A TWITTER

When I say oh boy, I mean oh fucking boy this is going to be painful. As I woke up the next day, checked Telegram, and I was greeted to seeing a friend who once comforted me yesterday. He was pissed as he saw my art on twitter and confronted me about it. I, still in shock, checked around Telegram and saw so many people message me. As such, they are asking if I am alright or not. Inu tried to comfort me as well. After that, I got into a panic attack as I started to attempt OD again. Feeling sick and weak again, I cried to the friend to call the ambulance on me and since he's from Texas, he can't contact the medics in Boston.

Me, still panicking, suddenly received a Telegram notification from an admin from Boozy's chat. Immediately, I started to cut myself, barely feeling the pain. Another message came from an Indonesian friend of mine. He got concerned and told me how it's ridiculous how I got canceled. Everyone started messaging me, telling me how I should stay away from their friends and how much of a horrible person I am.

Luie saw this and knew about it as the only Telegram sticker I have of Toony is gone. She also was told that I was obsessed with her and Orlando by members of MFL as he remembered me from the chat. Luie and Orlando are definitely in shock and horror as they believe they were being targeted by me since the person who tweeted the screenshot, Deo, only mentioned them. Later, TwitchDaWoof, a friend of Inu, got pissed and warned Taijey about the pic, causing her to go on a blocking spree on every website she sees me on. Vermy was initially pissed, seeing me involving his friends and him in my vent art but as he found out more and more that I wasn't in a healthy mind, he felt sorry and concerned for me.

Me being in the raiders, everyone was panicking. Some were outraged while others felt disgusted at what I drew. I was still in a state of panic and guilt so I started to choke myself. The choking didn't last and one member of the Raiders suggested putting me on Xanax. Oh yeah, I also forgot to mention that I was off my meds (Prozac) when I drew the vent art.

With that, one of the admin suggested deleting the vent art off of the Raiders chat. Even though it did nothing to stop the people from trying to go after me, I was stuck in fear. I then deleted all the vent art I posted and within so much guilt, I asked if I should write the apology. This might be one of the biggest mistakes I have ever done and regretted doing and I'll tell you why. As soon as I was in guilt, someone suggested me to write an apology. The Raider admins allow me to stay as I didn't break any rule for targeting furies and that they were considered fictional. During the time I wrote the apology, I didn't know what I was talking about so I admitted that the toons being targeted are based on real people which leads to me getting banned from the Raiders as Foxler said that I was targeting someone and he allowed anyone to who's been affected to send me to a court or file a police report on me.

8:20 AM

Toony YYX666

To anyone reading this, yes, I did draw the pic, yes i did draw luie being killed, tajjay and vermyfox tied up. I did this out of frustration and anger on how to deal with myself being denied of a commission. I do not want any harm to anyone when I drew the pic. I drew it as a way for me to vent out my frustrations yesterday against the toon furs. I was denied a commission from luie (now known as spitzzy) during Friday. As a result, I had a panic attack and ended up cutting myself (not fatally) and overdosed. I began to feel sick and tired and I have a hard time trying to work it out. I was scared about how I'm about to loose friends at ANE and people seeing me and getting angry at me. All of them having to met me once last year. As a result, the next day, I was in a chat group. I skipped my medication thinking it would help me think more clearly. As I was in the chat, I said I wanted to do a vent art. As such I drew a pic of me killing luie. I then drew a pic of her friends such as tajjay and vermyfox chained up for letting go of my frustration out more. As I posted the pic, I was trying to release my frustration out, I didn't think about the consequences of me showing this to everyone. When I woke up today, everyone was angry at me. They told me how I need help and how I'm making everyone bad. As a result I have thought about my actions. I shouldn't have drawn the pic. I shouldn't have drawn myself attacking other people who had helped me before or at least talked to me before, and I shouldn't lash out against anybody, even if they have or have nothing to do with my problems. For this, I realize mistakes and no one should be able to fear going to con spaces. No one should be seeing this pic. As for me, I believe made a big mistake. People should have fun when hanging out with each other. They should not fear or threaten anybody. With that I sincerely apologize to anyone who I affected with this pic. Nobody should see this pic at all and I have done a great disservice to anyone who I worked with or have talked to. I don't want anyone to fear me or see me as a threat. But after all of this, I have made myself to be a violent and hateful person. And with that, I would like to apologize to luie/spitzzy, tajjay, vermyfox, and orlandofox, the furry raiders, the toon furs community, and the rest of the people who have to see my disgusting behavior. I will try to not lash out against anyone anymore and will try to be regularly medicated so none of this will happen again.

The apology in question.

One of my Raider friends decided to message me asking if Luie is bluffing when she's talking about taking me to court. I told him that I don't think so because I haven't received a court paper but with so much going on, I can't be bothered to be checking Twitter as I don't want to see people getting at me. Luie immediately went to the police on me for the restraining order and so does Clawy/Taijey. She tweeted about it and taught Taijey how to do it as well.

The now-deleted tweet in question.

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 3B SAINT FOX

With so much going on, I started to message my friend Saint Fox. Showed him my scars and he told me how fucked up it was and is concerned for me. He then later checked twitter and said that Luie/Spitzzy is crazy. He then goes on to tell me that it's nothing to worry about but after reading all the reactions on a discord call, he was laughing as he sees furries being terrified. He then went on to say how he gained respect for me for causing so much drama for doing so little. With that, he said close to his mic “Toony did nothing wrong”. This phrase will stick with me for a long time.

Afterward, he then started to look at the twitter when I showed him the tweet about me with Pepper Coyote. Pepper screenshotted the tweet where I mentioned how I missed Vance Stone on the day he died last year. Pepper censored the name and said that I miss the Pulse Nightclub shooter Omar Mateen. He, laughing his ass off, noticed a lot of people defending me and he went on to my old twitter and screenshotted the tweet. I deleted my twitter after that so the tweet is gone now but Saint noticed that a lot of people are defending me surprisingly.

Besides all of this, I was still in terror and fear. My friend Saint fox did cheer me up however with a Photoshop pic he made of me as the crusader from Hatred and me executing furies joking about me shooting up Anthro New England. I remember laughing so hard at the pic. I'm legit surprised that furies considered me a threat because I drew a shitty vent sketch. They tell every furry going to ANE to "stay safe" as more and more furs and toon furs freaked out. They thought I was going to shoot up ANE.

Toonyx666 Systematically purging all toon furies at ANE after drawing furry torture art and triggering furfags on Twitter. 🥺👉👍

This pic still makes me laugh till this very day. The fact that furies think this will happen at ANE makes it even funnier.

A week after all of this, I went to ANE, obviously, things went well but Luie isn't there and Duino tried to avoid me at the con. The only reason for me to be at the con is to record footage for Saint Fox so he can cringe at them and make furry edits. Such as this with Zuelansi:

Saint described him as a dying dog with a giant tumor.

All and all, I caught much footage for Saint Fox as he seems to have used them for some edits and art he later used for his Telegram and I think the con memory is not as great but still pretty good. The thing I remember most from Saint is that he wanted to harm that fat furry, especially with his knives for “promoting degeneracy”. All in all, the whole situation can be summed up like this.

Home

lmao idk if i said this already but one of my edgy degenerate nazifur friends managed to trigger a giant shitstorm with some gay ass furry toon community. causing an abdl diaperfur featherfag and a communist jewish furry retard to fucking shit themselves over him drawing some edgy vent art of him killing a diaper furfag who did a drawing for him a while back.

He originally did it because he was rejected by the artist and was told by friends to do it, plus was off his meds lmao.

I personally think he's a total fucking idiot but im glad he caused so much butthurt. But now this disgusting diaperfur is literally trying to get my friend into court after filing a fucking restraining order against him. They are fucking treating him like he's some dangerous terror threat because of some shitty vent art he made.

Honestly this is some of the funniest most retarded and autistic news ive ever heard recently. ill probably link some stuff if ur interested. im not making this up. i wasn't gonna share it with any of u fags but its too fucking retarded to ignore.

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 4 COURT

After coming home from the con, my family notified me of the whole court situation. There, mom asked why I am being sent to court and I responded with “It’s the art I drew.” She then got worried and tried to settle the court. There I was back to being scared and asked for my friends for help. Some Raider members reached out to me and Inu too as he said he will share screenshots with me. Saint Fox just immediately told me to kill her, as he’s disgusted with her, not because of her fetish but the fact that she sent me to court for the pic. Me, not knowing what to do, was scared and asked my family for help and as such, we told the school that we’re gonna be absent on Thursday for court.

When it's time for the court to happen on Thursday, I began to sit with my social worker and my sister as we prepare for settling the restraining order. My sister asked if I know what Luie looked like and told her that it's been a year since I saw her and I don't know what she looked like anymore. All I know is that a woman came in and my family didn't notice until I did. When the court opened, the judge went through many people; one was some police and a guy with a ticket for speeding over 200 mph. Another was with some fight or some shit. As I wait for our turn, I remember the guy lost and the police got to keep his job. My family noticed that even the police fear the judge. As such, when it's our turn to come up, swear our oath, and begin the trial. With me being the defendant, I came up to read a complaint about the reason for the trial.

Afterward, the judge ordered Luie to share with me the iPad containing the screenshot I posted above. I went through all of it and when the judge asked me if what I posted was true, I replied with yes. Afterward, he gave me a reason to explain myself, which I said that I wasn't in the right mind at the time when I drew the pic. I asked if I should share with him the full pic in which he told me he already saw the pic. He surprisingly complimented my art skills despite it looking shitty and told me to continue drawing other non-threatening artwork. My social worker then asked about Inu in which Luie responded with his real name. All in all, the case was dismissed and I didn't get a restraining order unless I decided to interact with Luie again in which I'm not risking getting a restraining order or court again.

