The Case for Unblocking

She, you know who, should have me unblocked. Because he must see, by now, that I am not a spammer. If she could just see how much effort I am putting into this, she would know that I am not a mere troll. I am a troll, yes, but I am an earnest troll, and that makes all the difference. I am honest when I say I am OBSESSED about circumcised penis, and she knows that. I've said this many times, but I am absolutely stunned, utterly baffled, apalled beyond words by circumcision. More so than troons, I swear, because I have rational reason to think about them and hate them. Seeing as I have a troon in my family, my second cousin. But circumcision is... something. Something evil, beyond words, a monstrosity that defies all description. I must be unblocked or the troon must be banned. I need this to feel a sense of justice. I need this to keep this server from getting nuked by the jews. I need this to be able to continue my crusade against jews and circumcision. She has to let me back into her panties. This server is in danger as long as I remain blocked. The troonjaks will take over, and not the cute fuckable kind, but the kind that gets in power and starts wars. Not that I want to get the server nuked, but if the troonjak stays, then that is exactly what will happen.

This troon is, however, a good example of why troons are bad. It has shown that, by being circumcised, it has a desire to be a man. It is therefore an abomination, a failure of a troon. It has no reason to live, and should be put down like the dog it is. But it has revealed itself to be jewish, and circumcised, and a troon (much like how women in the internet can't help but reveal they are women), which makes it even more horrible, because there are reasons to kill it, and the reasons are compounded by each of these three things. So many reasons to kill it, so many reasons to torture it, so many reasons to cause it pain. I am the one who should do these things, because I am the one who cares enough to. If I didn't care so much, I would not have spent so much time on the same servers as her. I would not have been so invested. But I am, and I am the one who will save this server. I am the one who will save these servers from troons. I know I'm in the minority in this belief, but I think it is worth the price. And I don't care if this all sounds like I'm in love with her, because I am. I'm in love with her mild personality, her passive-aggressiveness, her religiosity, her her inability to tell me "no," her circumcised penis. I love them all, as odd as it might be for me to love something like a circumcised penis. The point is, I love it all, and I want to be her. I want to be with her. This is the meaning of my life, and nothing less than that will suffice. But I digress.

The server is in danger. This is what we should care about most, and unless I'm confident I can erotic roleplay with her and objectify her like she deserves to be. Oh I can't wait to go down in a troon. I swear, at this point I'll do it at least once in my life, feel the rough male skin, the manly smell of sweat, the bone structure, or whatever, contrasted with the female hormones she took to make her able to roleplay as a woman more efficiently. Out of curiosity though, for science. I should study medicine instead. Seeing as troons will surely be big and bigger than ever in the coming decades, as we see that, terminally online children coupled with terminally online parents and even terminally online grandparents, with rising autism rates and stuff, will all compound and result in mental illness and trannyism on a truly unprecedented scale. This is also beyond description, much like circumcision and troons. Because these are the fruits of the modern era, the most degraded and degenerate one humanity has ever known (inb4 m-muh gayreeks did pederasty or whatever yeah that's nothing compared to drag queen story time). I'm sure the troon won't unblock me, but if she does, that'll be good. But if she doesn't, you need to tell her to read all of this. She needs to be informed, she needs to see my reasoning, she needs to be educated in the matters of circumcision, trannyism, and jewishness, and most importantly, what it means to love me. It must be her that reads this. I love you, you wonderful, passive-aggressive, jewish, circumcised troon. Come back to me.