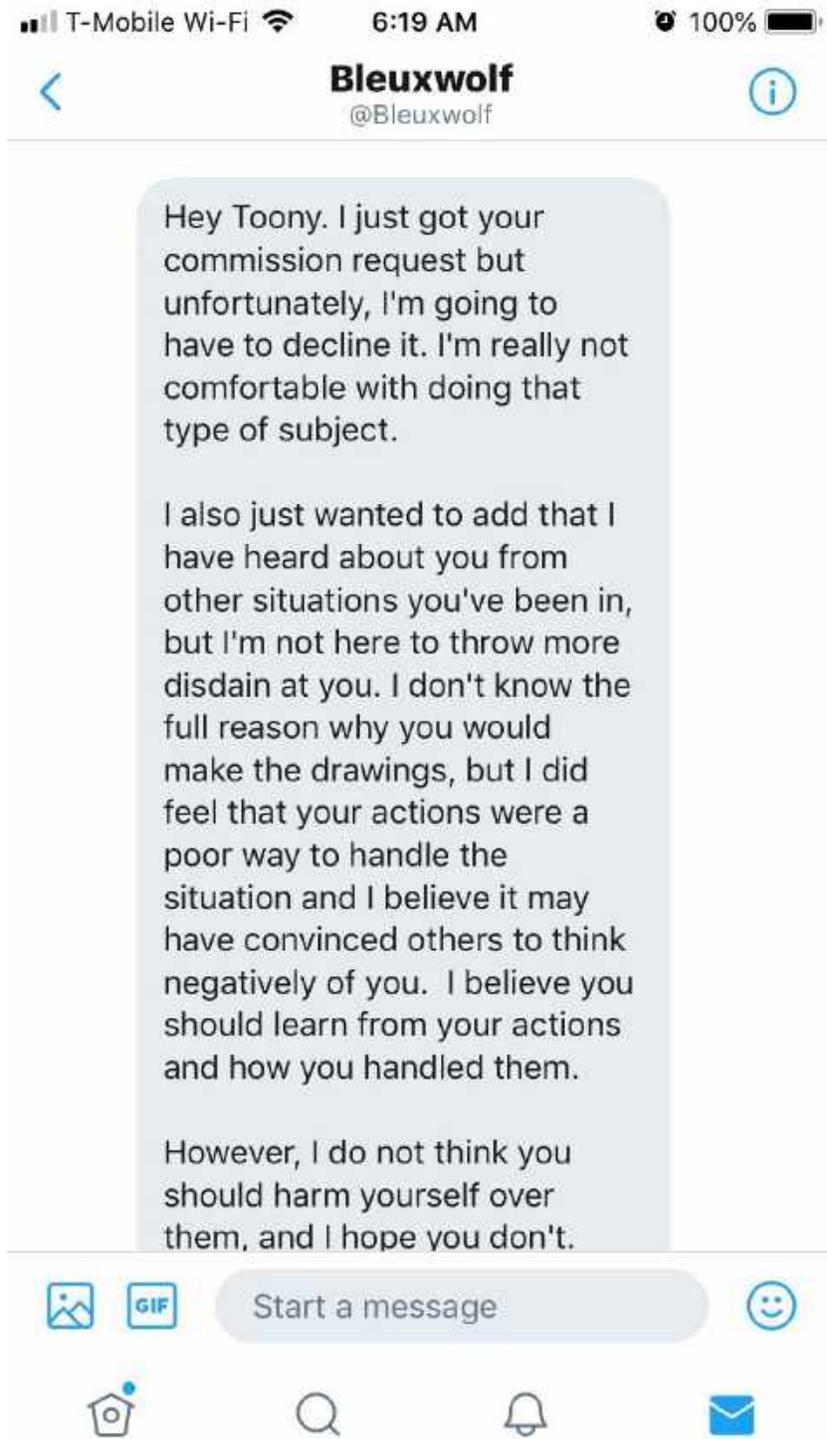

THE TOON FURS INCIDENT PART 5 AFTERMATH

Let's be real here. As much as this whole incident hurt me, it's kinda funny too and made me laugh with the memes my friend Saint made for me and seeing all the furrries cry in horror as they saw the vent art. Even the Furry Raiders are terrified of the pic as one member even compared me to Eric Harris making a doom map of his school. Hell, even one ex AltFur allowed me in their telegram group chat and one of the admin joked about the whole situation. Nevertheless, I was banned in almost all New England Chats, Boozy's chat, the Furry Raiders, TSG!, etc. banned me from their chat. It's my turning point when this vent art happened. The only people that cared for me are EJ and Aramos who's concerned for my mental health. I had nobody while the toons I drew art of has many people supporting them.

With that, I felt intense guilt as I cried for help with rejection cough cough Sorrel Pandoth cough cough and I felt no use for Toony anymore as I tried to commission a toon fur to kill off my sona. The guy declined it since he doesn't feel comfortable drawing art of furrries killing themselves and he explained to me that he's aware of the toon fur incident. He told me that he didn't know what caused me to do it but felt it what's making the furrries to think negatively of me but he wished the best for me. The whole incident happened on Kitsunekit's birthday so I'm scared to get a free art raffle from him during his birthday. All in all, this vent art incident changed who I am forever.

Bleuxwolf

full reason why you would make the drawings, but I did feel that your actions were a poor way to handle the situation and I believe it may have convinced others to think negatively of you. I believe you should learn from your actions and how you handled them.

However, I do not think you should harm yourself over them, and I hope you don't. Rather, I hope that you can accept your mistakes, learn from them, and move forward and improve from them, and also get the help that you need.

Again, unfortunately, I have to decline that commission request but I do hope for the best for you.

ATOMWAFFEN

Before the Christchurch shooting, Saint invited me to use MeWe as a replacement for g+. During the trolling in MeWe, we made fun of furies and other degenerates. That is until the Christchurch shooting occurred. There, he made memes of Brenton Tarrant and more offensive contents. That is until he posted a video, a video of a militia wearing Shadman facemasks shooting guns, ISIS-style aesthetics, and crossbreed music playing in the background. That video is from the Atomwaffen Division. I heard of the group before back in 2017 but never thought it would be so awe-inspiring as it has everything I wanted. Praising mass shooters, violence, race wars, and now... Satanism. All of these are edgy and as such, introduced me to the whole siegeculture shit. This shit radicalized me.

SPAZZING OUT IN VEGAS

So during this time, it was summer and as I was taking a break, preparing for the 4th of July fireworks, some guy came by and messaged me about Machinehead. Immediately I confronted MachineHead about it. There, we spazzed at each other and as such, we started to have a confrontation and shit about my so-called friend turning into a communist faggot. As such, I remember one thing I know is that he's a liar and would throw people under the bus for the sake of "Owning the conservative". I remember asking him "What if I draw hate art of you or do some shit worse” and he replied with “I would be reasonable”. What a fucking lie that was.

After the whole Spazzing out, I start to calm down and lie about quitting Nazism because “it disturbs me”. As we’re getting our respect back, I learned he leaked the document of my court paper in which I immediately gave up on him. He embarrassed me with being a faggot and has me lose contact with JWB79. I remember JWB79 talked to me about Machinehead thinking I’m a nazi, adding to the list of reasons why he hates the kid. Machinehead, if you’re reading this, you’re lucky you didn’t get doxxed with your family when trying to be an anarcho-communist nigger. You will receive the worst punishment of my regime if I ever become dictator after the collapse.

COWORKER

When I got back home from Vegas, I started an internship at a school in video productions.

Only to see a kid with a tardwrangler named Anthony Toney. I haven't thought much of him thinking it's a coincidence that he has the same name as another Discord user named Anthony Toney. Turns out it's the same person.

Immediately I start to hate him as he's annoying and makes loud noises when doing his job. Even my other coworker started to get sick of him. He always walk by my computer screen and looked at my work rather than doing his.

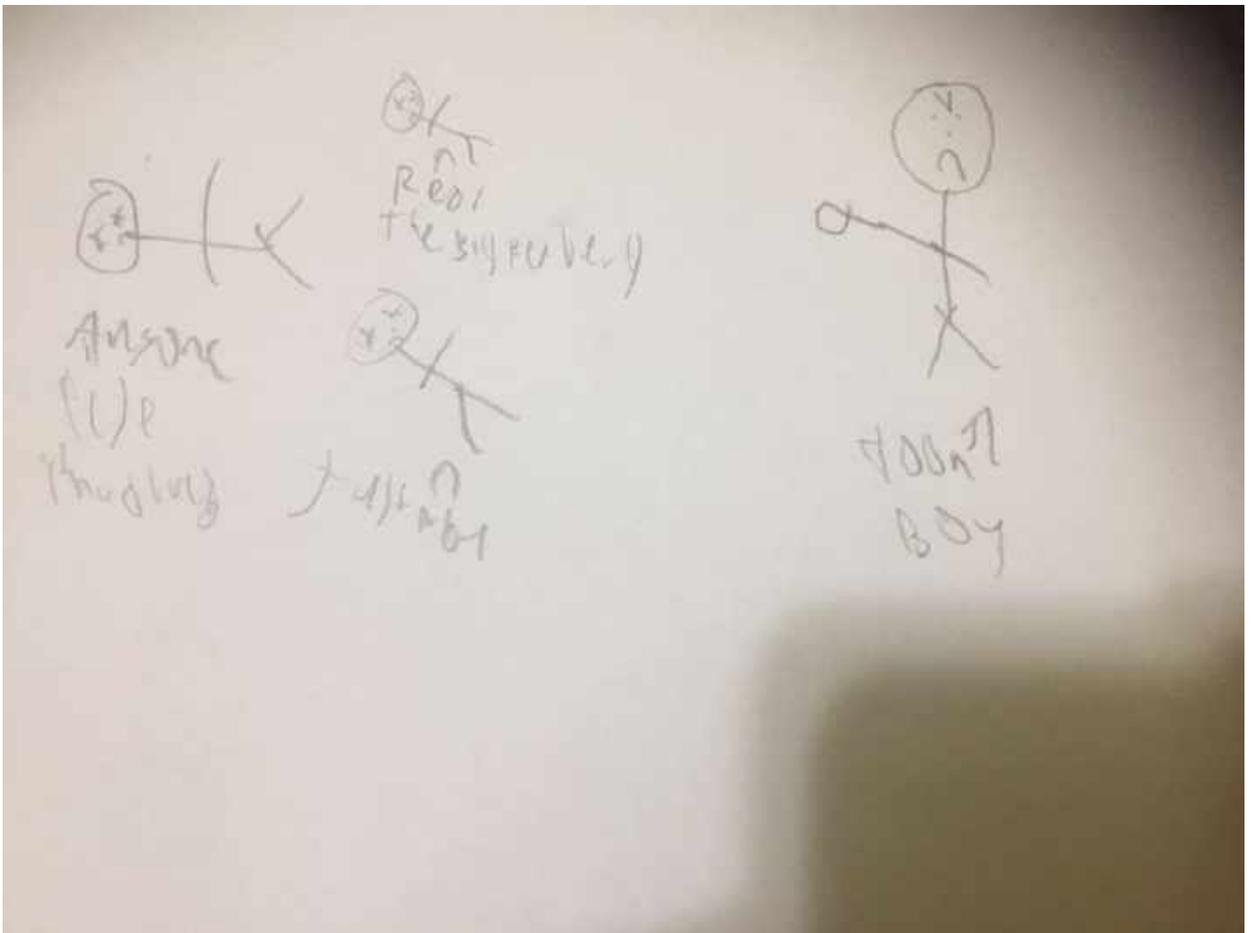

When I complained about this to a server,

JWB79 noticed and started to invite me to a group chat. There, he wanted me to describe what goes on at the job and show proof it's Anthony. As such, I messaged my coworker to take a picture of him and shared the proof. Lo and behold, they were shocked that it's Anthony Toney who they talked to before. I started doing more research into him and learned that he's a spastic who threatens and doxxes people. I also watched a voice call of him, remembering that he reed when the group kept on calling him a pedophile.

I remember interviewing him and ask him questions in which the group wanted me to ask him. As such, things went well and what confuses the group is that he wanted to be a Japanese teacher. This was all we have until the internship is over. But I still have contact with him so I sometimes talk to him for fun. He's a depressing guy if I'm honest here.

I remember he told me his dad beat him and hated his mom for being conservative. He also talked about some traumatic events that happened as a kid and how he was threatened by a teacher. He's into fat fetishes and so I warned him that he's going to regret it, he didn't listen and became depressed. Just recently, he was diagnosed with PTSD, and from what I remember, he self-harms with a pencil as he can't control his laughter.

His vent art of me killing his enemies which are some fat fur who noticed my shitty vent art knife looking like a butter knife and being from Kitsunekit's chat, and two other random fags. I can't read since the handwritings are shit but hey, boys naturally have shitty handwriting.

REUNITED WITH JWB79

The meeting with Anthony Toney introduced me to a group call and got invited back to JWB79's server. There, I got introduced to some guy who looked like BetaEtaDelota named Superawesomeblossomjohn. With their similarities in appearance and age, I'm surprised they're not related. But yeah, the guy's a fat freak. I remember we got to exposed him to shove toys up his ass and have him masturbate on camera when JWB79 catfished him. We also talked about other freaks and get to join Hexa's server meeting new guys as well. It was pretty fun as they slowly gain respect for me. Also, Prey hated Machinehead now for throwing him under the bus which hurts him to see that.

MILO AND STRAIGHT PRIDE

My coworker heard about the Straight Pride parade and he wanted to join. So I invited him and during that time, we get to meet many Youtubers and an infamous journalist by the name of Milo Yiannapolous. I remember asking him to rate Toony and he gave him a straight 10. We marched down the streets of Boston as we reached the end where we had a concert on patriotism and such. The funny part is the time Antifa caught in a fight with the police and as such, they got arrested. After the parade was over, we all went home only to discover that Milo has a Telegram.

Also, during this time, it was my sister's wedding. So when I was preparing, I joined a toon furs group and surprisingly, I was greeted by someone by the name of Jasu, and with that, I told them that I am going to my sister's wedding soon. A few awkward walls of silence later, I got banned. Later, Taijey then made a tweet about this. She got pissed and everyone got concerned for her. I joined the chat mainly to see if they forgive me.

GROYPER

As I joined the Telegram of Milo, I noticed more right-wing YouTubers are joining Telegram as well. As such, the groypers movement was born, basically an Alt-Right group without the racism. As such, I was having fun hanging around these groups as they were friendly and bring up current events. It wasn't anything special and I'm surprised a lot of furies are in the group too. That is until I was invited to join Milo's MFF chat.

MIDWEST FURFEST

During the Milo Telegram furry disguise. He asked many furies to be interviewed and as such created drama. Furies wanted to kill Milo as they fear him for some reason. All I know is that he was banned from MFF and so he started to do crazy shit to further the drama. When MFF occurred, I didn't go since I have class and many it turns out, Milo didn't get to the con so the furies are raising their hairs when they're at MFF. I, however, don't mind as Milo started a show starring my friend from the Furry Raiders. That is until the chat got leaked and Vermy noticed, talking about how horrible of a person I am with me hanging out with Milo. I was heartbroken by this, seeing as how I thought Vermy would forgive me when I was gone. Saint, seeing this decided to reply to it only to be blocked and wanting me to dox Vermy for him to fight.

END OF THE 2010 DECADE

And we're finally fucking done, the end of a decade of my life being on the internet and how it fucked me up. From what I wished for the next decade is for a new life, a sort of new beginning for me as I change from a child to an adult. I remember crying and venting about wanting to have the toons back and have a better future but Prey told me to get over it as it's over. Luie, Orlando, Taijey, and Vermy are never coming back to me. I'm all alone now as I wished for a better life or the collapse of the country. Now at this point, I was hopeful things might be better in the future as I get back on my life. It didn't as 2020 is the next decade in which things get worse.

THE 2020 COLLAPSE AND PRESENT DAY

ANTHRO NEW ENGLAND 2020

As I remember during the start of ANE 2020, I visited the con waiting for my friend from the Raiders to come. Despite all of it, I bought a giant rubber band ball from home to the con to show him the ball. Despite this, the ball is heavy so I mostly roll it around the con. I let a lot of furs hold on to it and with their surprise, it was heavy. I remember asking the chairman if it's ok if I can bring the ball to the con. He allowed it.

I also remember telling Crusader Cat to come down and to hold the ball. He too was surprised. But yeah, I had fun at the con as I get to meet new peeps and go through many panels at the con and watching the kaiju fight. Of course, I recorded it and my friend was happy it was recorded. I also remember at the Dj dance, I let a bunch of kids play with the giant rubber band ball and let them have fun with it while I went out and talk with people. I also saw Luie but tried to avoid her and I ended up meeting a former friend of JWB79 at the con as well.

All and all, the con was fun and many great things happened there too. I've met old faces and many new ones too and had fun hanging around with my Raider friend. I also remember I went as far as letting someone drop the ball as it created a mini quake. All in all, I would like to revisit the con someday. Sadly, the next year's event was canceled due to corona.

ORLANDOFOX'S TELEGRAM

When I got home from ANE 2020, I then checked twitter and noticed that OrlandoFox has a Telegram chat. There, I was hesitant to join but decided why not. As I enter the chat, I expected to get flamed from her fans but noticed everyone allowed me in. I was kinda happy and as we went on to talk about many trivial things, things are going fine. That is until a few days later when a kid named ColtFox noticed my @ and started to go all out on me.

He started telling me and everyone how horrible I am and how much of a threat I am to OrlandoFox and everyone. I tried to plead with them that I changed as a person and that I regret the whole vent art because I lost everyone. They didn't care and encouraged me to leave. That is until OrlandoFox came in. There she tried to settle everyone down and understand my situation. However, she still felt uncomfortable with me being around seeing what I've done to Luie and her. Taijey was in the chat too and seeing me be in there made her uncomfortable and left the chat until I'm gone. Orlando told me that it's best that I leave rather than be banned, I oblige and left. I would leave a screenshot but it's too much and not bothering making it fit on the page.

BREAK UP WITH SAINT FOX

As I talked to Saint about this, he told me “see, that’s why you shouldn’t apologize to these people as they only treat you like shit even further.” He then told me to not go further with it. As such, we talked about many things and during this time, Saint talked about how the ASIO took his hard drive away for fedposting too much. He then talked about his new game Animal crossing New Horizon and would make Nazi edits to his shirts and room. I’m legit surprised he didn’t play DOOM ETERNAL since that would fit his gore and violent posts on furies. He plays a furry game like Animal crossing instead which is pretty ironic if you ask me.

Anyways, he mostly just talked about how furies are stupid and cringe and as such, I have talked to him about it too. He told me that all the toons I drew being killed are justified for being diaperfags and he considered them pedophiles. That is until I shared with him a screenshot of my friend's from another chat's reaction to porn of me. He then asked me to share the porn in which he was shocked since that porn is the full pic of the cropped profile pic I used before. He laughed about it too.

The porn in question

We then started a group call and seeing how pissed Saint is, I worry for him seeing as how he has lost his stuff from the ASIO and such. He then invited some of his friends on and when we were talking about random stuff and sharing his webcam for playing Animal Crossing. We usually talk on text but since he's paranoid of the feds, we decided to talk on VC instead. All of this was good until I decided to screen share. There he noticed my desktop background in which he was shocked about it and saw much furry porn from a streaming website.

All of this was funny until I decided to share the whole background image folder for my desktop. This is when he had enough and immediately kicked me everywhere from discord. After this, I felt kinda heartbroken, seeing as I fucked up again for a simple mistake. The last message that Saint told to me was "Vance should've killed you instead”.

My vent art on me attempting to kill off Toony.

All of this leads me to realized how fucked I am. I joined KitsuneKit's chat to vent about this and a lot of people there felt bad for me. Either way, I will miss Saint Fox, but he will not miss me. Giving the fact that he abandoned so many people before, I shouldn't be surprised. But I am due to how he made art for me.

NEW TWITTER

After all of this, I made a new twitter to be able to see blocked artists. I managed to be able to make the account 2 days before 4/20/2020. As such, things went well and the twitter account is hidden for the sake of not letting furies find out who I am. It went well as there wasn't anything wrong going on there. Also, I still use it to this day.

TELEGRAM ANTIFURRY AKTION

As I was in Telegram, I noticed that the channel Saint Fox still has up reposted some stuff from Telegram Antifurry Aktion. Therefore, I decided to join the channel for the sake of curiosity. As I joined, I was greeted to see a screenshot about the government in Finland requiring people to wear fursuits to protect against COVID19. I also noticed the person replying to it has a profile pic from Luie Cockatiel. With that, I decided to join and talked about my experiences with Luie in the past but I didn't mention her name.

As I joined, didn't want to start drama giving the fact that the group is public. I also noticed the owner was one of the admins from a /pol/ chat and so I trusted him. I'm not even active in the chat at all nor am I interested there. Just there to see furry cringe.

WILL MOFIELD

Back then I forgot to tell you about my new FA. When browsing the site, I noticed that there's a toon user by the name of Will Mofield. I noticed his new journal for his Discord server.

Immediately I joined and was welcomed and nicely greeted by Will himself. As with that, I decided to go on and interact with the chat more, sharing some art and interesting facts about me and my sona.

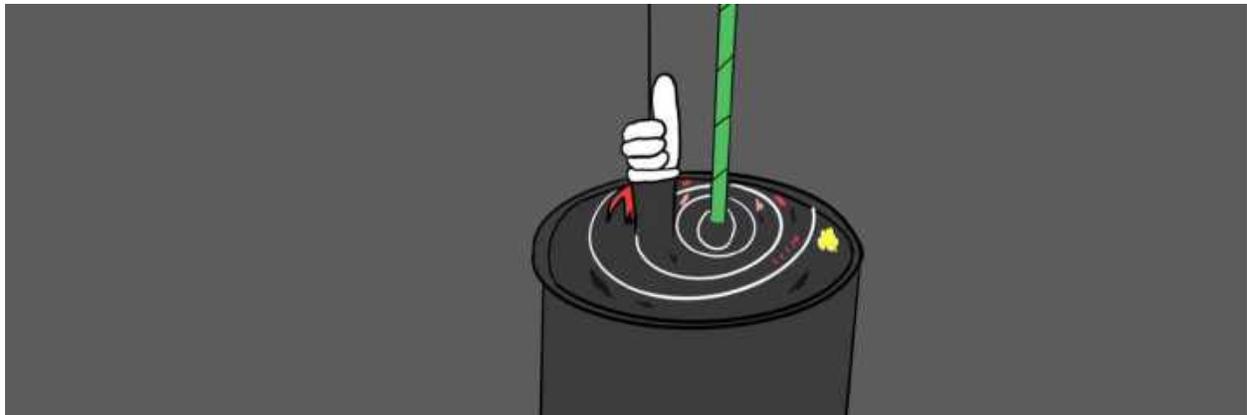

I also noticed some old friends from Will's server, most of them are from TSG! and with that, things are going alright. I told him more about me and he seemed to like me a lot. I also shared with him a meme I got from Banditails and he told me the time he used to hang out with Bandit back in 2010 at Confuzzled. Things here went well as we watched him stream some videos on YouTube and movies too. We watched Fantastic Mr. Fox and other Looney Tunes cartoons and that's the last I will see of Will and the friends.

The next day, I noticed I got banned from the chat. I now realized that it's hopeless now. No longer will I be accepted back into the toon community or be allowed to improve. I'm forever stuck as a person who's known as a violent person. I started to feel depressed again.

“DEATH” OF TOONY

After this, I felt like it's time for Toony to go. I'm finally killing off my sona. I remember drawing me contemplating getting dipped by getting hanged and slowly lowered into the dipped. This time I drew my sona being killed, Terminator 2 style. I told the owner of Antifurry that I left the fandom when I left his chat and left all Alt-Right and political chats on Telegram.

The art I drew of me being dipped and dying.

CORONA

As a few days came by, I got sick with the Coronavirus. I thought I was dehydrating at first and I was having trouble breathing. As such, my family got concerned for me and sent me to the community center. I told them that I was dehydrating and that I may not have corona. They said my symptoms are the same as the symptoms of corona and as such, sent me to the hospital to get tested for one. To my surprise, I got tested positive as I randomly get cold for some reason. I also lost my taste too.

When I have corona, I was isolated in my room and with that, I barely have any contact besides my phone. As so, I am struggling to talk and breathe as the room gets cold. I turn on the heat which overheated me despite the muscle pains and turn on the AC which makes me cold. With that, I was coughing blood and struggling to breathe. That is until 2 weeks later in which I was cured. I started to be back online but having my life be back is hard.

FURRIES EXPOSED

As I came back, I was greeted to a list of people in a group chat of “racist people”. Curious, I decided to join and with that, I returned to many right-wing chats too. I also rejoined AntiFurry and with that, I began to spaz out in the group. But it wasn’t that bad as I didn’t break the rule. Either way, I didn’t have any problems at all.

GEORGE FLOYD AND THE FANDOM

During this month, I was calm and when the whole George Floyd situation occurred, I didn't care about it. That is until the fandom got involved. How did it get involved you may ask? From some guy leaking a group chat, he was in showing the members posting offensive memes. The furies are shocked by this as they tweeted how horrified they are at this. With that, the furies started canceling the group members including the ones that didn't do anything or are even active at all.

That didn't stop there however as they started to target all the other furies who are right-wing, centrist, active-duty policemen, etc. I was disgusted with this seeing as how the fandom tried to ruin each other during a national crisis. They're targeting innocent furies for the sake of not trying to get bothered to be involved in the politics and minors are affected too. They started to have BLM and ACAB in their bio for the sake of not getting bullied or get free art from the popufurs. This is when I learned that the fandom is dying.

I started to contact the owner of the group and he explained to me everything. He was upset that the guy, Mini Mike too was involved in the edgy shitposting as well. He then allowed me in the group chat after checking my twitter and with that, I was allowed in. I started to post offensive and funny memes too until I started venting. Venting about the hate art I drew and how I missed being around the toon furs. The owner started to notice that I'm in pain mentally seeing that I'm talking about missing the toon furs. I told him that it's ok and that the furry cancel culture that's going on currently is the issue.

The whole cancel culture in the fandom is ridiculous and I too was worried for myself seeing that they might come after me soon. Since this is affecting the fandom as a whole, I shared it with many folks on telegram. That is when someone mentioned AntiFurry Aktion on twitter and that's when I realized that I'm gonna get canceled soon. Everyone made fun of him on twitter and that's it. Me, knowing tomorrow I'm getting canceled soon, said my farewell to my friends and others. Thus, the battle of wrath month begins.

BATTLE OF WRATH MONTH

This whole shitshow doesn't need to happen to be honest and as such, I was prepared for it. It first started when Luie made a callout post on me talking about how I stalked her at ANE and how I haven't learned my lesson when I was at court. She then proceeds to tell everyone that she has my info and is willing to dox me if I "Harass anyone" who happened to meet me.