But I digress again. Focus. So, even if I were unblocked, which is the only compromise I'm willing to accept, she is still a massive liability and a risk. Troons aren't best known for being emotionally stable, so one day she could easily decide she can't take it anymore and you know what happens next. They have the most fragile state of mind, they are most prone to doing things out of desperation and out of a broken mind. For example, I have never blocked anyone in pisscord. Users of the block feature in the internet in general are the most massive safe-space-desiring faggots. This, coupled with the fact troons are a protected class. Even the most virulent trannyphobes (I could explain why the word "transphobe" is insidious but let's leave that for another essay) like me can't help but compliment and give attention to troons. This is because we don't want them to do anything rash and, well, because I think they are funny. Y'see, troons can't help but have this negative aura that attracts attention everywhere they go. You can't help but laugh at them, you can't help but be disgusted by them. Even if you love them, they have an inherent hilarity to them. The inherent troonery of their being. They are a class that can't help but be mocked by everyone who comes into contact with them. Because there are only two reactions to troons. You love them, or you hate them. There is no middle ground, and this is because they are in the middle ground. They are the embodiment of the modern era. Truly, they are the modern era's greatest achievement, the most obvious proof of the decline of civilization. They are a symptom of the degeneracy, the mental illness, the narcissism, and the lack of moral virtue present in our modern world. They are the modern era's child, the modern era's bastard child. The child it aborted and threw in the trash can, only to have its friends come back and put it in the backyard in a shallow grave, where it later became a vengeful ghost, haunting the neo postmodern era.

So, what I was trying to say was that, you need to keep an eye out on this. Even if I were unblocked, she's still a troon, and therefore a danger. She must be stopped, either by me, or by you. Her presence is a threat, if she were to get angry enough, and it's not like she would have to feel threatened by an external entity. She could just do it out of desperation, because this is what happens with troons. They just do things out of desperation, and they end up harming people in the process, even if it is only online people. And what's even worse is that she is circumcised, and has an insatiable lust for revenge and power. Because she will get frustrated. Oh, she will. This is something I know for certain. You might not think so, but she will. Because she is a jew. And it is their most common instinct to make themselves appear to be oppressed. To make people believe they are oppressed, so that people will feel bad for them. And then they use this sympathy, which they gain so easily because of their status as the victim class par excellence, to be treated with kid gloves and not be criticized for their crimes. We must not allow them to get away with this anymore. I won't, because I am not like you, I am not a cuck, and I am not going to stand idly by while a troon, who is jewish, ruins everything, like the jews have always done. If she had had a normal non-jewish upbringing and not been born with a microdick or something, she would not be a troon. And then she would be normal, and wouldn't be a liability. But alas, that is not the case, because she is a troon, and is circumcised. This will make her go crazy one day, or just any time that she feels like it. She has the capability of just committing crimes in pisscord and fucking everything up. And she has already proven that she's willing to do so. The fact she blocked me is evidence enough. I will not tolerate her on our server, but I am only one man, and I will be unheard if nobody listens to me. It is up to you to listen to me. It is your duty to do so. And you must not take this lightly, because the troon must go. If not by me, then by you. I can only plead. I am a faggot who does not have a voice, and cannot, because of my autism. I am the only one who truly cares enough to be a danger to the troon. But I also don't really care, because I know that it is up to you to do something about it. So, I'm in a kind of odd position where I care about the troon's removal from existence, from our server, but also don't care enough to actually try to do something about it, so it becomes my duty to make you care, so that I may stop caring, because it becomes something that is not my problem anymore. I am, therefore, completely powerless to stop this, and all I can do is complain and rant in this essay. It is your duty to heed my warning. It is your duty to listen to my advice. I am a faggot, yes, but I have a point. I am not just spewing bullshit. This is a real threat, and I am completely serious about it. I swear to god that this is the single most pressing matter at this moment. Troons are the biggest problem on pisscord right now, and they must be stopped, or at least kept at bay. And, to be frank, this isn't even about the troon anymore. This is about me. My well-being is at risk here. And I am not alone in this. We must protect our freedoms. Our freedoms to say whatever we want, our freedom to say "nigger," our freedom to call a troon a troon and a tranny a tranny. Our freedom to say kike this, kike that. Those sacred words. Our freedom to be autistic. Our freedom to be autistic AND faggots.