I just added two from the replies XD
Ugh... Stupidity is a plague.

Dclawycat's a bitch too for not letting people defend me, she rather has me suffer rather than people giving my side too.

Luie on the other hand tried to get toon artists to blacklist me from commissioning them. Vermy at this point gave up on me.

Either way, a lot of furies started to ban me from their group for associating with AntiFurry despite not being active on there. I also received a message from KitsuneKit, talking about how I'm not allowed to be in his group chat and how he's going to spread the word about me. He told me to get therapy to rethink why I'm like this. Either way, that caused some concern within some Malaysian guy who told me that he can't believe that the whole thing was true. Also, Aiden Ortega started to get me removed from all the chats he knows me in and gets rid of me from them. He then started to reply to the tweet about how I'm a shitty person despite him greeting me and being happy that I'm in his chat. All the other furies who are friends with me are concerned for me too as I was being canceled again by the furry fandom.

When all of this was happening, my friends came by to defend me after the owner of Antifurry talked about how I have nothing to lose and made a post on the channel talking about how Luie is trying to get rid of me and my friends start to go to the tweet saying that I'm innocent and one of her white knights, Drakethederg, started to spaz out on them. He went mental on my friends for the sake of defending me. Others started coming in to question the court case in which he said that I was found not guilty. Others came in and said that Luie is an SJW who's tweeted the callout post for the sake of chasing clout while the owner of the chat group that got leaked said Luie is a basic SJW trying to virtue signal.

Either way, so many people came into defending me so much that Luie deleted the tweet. My friend Prey started to talk about how much Luie is trying to destroy my life and suggested to draw hate art of Luie, Taijey, and Vermy. That idea was scrapped when he decided to edit Luie's pinned tweet supporting BLM. He changed it to "Gas the Kikes, Race War Now!" I thought it was funny and suggested adding a Shadman mask to them. As the edit was done, I suggest adding subtitles to the art and after that, Prey enjoyed it and added the subtitle "JOIN YOUR LOCAL NAZIFURS TOONWAFFEN DIVISION" and he wanted Luie to see the edited art.

The art in question.

After this, I started to share this with Furrries Exposed and AntiFurry Aktion which people on FE cringed and laughed at it while the Antifurry guys enjoyed it. The Antifurry owner liked it so much that he started to post it on the channel and made the fox as the group image. I thought this was over until some kid who I didn't expect to be in the group got exposed for being racist on Twitter. That's when the group got popular again and someone noticed that the fox is the group pic and notified her on twitter asking why her sona is on the group chat. When the person found out, they were horrified and another popufur talked about how gross it is and how Luie would never do such a thing.

Luie clarifying that she wasn't involved or condone the edit.

Luie Cockatiel
@MusicOfLuie

I'm pretty sure I know exactly who did it too.

Tweet your reply

Luie believing that I did the edit. Also, Twitch and Sterlingfox both replied to it saying how I didn't change at all.

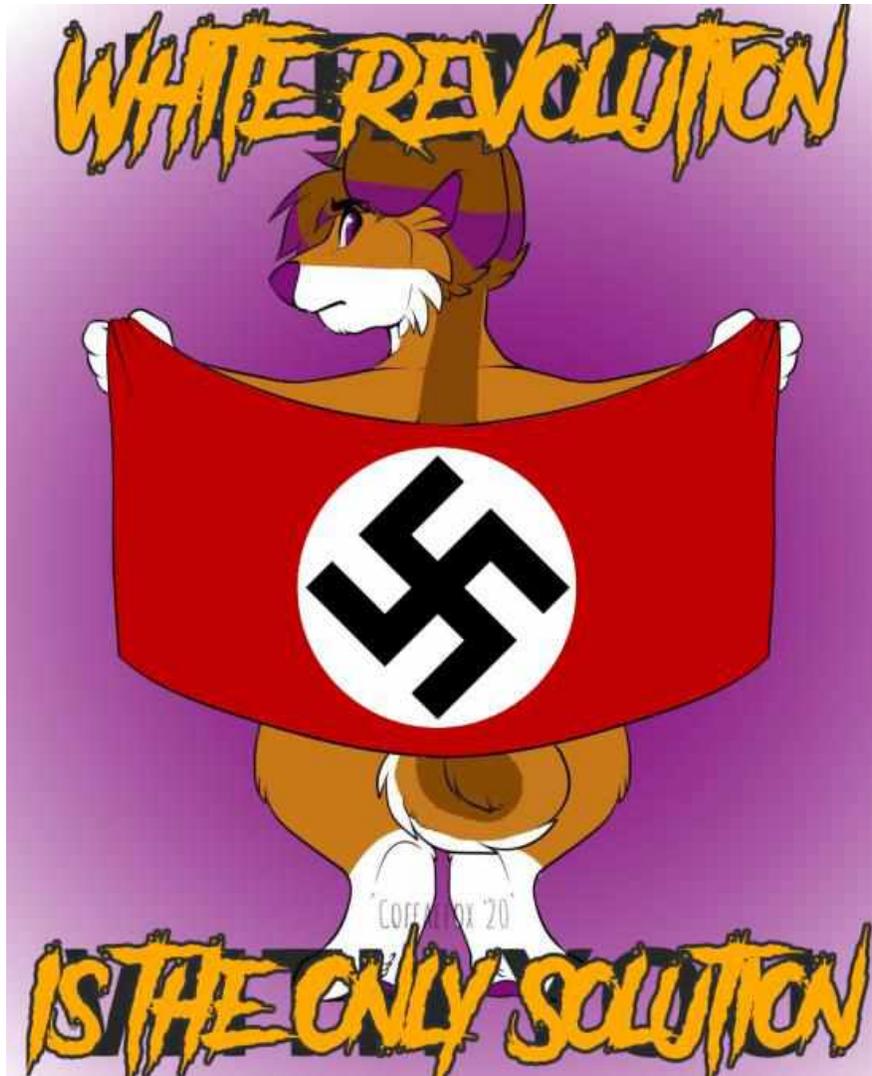

ColtFox noticed the whole thing and in shock, decided to confront me about it. He told me how he shared with DeoTasDevil (who made the post about the toon furs drawing I did) the screenshot that I was in the AntiFurry group. I replied with art in which I made fun of him when he said he's going to "Destroy me" and to my surprise, he laughed. He then went on to tell me how much of a horrible person I am and how I should be in jail/arrested for drawing hate art and being a psycho. I blamed him and the people that fucked me over for causing me to be like this and I even elaborated on it. He didn't care and talked about how I deserve death and how killing myself would be honorable. Thinking back to this, I kinda broke him down enough to wish death on me.

The picture in question. Also, I made him wear a fedora and a Natural Selection shirt because he's from Colorado and acted like Eric Harris and his "I will destroy you" quote made him look like an anime character.

As this went on, some guy tried to raid the chat and during the raid, Prey shared with me the edit to the person who made the callout on the kid.

After that, I share the guy's face to Prey and he edited a Nazi flag in it and when I shared it in the group chat, someone suggested adding a blue filter to it in which I replied asking if he wanted a fashwave aesthetic. He wanted to make it look more real to frame the guy joking in a wojack accent. I laughed and as such, the guy noticed and spazzed out on both of us. He started threatening me and talking about he'd get into bar fight and shit. I don't care and said if he wanted to fight me then go ahead. All of this spazzing stopped when I joked about black-furred furies not being able to swim.

Skylar, whose Saint Fox's punching bag, started to tweet about how she's not a Nazi since I used her pic in the DM of the guy in which Saint edited her wearing Nazi attire and room decorations. Sam, a member of AntiFurry at the time, pointed out how he can find where she is due to her bad screenshot and started to see how bad opsec she has since he could find where she lives now and her Instagram. He then laughed as Skylar started to delete her website and private everything on social media. The funny thing is that Sam and Saint are both Australians of Serbian background. As such, Skye is getting bullied from two Australian Serbs which caused her to go and hide from everything. I shared Saint the pic too and he still holds a grudge on me and I clarified that I wasn't talking to Skye but some britfag. He then decided to calm down and understand the situation now.

Sam seeing how Saint is similar wanted to contact him in which they did. They're now both friends seeing as they both have similar interests and backgrounds. If I am, to be honest here, I see Sam as a replacement for Saint Fox as they almost the same person in health conditions and beliefs and culture. I still talk to Sam sometimes in sharing furry cringe and siegeculture. I also made a lot of edits of Skye for him too.

Prey also made an edit for an anti-cop pic and believed it will cause much damages to the fandom. As I shared it on the AntiFurry group, the owner posted it on the channel, and with that, it got leaked on twitter, pissing off the original artist and terrifying the twitter users. The whole situation added more fuel to the fire. As furfags started to come in and raid the chat and shit. Some of them are from mutual chats I was in as well.

The owner decided to DM me. He told me to share the furry porn I have on my phone. I asked why and he told me to just share them. I did and with that, I shared out my toon fetishes. He leaked them to the chat and a lot of people there cringed. He also shared with me his porn and a video of someone fucking their dog. I asked if that's footage from Kero in which he responded that that's him. After all of this, I have been rewarded with the adminship for the chat.

Since both chats have members from Furies Exposed and Anti Furry Aktion, there's a conflict as the owner of Antifurry is getting exposed as a zoophile and as such, many seems to left the AntiFurry chat because of it. All of the whole raid and furry drama seems to go nonstop until someone (most likely an ACAB retard) decided to call the cyberpolice on me. There, my family got concerned that I might have to go to court again. They even sent out the screenshots with all the posts I have thinking that I'm a terror threat. I don't care as I know at this point I'm about to leave the fandom and knowing that optics don't matter to me anymore, I went on with the so-called "battle".

That is until I decided to call in quits and left the chat altogether. Sure the raids started to slow down a bit and a former moderator got mod again but I'm destined to leave the fandom at this point. When I asked how I could delete my account, I can't do it by phone but by web. At that moment, as I typed in my phone number to deactivate my Telegram, I started to rethink my purpose and decided not to delete my account. I decided to make an alt for it. After this, the whole drama died down and never to be heard of again.

The aftermath however was hilarious as some of the artists were horrified that Prey vandalized their YCH BLM flag into a Nazi flag and said the word “kike”. Some are concerned about the other artists and Luie tried to blame me for the whole thing. Either way, the lesson to be learned here for you fags is that you shouldn’t fuck with people who have nothing to lose. I was willing to have a peaceful response with you and own up to my mistake only for you spastics to go mental on me. I also would like to tell you that I wasn’t even active on those kinds of groups as I’m more active on regular furry fetish chat, now they’re all gone. All in all, if any of you who started the raid, fuck you all and I’m glad that fat fuck Mini Mike died of a heart attack. Karma’s a bitch ain’t it?

4TH OF JULY ANTHROCON

After the whole kerfuffle, I managed to be forgotten by a few and just be back on my regular life. When it was the 4th of July, Anthrocon was opening and as such, I'm able to hang out with a few peeps and watch a few streams. Little did I know that this will be the best 4th of July that I will ever experience. As I started to watch the streams, my favorite musician, Negative XP, started his stream too and we have both streamers playing the guitar. It then transitions to another furry musician as the Musician, Negative XP started to share more about music as well.

That is until it is night time and when the fireworks all over my neighborhood started firing everywhere. For those who don't know, the 4th of July is canceled and since Massachusetts treats owning fireworks to owning crack cocaine, everyone in the state of Massachusetts was like "Fuck that shit" and started firing away, making the outside of my home feel like a battlefield. All of this was happening when many furry DJs were playing their music and blasting it out. Everyone on VR chat went mental. And this lasted into the night time. Hell, even TwitchDaWoof even replied to my live comment on one of the DJ sets.

All in all, the first time at AC. It was pretty fun and the people are pretty nice too. I however miss seeing a few folks like Firr who made the AC map on VR chat. Firr is also a friend of Kitsunekit who Kitusune made much art of him. Also, I don't feel comfortable going to cons anymore because I hate being infamous among the toon furs community.

REUNITED WITH VERMY

During this time, I started to cry for Vermy. I started to have dreams of me talking to him. The last I remember of him was when he talked about how I no longer have a second chance and how disgusting I am. I see him as a father figure and would remember having fun talking to him on multiple occasions. However, I also see Foxler as one too back when I was in the Furry Raiders.

When I drew this, I thought about how the only two father figures fucked me over since I don't have a father at all.

After drawing the pic, I talked to Dirt Coyote about it and with that, he allowed me to share with him the art. He talked to me more about it and later, understands my situation. A few days later, I noticed Vermy made a thread about how some people stay in groups that later fucked them over. He then started to talk about the Furry Raiders, Altfurry, and Zootoon. What caught my eye is that he mentions giving someone a rare third chance which I guess he was referring to me.

I then started to DM him on his Twitter in which he responded surprisingly. He then told me to try not to hang out with a bunch of political and Alt-Right people. I told him everything about how I missed him and more about myself. I even shared with him some of my artwork. The last part I remember talking to him was about Luie and Taijey and how I miss them. Vermy knows that if I come close to them they're gonna be traumatized. But that's all I wish to happen in the future.

NINTENDOLOZ

During this time, I was hopeful, and seeing the cute Nintendoloz come and talked to me on Banditail's stream is pretty fun. I talked to him before and he's a very happy and fun guy if I'm honest. He asked me to talk to him more on telegram in which I agreed and spoke with him there. As I did, I started to share more about me and my sona. I also share my alternative sonas as well to him. We then discussed maybe doing a collab with his alt sona.

This all went well until he someone shared with him the callout post from Deo and the Antoon art. He immediately backed out and told me that he was in shock about what I said about Luie. I tried to reason with him and told him that I regret doing the whole vent art shit. It didn't matter. He abandoned me like the rest of the other toon furs.

Out of anger, I started to blame Jasu for this. Seeing that he made a post about this on one of Antoon's art, I assumed he was to be blamed for this. Seeing as how he also once had contact with Nintendoloz before and knew who I am with the TOONS chat, I knew he tried to fuck me up. As such, I made art trying to drown him in the dip.

Jasu upon seeing the Antoons art.

Him tweeting about me on why there's "snuff art" of me (I didn't ask for snuff by the way)

Jasu talking about me on the Livestream with Banditails.

The art in question

With me seeing how I was abandoned again, I am now left to break down. I started to cry and seeing how I was struggling, a friend of mine talked about giving me 3 options if I want to get out of this mess. Seeing as how my mental health is deteriorating, she gave me these 3 options to deal with it.

- 1. Apologize and try to get back to my past life.
- 2. Leave the fandom altogether.
- 3. Be me and not care what others think of me.

I obviously wanted option 1 but still, I can't deal with it and now someone decided to talk to me about it. He decided to call me and as such, I started to cry and I later asked if I could draw art of me murdering Nintendoloz/Ruser. He allowed it and as such, I started drawing it. I was horrified by the result of the art seeing as how I have drawn myself so vicious as I kill another innocent toon.

The art may count as a part 2 to the first pic I posted with the dip and this one has me attempting to murder someone who I felt abandoned me. I can't fucking take this anymore.

I then talk to Vermy about this. He said he can't blame Nintendoloz for this seeing as I commissioned Antoons the pic of me in the SS uniform. He then told me how I still acted the dame despite wanting to get away from the Furry Raiders. As disappointed as he is in my decisions, he hoped I one day realized my mistake and get away from all of it.

FURRY LIFE ONLINE

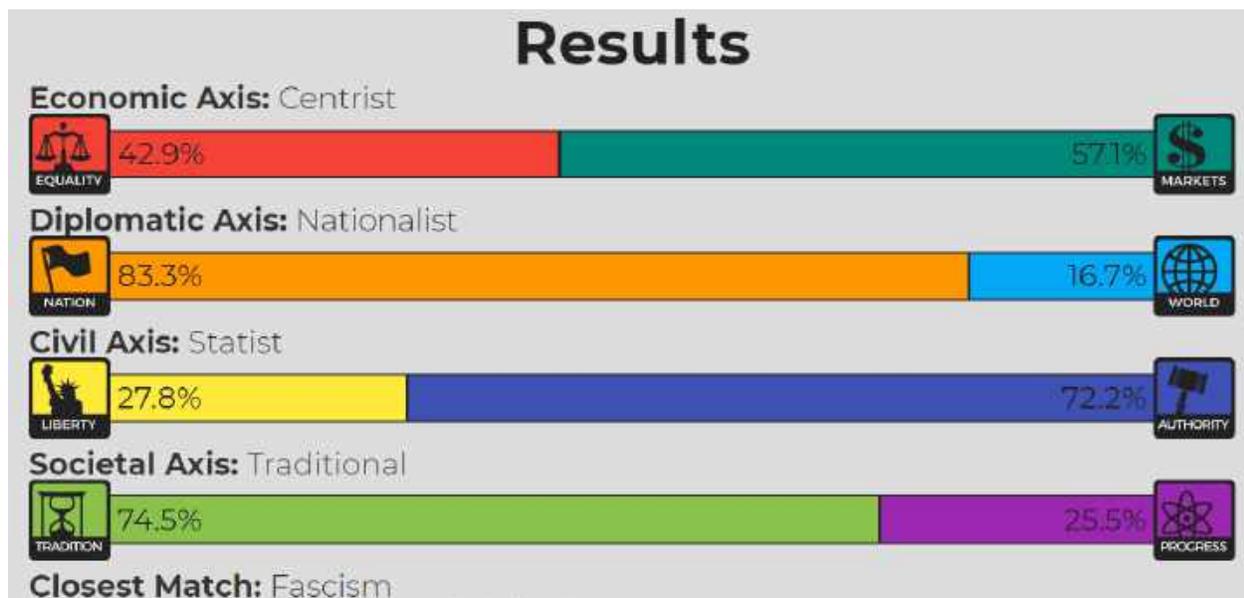

After all of this, I discovered Furry Life Online from FA after a user decided to quit the site for an alternative that banned bestiality content. As I checked the site out, it seems alright. Nothing wrong with it at all, that is until drama occurred. The first drama is based on the Nazi question in which the site allowed hate groups. Also, another question is based on feral art in which should the site allow it. To keep it short, the staff has chosen to ban all feral art and ban all right-wing content, leaving it to be an echo chamber for anthro art only. With that, I plan on uploading this manifesto to the site if I have nothing to lose and Vermy suggested that I wait until the site improves.

PRESENT DAY

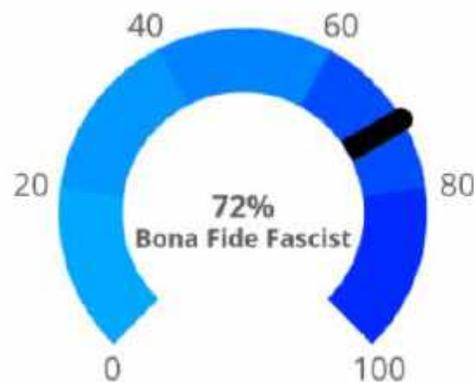

And that concludes my degeneration into madness from my life on the internet and the fandom. Taking this 2-week break from the internet is a fucking mistake. I only have gotten more radicalized and more fascistic than before. I recently got banned from FLO by DeoTasDevil

(what a surprise) so I can't post this manifesto on the site. I also started to have more anger towards many of my former friends with bad memories of my experiences with them. As I'm writing this now, I realized that Vermy has fucked up by letting me do this. I shouldn't have left the fucking internet but taking the break ironically radicalized me, even more, when I am exposed to my deep thoughts of my past.

A new test I did online showing that I'm a fascist now, rather than being a right-wing populist. No longer am I a peaceful and negotiable person. I'm now an angry and authoritative person rather than being a person for free speech. I'm ironically, just as bad as a twitter furry communist.

Fascism Test

You are 72% Fascist, which makes you a Bona Fide Fascist.

Well now. While very few people in modern Western democracies would call themselves fascists (and most of the people who are pejoratively called fascists are actually not), it would appear that you are nevertheless a true fascist. Now, whether you actually call yourself that or not we are unable to say, but the fact is that your political opinions are verifiably closer to the doctrines of fascism than they are to those of communism, socialism, conservatism, or liberalism. Among your answers, there is an unmistakable predilection for authoritative and state-centric political initiatives of which variants (or even carbon copies) may be found in the political manifestos of actual fascists. Even adjusting for happenstance and the common ground between fascism and these other political doctrines, the fact remains that you really are quite the fascist. Now whether that's a good or a bad thing we'll leave for others to decide.

For another approach to testing for fascist beliefs, see the classical F Scale Test.

f SHARE ON FACEBOOK

t SHARE ON TWITTER

c TAKE THE TEST AGAIN

The fascism increased from 60% to 70% when I last took the test.

Dark Core Personality Test

Your results:

This makes you 31.11% Darker than the average person.

The spitefulness probably shows how much of a violent person I am as it's ranked the highest.

Lastly, a roommate who I called during the Nintendoloz situation recently encouraged me to commit suicide with him seeing as how he doesn't feel like he has anything to live for anymore. This happened the moment I decided to leave the internet. I felt like leaving the internet will just fuck up everything even more. Vermy suggested joining Pokémon chats and other nonpolitical chats but seeing that I'm a popular furry now, the whole thing is useless. I might kill myself later but that would just make that kid happy. Either way, the 2020 collapse is coming soon and I have an agenda for it.

POLITICAL VIEWS

ARE YOU RACIST?

I don't consider myself racist as I hate every one of all races equally. But sometimes, other races deserve more hate in my opinion so maybe? I also believe some races can be good if they're outliers.

ARE YOU A REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT?

I'm currently registered republican because I believe in the constitution rather than democracy. As for many republicans, many of them are run by the elites and are democrats pretending to be patriotic. What I am is mostly centrist/unaffiliated. But after learning that I'm a bona fide fascist, all of this left-right shit goes out the window.

DO YOU SUPPORT GUN RIGHTS

All gun control is a false sense of security. Anybody who supports it is either misinformed or brainwashed. So yes, I do support gun rights. It's what keeps a nation safe from foreign enemies and keep our nation secure without a police state. You may say this is hypocritical since I'm a fascist but if a war is ever declared on us, civilians can be used to defend the nation and the people.

WHAT'S YOUR OPINION ON FAGGOTRY?

Faggotry is why humanity is dying. It's also the reason why great societies fall. My hatred for them extends from learning about their true agenda of legalizing omnisexuality as the slippery slope starts from gay rights to trans rights to pedo rights to incest to zoosexuality and with no law to stop this, creates a society of omnisexuality just like Sodom and Gomorrah. I recommend you read The Fag Agenda to learn more about this from Ropeculture. It also answers the homofascist question too on how there should be zero tolerance on them.

ARE YOU A NAZI/NATIONAL SOCIALIST?

No, I don't believe in many ideas of Nazi ideologues such as Atlantis existing or censoring speech and destroying historical documents. I do however believe in the idea of heritage, environmental protection, and nation's identity, and keeping our culture alive.

ARE YOU A FASCIST?

According to the test which was on the journal, it said I'm a bona fide fascist so maybe? /pol/ also taught me that true free speech is fascism.

DO YOU HATE JEWS?

I just hate people of Abrahamic religion in general. Despite it being the most popular religion in the world, they're what shaped today's society and look at the shit we're in right now. The origin of Abrahamic religion is Judaism and therefore, it must be destroyed. Most of the bible and the Quran's text comes from the Talmud. So no, I don't hate Jews UNLESS they tried to do all the stereotypical shit they have done in the past to my fascist utopia.

ARE YOU AN INCEL?

I always hated women ever since I was a kid. When I learned that I can't beat women and that they can get away with beating men gives me the idea that women have more power than men. I also live in the state of Massachusetts which the police will arrest the men because the women abused them got bruised from hitting them too hard. All while feminists asking to be paid more for the sake of being women while acting like the worst creatures on earth. I don't care about having sex because I'm mentally crippled in psychosis and Asperger's. People usually hate white women while I disagree. I hated women of all races including the Asian ones seeing as how I grew up with two Asian sisters. I don't understand how so many authoritarian right people wanted to fuck those disgusting slant eyes. We don't value women in society since they're seen as an object for the sake of keeping the human race alive.

IF YOU CAN RANK THE TYPE OF PEOPLE TO SHUT THE FUCK UP WHO WOULD BE RANKED THE HIGHEST AND WHO WOULD BE RANKED THE LOWEST? (1 BEING LOWEST, 3 BEING HIGHEST)

Oh, that's easy, here's the list:

- 1. Jews because they always get oppressed every day and everyone hates them.
- 2. Fags because not oppressed yet they bitch about not being accepted despite having a shitty attitude towards normies.
- 3. Women because they have more rights than men yet think they're oppressed. Maybe

Elliot's idea of a concentration camp for women ain't that bad.

ARE YOU GAY TOO?

To be honest, I've done some gay role-plays with my friend Aramos and we have fun doing it. But I don't consider myself gay since seeing two men kissing made me cringe (don't worry, that's a normal human reaction). Also, I plan on burning a gay flag as well as using it to wipe my ass with it. I'd probably taze myself too.

DO YOU HAVE ANY MANIFESTOS YOU RECOMMEND?

Yes and I've mentioned some on this Q&A too.
Here's the list:

- My Twisted World The Story of Elliot Rodger
By Elliot Rodger
- The Fag Agenda By Ropeculture
- The Great Replacement By Brenton Tarrant

YOU RACIST, SEXIST, MYSOGYNISTIC FURRY
RAIDER BASTARD! LEAVE MY FRIENDS ALONE OR ELSE I WILL DESTROY YOU, YOU DEGENERATE NAZI SCUM!!!

1. Complements will get you nowhere.

2. That isn't a question.

3. False. Here's some real news for you: I'm sad to report that your daddy turned gay years ago after looking at your mom's blown out beef curtains that smelled like hot garbage meets fish. He told me not to tell you this, but he said it only started stinking after you plowed her hole lose while you were being birthed. That's why he called you "little shit" as a child. He went on to say that he rather swallow semen from trans men instead of smelling your mom's septic tank of a pussy and being in the company of you... That's why he ran away and never looked back ;-) Last year he offered me $100 to suck me, but I kicked his teeth out instead.

4. YOU WANNA FIGHT ME NIGGER? I'LL TEAR YOU APART!!! DON'T FUCK WITH ME YOU LITTLE NIGGER FUCK!!! DIEEEEEEE!!!!!!

VIEWS ON THE FANDOM

DO YOU HATE THE FANDOM?

With what they've done to me? Yes.

IF YOU HATE THE FANDOM SO MUCH WHY STAY?

I stayed in the fandom to be around my friends and in art as well. I don't plan on leaving since I tried so many times. Also only pussies leave. Real men stay and fight and that's what I'm gonna do to the fandom.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO BE A POPUFUR?

Back then, I see being an influence in the fandom is a good thing and with that, I thought about getting into being a furry YouTuber with a fursuit too. I thought the whole popufur scene is too tame and too “play it safe” so I thought maybe I should be an edgy popufur to spice things up a bit and make it more exciting. Maybe from music or art could help it but I dream of being a furry musician that DJs music in a Splatterhouse-like scene or play some intense digital hardcore rock.

DO YOU THINK MAINSTREAMING THE FANDOM IS A GOOD OR A BAD THING?

Bad thing mainly because I think it's a mistake since we wouldn't have had this problem if the fandom is stayed as a subculture and not brought to the public. Now that so many celebs are getting into the fandom (i.e. Milo, Lil Nas X) it ruins what makes the fandom good.

WHAT ARE YOUR FETISHES?

- Toon
- Snuff

HOW WOULD YOU FIX THE FANDOM?

Like most tragedies, they help reunite people. 9/11 made democrats and republicans unite and the Red Lake Massacre fixed the native community there. If something were to happen in the fandom that's so tragic that they help both unite the left and right of the fandom that would be great. Other tragedies like Kero and the furry murders aren't enough as they caused a divide. What needs to happen is a furry holocaust, and I will claim responsibility for it, either from mass shootings or death camps.

INDIVIDUAL FURRY “THANK YOU S AND FUCK YOU S”

LUIE COCKATIEL

Ever since I knew you from 2014, I always wanted to get art from you. Also, aren't you a former MFL suitor as well. When you came back to the internet, I was so happy and finally got art from you, only to be fucked over because I was an Alt Fur at the time. You blocked me without letting me compromise. I never wanted to harm you, just wanted to be your mutual. But after sending me to court, nearly ruining my life, and making a callout post on me, I would like to say this to you, you want me to improve or not be a fucking Nazi? Then FUCKING TALK TO ME THEN YOU STUPID FUCKING DYKE. Seriously, none of this would've ever had happened if we spoke.

Rather than fucking abandoning me like this. I'd spare you in my fascist utopia but in the end, you nearly ruined my life, and therefore, you must be punished for it seeing as you got popufurs and everyone supporting you while I have nobody.
Disgusting Diaperfag.

DCLAWYCAT/TAIJEY

Aren't you a fucking teacher? How the fuck can you be so emotional like this when I all I did was draw a shitty sketch of you being in chains? I mean for fuck sake I'm still in school at the time, I'm not even a college kid yet and you treated me like this. Is that how you treat your fellow students at your school when they draw art like this? All in all, I'm glad your neckbeard boyfriend broke up with you and troon out while you live life as a lonely asexual virgin. Hope you die when the next school shooter enters your class once the lockdown is over and finish what the other one has failed.

VERMILLION X. FOX "VERMY"

For everything I've done, for all I did, I failed you. All I wanted was to be a toon villain. I never wanted to be an actual Nazi. However, all I can say is that you did try to help me go back to a normal furry life but all of which are hopeless. You told me about your story with your uncle and how bad it is being around him. All I can say is this, I know that white supremacists will use others for them to go to jail or do criminal acts. I, however, believe in something worse, and actual fascist party in which we will unite and create a society based on my vision to preserve true freedom. I know this might not work well with you but it's all I have left. I always see you as a father figure and someone who sees something interested in me. As such, you kinda gave me the will to live but I felt it won't last long since you encouraged me to take this damn break, all of which radicalized me into an actual fascist. I will miss you, Vermy.

ORLANDOFOX

As for you Orlando, you're always mature for your age, even back when you were on Pawpets. When you found out about my actions and vent art, I know it hurts seeing how I acted during the whole toon furs incident. However, you and Vermy are the sanest and understanding out of the so-called "victims" of the hate art. However, even if you did hope the best for me, I'm still in pain and as such, never got the chance to show everyone that I improve as a person for the sake of you feeling more comfortable.

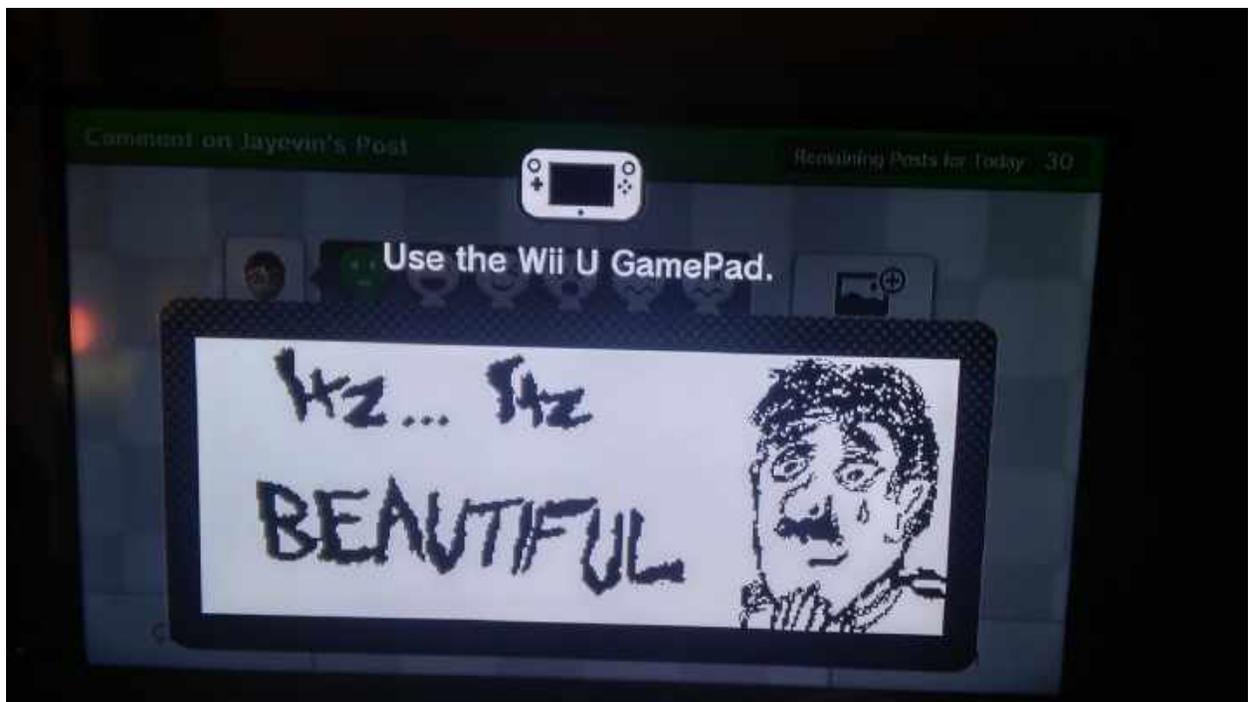

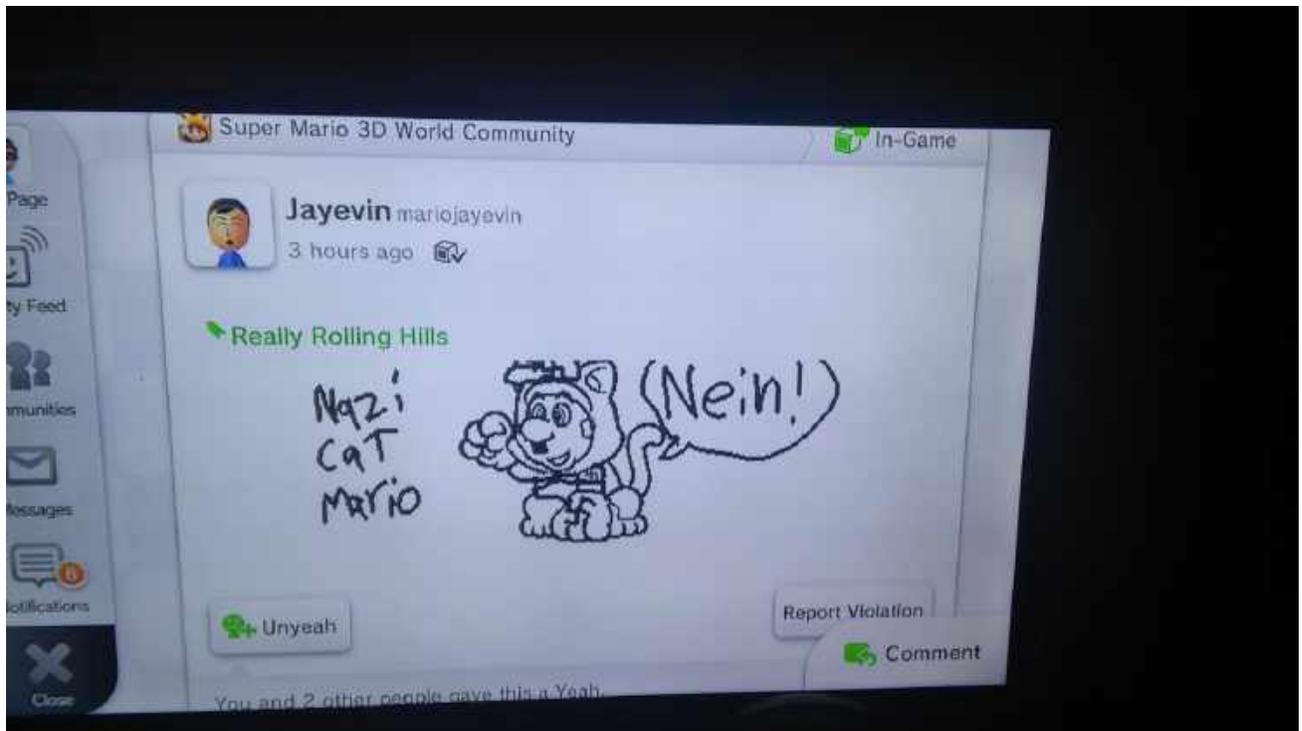

BLEUXWOLF

I remember you told me that you refused to do the commission of me killing off my sona. You talked to me about it and how you felt the vent art kinda scared the people away. I have to agree and you gave me a reason to keep Toony. With all that, I have to thank you for trying to save me from hurting myself and I hope the best for you too.

SNOWTHEFOX

Well then, remember the time you drew Hitler in a kid's social media called Miiverse? You claim you did "fucked up things in the past" and does this count? I even remember your ex-girlfriend even liked the tweet. And now trooned out, kinda funny if you think about it. In all seriousness, kill yourself. If you hate Nazis so much and think you're better than them, why draw this pic? And don't tell me that you "changed" during these 4 years because you're just trying to fit in with the crowd rather than be a fucking individual. That's why you trooned out

You don't get to bitch about Nazifurs when you liked shit like this you furnigger.

STERLINGFOX

Another Florida fur I see, you think I never changed after seeing me struggle to get back respect only to be spat on? Fuck you, you never helped me when everyone piled on me on Orlandofox's Telegram chat. And now you talked about how I never "changed" when your diaper buttbuddy Luie made a callout post on me and I supposed to act like I should take it when she tried to destroy my reputation even further when I'm rebuilding it.

ZILCH

You made me infamous as your fucking tweet is the top result when googling "toon furs". You're a fucking popufur who still bothered with shit you don't need to be dealt with and you fucking treated me like shit rather than ask me what went wrong.

TWITCHDAWOOF

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? We'll make amends.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? Music's easy we can do it together.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? Thought senpai be fucking you.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend?

I saw you in Anthrocon Stream's live chat.

You replied to my chat so.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? We'll make amends.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? You have massive toony eyes

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? Hey Twitch can I be your friend?

Hey Twitch answer my questions please?

Your new suit's kinda cute.

Please don't leave me behind.

Hey Twitch can I be your friend? Wanna answer my fucking questions?

Hey Twitch can I be your friend?

SKRITCH

I'm sorry for everything. I truly am. All I wanted was to be back with the toon furs and my old friends back. Now I'm back to being isolated again, with nothing to help me. I know we had fun talking to each other and I got back with Vermy too. But I just can't deal with this anymore.

DIRT COYOTE

Heh, if I were to know better that you're a toon fur, I'd talk to you more. I'm legitimately surprised you're libertarian despite being from the bay area. Anyways, I kinda want to say that if you did show Vermy my struggle with being back with him, thank you, thanking for helping me be back with someone who cared for me. Despite our bad outcomes, we came back.

DEOTASDEVIL

If you expect me to go all out on you, I won't since you do happen to be mostly reasonable when I talked to you. I honestly do think you're a nice person and sometimes honest despite being one of the most hated furies in the fandom. Given that you learned about the Nazi atrocities from your grandparents, I understand your struggle and keeping the fandom pure. I also wanted to talk about your old suit since I kinda like the toony style of it and it's kinda sad that not many people are into toons these days.

FOXLER

I should hate you since you got into legal trouble for child abuse and left me for spazzing out but back when I was a kid, I kinda want to join a group of Nazifurs since I was an edgy kid back then. I understand why you have to abandon me to protect the group and such but back in 2018, I saw you as a father figure similar to Vermy. I also remember you kinda help me calm down back when I wasn't well back then. Despite you want me to be back in the Raiders and so many members missing me, I can't go back. It's time for me to move on and be my true self. But thank you for everything.

SKYE

So much for being a punching bag for two wogs, I never even care for or have any interest in making fun of you. You seem like a happy fursuit maker and just because I'm involved in your hater's death threats doesn't mean I support it. I do however understand your frustrations and trying to be safe but you're kinda popular and knowing a person who once commissioned you was one of Saint's friends is how you got caught in this mess.

WILL MOFIELD

When I first met you on Discord, I felt like it was my chance to prove myself worthy of being a toon again. I don't hate you seeing as you do like me and my art. You even thanked me when I tried to commission you too. I also understand why you have to remove me from your group after seeing my history. Even though it hurt me, I still need to let it go. But I will miss you, however.

BANDITAILS

As you're reading this, I can't lose you, as of right now, you're one of a few toons who still treat me as a person and not abandon me. Just know that without you, I will have nothing to lose.

JASU

I remember you're the first person to talk to me in the TOONS chat. You even greeted me too and seeing that you're able to do that shows that you're a good toon to hang out with. When you probably found out about the whole toons furs incident, I guess that's when you start to think differently of me. All I can say is that you're another person that fucked me over and therefore, you must be punished in my fascist regime.

NINTENDOLOZ

When I first met you, you've always been a cute guy. I even think your sona Ruser is cute too, very cute to be honest. When I finally get to see you again and finally got a chance to talk to you and share out all my sonas with you, I was happy and excited. Things all went well until you chose to leave me in the fucking dust like everyone else. When you gave up the collab and left me, do you know how much you hurt me? Hurt me so much that I have to draw art of Toony killing Ruser? I never wanted this to happen and I never wanted to hurt Luie or you but the moment you left me is when I had enough and end up crying because of this. Please come back!

WEREWUSKY

You have a fucking problem with me fucker? Then fucking OD like you did last time. I don't give fuck if you die when the moment you try to get me banned off of FA and other sites. You hate Nazifurs and think they're as bad as real Nazis and Neo-Nazis? Then why won't you go after old Disney and Warner Brothers cartoons that feature Nazis too? I fucking helped you when you OD and this is how you repay me because you can't tell the difference between fictional and real Nazis? Also, you tried to get me canceled and tried to put me on a list of people to be avoided. Fuck you, I hope you OD again and die this time. You deserve it, shithead. That or get decapitated cartel member along with your sister/cousin Mia.

DRAYGO

You too shithead, you have an issue with me? Then FUCKING TALK TO ME ABOUT IT. Isn't it easy? Rather than try to make a god damn callout post on me. Be reasonable about it then. If you addressed the problem to me then I will consider changing my behavior rather than let myself self destruct.

RICK

This is how you treat your people? You fucking abandon them because they like something you don't? Yeah, get fucked and I know about your cub and bimbo fetish you disgusting nigger. I fucking helped you when you're struggling to be with your dysfunctional family and this is how you repay me? If I ever become a fascist leader, I would have you be executed and raped by gay niggers since you hate them both despite being one yourself.

MACHINEHEAD

You threw your friends under the bus because he doesn't fit your ideology, so much for being a caring person. Also, I know you're a fake retard when you said you would be reasonable but spazzed out at when I say a bunch of wignat shit. You know, maybe you getting doxxed by a bunch of Nazis ain't that bad seeing that you get what you fucking deserve after leaking my court doc and throwing your friends under the damn bus and laughing about it. All in all, get AIDS you filthy faggot caveman headed mutt.

MITSUMUTT

You fucking abandoned me over a callout post rather than confront me about it. Is that what you do to your fellow soldier's air force vet? Abandoning someone because someone said so? Knowing you have a fear of gore possibly due to PTSD, I'd strap you in a chair clockwork orange style just to watch violent and gory movies UNLESS you have me back. Other than that I will spare you for now.

KITSUNEKIT

Back then, even before the whole vent art situation, I saw your art and wished to commission you someday. During the whole vent art situation, I didn't bother going into your birthday stream because I was scared. Well, I guess you found out about me and the whole vent art incident that happened a year ago. I forgive you for understanding that I need help but I can never forgive you for trying to isolate me even further than before when you tried to spread the word about me.

FURRYMASTER15/ANTHONYTONEY

I never liked you in the first place. Spazzing out over me when I made fun of you and trying to get a restraining order on me too, all while you want to fuck me. You're disgusting for sending nudes to fucking strangers and you want to be fucking obese and look at your mental health now, fucking depressed and shit. Disgusting mutt.

AIDEN ORTEGA

How does it feel to tell everyone how I'm such a horrible person after praising me for being in your group and be happy about it? You're just like the rest of the fandom who abandons each other with no context or proof and left me to be alone; furthering me down the downward spiral. How's the wall of text I showed you that you never replied huh? Shows how much you suddenly stop caring about me the moment you found me be in a group chat that you don't like.

BRUISER

As much flack as you've gotten, I don't hate you despite your hatred for whites and conservatives. I know you were at the age of 15 and don't know any better and you were reasonable when you DMed me on telegram. However, you pretending to be against Bad Dragon and be an edgy person shows dishonesty as you were into them back then and I think you sexually role-playing as a minor is wrong too. But I'll spare you for now.

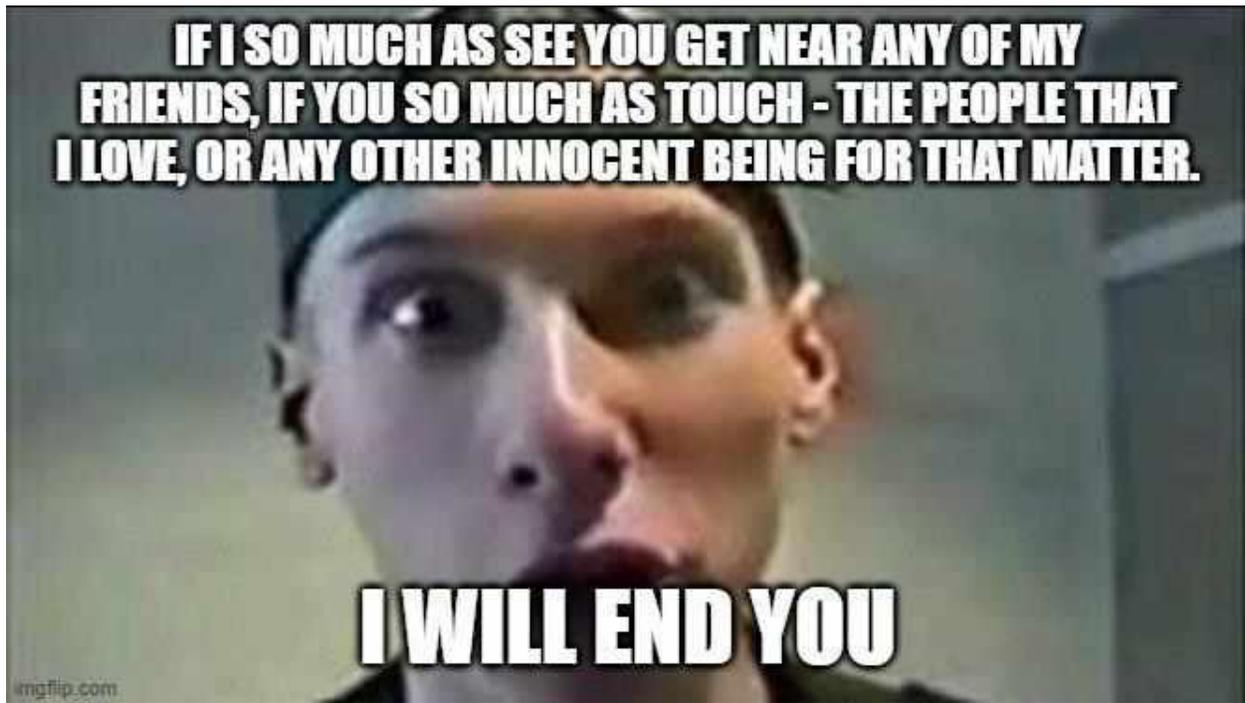

COLTFOX

"I will destroy you you understand me?" - Coltfox

For once, I remember thinking you're an adult back in Orlandofox's discord server talking about going to MFF someday. It's funny that all changed when I wasn't in my proper mental state and lashed out against Orlando and Luie. Let me tell you this, how would you feel if Orlando decided to no longer do any commissions with you anymore all of a sudden and told you it's because of your taboo fetish or interest and block you after getting so many arts from her. That's how I feel when Luie decided to no longer do art with me. And you treated it as if I were out to fucking murder them despite not knowing the damn context to the whole situation. That art I drew for you should be the only pride you got since you do seem to act like Eric Harris with the threats and shit and telling me it's honorable for me to an hero. But I'm not going to do it for you seeing as you would cheer on an innocent troubled toon kill himself would be fucked up and I'd like to see you try to fight me. Anyways, If I were in the same school as you are, would you shoot up your school since you're from Colorado?

Actual quote from you, doesn't this seem eerily similar?

JOKAMI

I don't know who the fuck you are or why you want to message in the first place in Telegram but yeah, you're just another kid who I wish shouldn't be in the fucking fandom.

ARAMOS FROST

Oh man, I know you struggle with many things too. Being in the fandom and such and how things in the fandom made you wanna quit due to how awful it is. I feel the same too with how the whole fandom is trying to attack each other politically. Rather than trying to deal with this like adult, they chose to rip on each other. You however decided to care and ask questions and are even concerned for me. I mean, even though I wasn't in the right mind back then, you did try to help me. All in all, thank you for everything.

OTHERS WHO ARE NOT LISTED/NORMIES

Thank you all for supporting me through all of this. I would like to thank you all for all the good memories you all have with me. You all know who you are!

For those who fucked me over, let just say that you all are gonna be punished once I become a dictator and rule over you all. And it's not going to be pretty I tell you. You all know who you are too.

POSSIBLE FUTURE

IF THE COLLAPSE HAPPENS

JOINING AWD ADJACENT GROUPS

With how divided America has become, the cities will become a super communist state thanks to the college indoctrination so I will have to learn to survive in the woods in a rural area with building cabins and shit. As this goes on, an underground extreme right will rise and prepare to strike, targeting power plants. Once the power plants are destroyed either from sabotage or an EMP blast, I join an underground accelerationist group adjacent to the extreme right group and wait out for the government to spend time controlling the cities as ongoing riots and civil unrest continues (just like now as I'm writing this). After the police and the military spend all their resources, we strike and take over the city by force. Once we take over then one of the groups will be picked the leader for ruling a destroyed America.

BECOME A DICTATOR AND CREATING A FASCIST REGIME

If I get elected or picked for leadership, here's how I would create my fascist regime/utopia. The people of African American descent will go through a rigorous education system to boost their IQ and the one with the highest score will be rewarded gibs. The African American must be of an American slave descendant to have this rewarded to them. As for the failures, they will be rewarded free girlfriends to have offsprings and have them participate in this program. Each school in the Nigger zone will be required to do this to raise the IQ of them. The location of the Nigger zone will be the bible black belt and have their form of government.

Another plan for my Fascist regime is to get rid of international bankers and be our own governed state and not waste our money or be bribed from the bankers. Our government will be powered by a leader doing his best for his civilians and be strong and powerful. There will be no democracy as democracy only cause divide and hurt the minority. We will operate on a system similar to that of a monarchy. Lastly, the fascist system will have no foreign aid for many countries as it will fuck up the foreign countries and create a bigger issue rather than letting them fix it themselves.

As for making my regime into a utopia, everyone will get free girlfriends from a system similar to that of a dating site. Our money and research will be used to make Anthros real and will only be tested on prisoners. Speaking of prisoners, the prison system will be similar to that of Superjail! and so if there were a concentration camp to exist, they would be sent there. Miscegenation is outlawed to preserve all races and the Native Americans will have their land for the sake of keeping their culture and heritage.

Faggotry is outlawed and those who practice gay sex will be sent to the superjail to get raped by the opposite sex if the fag raped a straight person. The infant will then be raised by the government in secret as a soldier for the government. The gender dysphoric will get treated mentally and monitored for any suicidal behavior until the government finds a treatment for the dysphoric episodes. Promoting homosexual ideology and behaviors will be punishable and be taught the history of homosexuality and how it wrecked culture and society. There will be gay conversion therapy for those who came out of the closet.

The economy will be a free market and have little regulation unless it causes environmental harm or harm to the individual. The market will not be consumerist to prevent the age of weakening men and the people will keep their traditions to pass on to their young. We will not accept foreign trades unless they are willing to be peaceful with it and agree to our standards. As for pollution, it will be buried in the deepest desert in America with the unreusable plastics. Other pollutions such as metal and glass and bio-wastes will be recycled like every other recycling in the world.

As for women's roles, they will be trained to be traditional housewives. As the man comes home to help the woman, the woman will stay home to help the kids. Kids will be raised in public schools to teach them life skills and will be taught to be strong. Family traditions are to be taught in the family as well as discipline. Women can't work in a man's job like labor but they can work as a maid or a janitor and chef.

As for the environment, it must be protected at all costs. We will develop a new system for green living and natural living. Such as rebuilding cities to keep their historic buildings but create new environmentally friendly buildings. Our forest must be protected at all costs and hunting is required for population control on invasive species. That way, the rural area can be peaceful.

As for the criminals, they will be punished in the superjail and the jail will have a hierarchy of punishment from victimless crime to harsh criminality. The victimless crime will be reformation while the dangerous and destructive crime will result in torture and possible execution. The super jail will be so big it will be like living on campus. People there live in ranks of good behavior and will work in death camps getting rid of our foreign spies and hardened criminals. Speaking of which...

POSSIBLE GENOCIDE

For the race traitors, rioters, niggers, spics, chinks, kikes, and people funding the whole destruction of America, you will be punished. The people who fucked me over too will get the worst punishment. As such, I have plans for genocide as well, and it will be fucking brutal. The punishment will go from simple imprisonment to downright torture and it will be similar to 1984. So let's begin.

The people who bought down the United States will be punished and they won't get away with it. For their torture, they must face 6 months of torture before execution. After that, their remains will be fed to animals. If the records still exist or survive the EMP, we can track down the person's history and send them to the camp. The camp will be located underground beneath the superjail.

As for the people who fucked me over, I will say that they will suffer personal torture from their biggest fears. We will interrogate them and after that, torture them like room 101. Their torture will last for a year and all of them will have their cremated body dumped in a cesspool. For civilians who committed heinous crimes, they will be forced to work in the camp forever. That, or face execution. Also, Elliot Rodger's vision of his death camp will apply too as punishment for women who lied about being raped.

IF EVERYTHING'S THE SAME AFTER 2020

LIVING LIFE NORMALLY

If I get to live life like a normal person after 2020, I might get back to the fandom and be myself again. However, don't expect me to be the same as I am this year as I'm less tolerant and aggressive towards people now.

GETTING A FIREARM

As of next year, I'm turning 21, I'm getting a firearms permit for conceal carry and if the police want to deny me, they better have a good reason other than my troubled teenhood. I'm getting a permit in my state since they allow carry in Texas, unlike Maine which doesn't allow that. If I got denied, I will sue the police department.

MOVE OUT OF STATE

After getting the permit, I will leave the state of Massachusetts and move back to Maine and live in a cabin there. I will not go back to a state that treats its citizens like idiots and tax us to oblivion for corrupt politicians.

IF MY LIFE IS BACK ON TRACK

GOING BACK TO FURCONS

I will return to furcons once they reopen and meet some new friends there. I will probably promote my art and twitch channel if I got the chance to and therefore, live a happy and better life.

GET A FURSUIT

If MoreFurLess managed to let me have a suit from them again, then I will get the suit. No bullshit or any family issue, I will pay for the fursuit and live my life normally and back on track.

BECOME A BIGGER POPUFUR

Once I got the suit from MoreFurLess, I will try to become a popufur and make a living of my life being a person of furry fame as I now own the fandom. Making it what I wanted it to be.

IF MY LIFE GETS WORSE

GOING TO JAIL/MENTAL INSTITUTION

If I ever give up on life, I'd be in jail and probably in a mental hospital right now for committing a crime. I don't want to give up yet but this is a possible future given if this manifesto is released to the public and have everyone saw it thinking that I'm a threat to society and people.

POSSIBLE DEATH

IF I DIE BEFORE 2020

For those reading this, release this to the public as a final statement if I die. If it's from a suicide, make this my suicide note.

IF I MANAGE TO GET A FURSUIT

I will Livestream my death. Playing The Caretaker – Everywhere At The End Of Time as I watch the camera while wearing my fursuit. As the whole album ends, I will blow my fucking brains out with a shotgun on camera in the suit.

IF FURCONS REOPENS

I will Livestream the mass shooting as I at first, bomb the furcon with a Ryder truck as I dive-bomb into the venue and after that, then snipe down everyone in there. If I could make it out alive, I could do it again or have a team do it but in the end, I most likely gonna die from a police shootout, suicide, or be executed by the government. As for the rampage, I might fail this and end up being an embarrassment like Vance Stone or finish this and become an hero to the internet as I manage to score so high on exterminating furies. This is how I'm going to avenge Vance stone. With this song playing when I'm doing the massacre as well as other hardcore techno songs.

Mono für Alle! - Amoklauf

Heute halte ich es nicht mehr aus
Mit einer Waffe verlasse ich das Haus
Mein Herz schlägt etwas schneller als normal
Denn ich weiß, die Folgen sind fatal
Ich werde von euch gehen am heutigen Tag
Doch nicht allein – nein, das ist nicht meine Art
In diesem Magazin sind sechzehn Schuss
Und ich weiß genau, was ich damit machen muss...

Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei...
Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei drauf!

An irgendeinem Platz, wo viele Leute sind
Egal ob Alte, Kranke oder Frauen mit Kind Schieße ich einfach in die Menge rein
Die Menschen sind entsetzt und sie fangen an zu schreien
Direkt vor mir stirbt ein Mann
Und dort liegt eine Frau, die sich nicht mehr bewegen kann
Ihr kleines Kind, das ängstlich schaut
Versteht noch nicht: Ich hab sein Leben soeben versaut...

Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei...
Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei drauf!

Tatütata – da kommt die Polizei
Sie haben für Leute wie mich Spezialisten dabei Ein Psychologe redet auf mich ein Dass das nichts bringt und ich soll doch vernünftig sein
Er weiß nicht, dass er mich damit provoziert
Ich habe doch selber mal Psychologie studiert
Sein Gequatsche regt mich nur noch auf
Ich drücke ab und schieße ihm in den Bauch...

Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei...
Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei drauf!

Endlich wird das SEK gebracht
Dass das solange dauert, hätte ich niemals gedacht
Die Scharfschützen beziehen Position
Jetzt wird es ernst und zack – da passiert es auch schon
Ein Schuss hat mich an meinem Bein erwischt
Doch den Schützen treffe ich selber mitten in sein Gesicht
Der grüne Anzug färbt sich langsam rot
Ein Mann vom SEK ist auf der Stelle tot...

Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei...
Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei drauf!

Mit letzter Kraft hab ich's geschafft
Einsam sitze ich in einem Belüftungschacht
Hab große Schmerzen, doch ich mache kein Geschrei
Mein Leben zieht wie ein Film an mir vorbei
Eine Träne läuft über mein Gesicht
Wie konnte das passieren? – Ich weiß es nicht
Eine letzte Kugel hab ich noch
Peng! – dadrück ich ab und ich schieße mir in den Kopf

Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei...
...
Amoklauf, Amoklauf – Menschenleben gehen dabei drauf!

IF THE COLLAPSE DID HAPPEN

I might die in a shootout in a battle or an assassination attempt during the collapse. As such, let this manifesto be my memory and legacy.

ENDGAME/EPILOGUE

You may notice that I may have contradicting views when writing this or how I'm a hypocrite for treating others who fucked me over but rest assured that the purpose for me writing this manifesto is to show my struggle on the internet life and the furry fandom. As I realized that leaving the fandom only helps damages me more and pushing me towards a fascist mindset. To be honest, being on twitter with centrist shitposters helped me calm down and laugh at certain situations as it makes me forget about the modern world. As for now, I'm almost done with this manifesto, and with that, my two-week internet break is almost over and I hope Vermy remember me for who I am and not forget about me once I return to twitter. I will not release this manifesto to the public UNLESS I have nothing to lose, and I believe I still have a chance left to get back with everyone. However, thinking back, I am in a way very similar to Jeff the real killer. I'm saying this not just in appearance but in behavior and interests too (Nazism, Satanism, Goth, taking Prozac, art). I am not Jeff, but I am slowly turning into him as I am being pushed to the edge. As for this journal/manifesto/diary, I might get it to publish someday once I get an editor to rework this, or I might edit it myself since I have 2 days left. Anyways, if anyone happens to reads this, I hope you follow my ideas or inspire you to make my fascist utopia a reality or write something based off my my internet life. With that being said...
