Admitting my wrongs

Now before you go saying "It's okay we all make mistakes Emily" I want you to know this, there's a difference between making a mistake, and being a total bitch! During the past 6 years, I've done some very awful things which were incredibly stupid. Everything that Rico said in that rant is true and I deeply regret it. Even if I do regret it, there's no way I can erase the damage. It's a weight I have to carry with me from being a hypocrite with the NSFW to begging for an invite to one of the most cursed servers on Discord (Thank god that server's gone for good.) I have done horrible things for the past 6 years and I'm ending it NOW. I regret faking my suicide during a rp. I'm not sure if this counts as faking my suicide since it was a roleplay because Ellie actually faked her suicide but that's besides the point, being an emotional manipulator and milking my quicksand fetish to the point of it being done to death. I also really do feel awful, I've been feeling it in the past 6 years and I wish I could take it all back. I can't remember EVERY single terrible thing I did, it's impossible to remember everything I did in the past 6 years, but if I miss any other wrongdoing then I'm deeply sorry for that too.

Being Bossy - My narcissistic attitude was definitely one of the worst things about the damage. I was acting like I ran people's stories and plans, it was terrible and cruel. I should never have acted like a Little Miss Bossy. It was very wrong. I should be happy with the stories no matter who made them. Examples of being bossy were with Xander's new clothes, and Jay's new body.

Emotional Manipulation - My emotional manipulation was also very disgusting, an example of it was when giving names to one of Sean's future kids and oc whenever they're blind, deaf or have a disability.

Faking Suicide during an rp - I know I already said this but I don't think it counts as faking your suicide since it's just an rp, but I'm adding it here cause I still regret it because A, faking suicides is no good and B. Suicide is NEVER suppose to be a joke. I admit, the fake suicide during roleplays are very tasteless. I was wrong for doing it, it ended up making suicide a mean spirited joke. It was terrible and I heavily regret it and I apologise deeply within my healing heart. While it wasn't as bad as Ellie because she ACTUALLY faked her death, fiction or not, it was still childish and idiotic. It was giving people who almost went thorough with it or had a loved one committing suicide the middle finger, while laughing at their faces. During my time, I was helping a close friend of mine AKA SeanTheOctoling (many thanks to him) by returning the favour, helping him prevent suicide.

hating Human Meggy and Human Melony - Since 2019 I wasn't a big fan of Meggy's new design, and Melony was no exception, even before she became human I despised Melony. Luckily it ain't the case anymore since 2021 after the genesis arc, during that time, in June, my nan passed away, a few months before Axol died (I'm not saying it because I want views or that crap, it's because it's true). It made me realise, me and Melony have things in common. Where I realised that things will change for characters and that I should accept it. Now Melony is one of my favourite characters (thanks Wolfychu!) and I honestly do respect Meggy and her future.

Hypocrite about NSFW - I feel absolutely disgusted with myself, how could I say I hated NSFW, when I did it myself. And at a young age, I really feel stupid for being such a hypocrite about it.

Overreacting to Kazuya being in smash - Kazuya, ever since he threw Pit down the cliff along with the other characters seen in the trailer I hated Kazuya so much. But that hate was unjustified and I was going overboard with my anger towards him.

Hating Splatoon 3 because team order lost the splatfest
- I really should've been a lot nicer to this game when it was released

Milking my quicksand fetish - I feel the most mixed on this, but I will say this. I milked that to death and I feel so embarrassed about sharing it at a young age and going way too far with it. However there is 1 thing, just because I have a kink doesn't mean I'm a terrible person. hence why I am again, mixed on it. While yes, I do agree that I was milking my fetish, I will say that. What about the others who have it?

Not accepting (most) change - Change isn't easy for anyone. But I really have been mixed with the change. Depending on what is changed, I would be quite upset with it, whenever it's a scar or a replacement limb, I would get very upset. Change is change and nothing will change, and I'm happy to say I accept it.

Not accepting the fate of other people's ocs - Everyone has their ocs, their own characters, each with their own stories and of course they will have a fate to accept. Something I wish I respected but I would often get very upset because I would get very upset with them. I really wish I should take it back, and accepted their fates ok

Addressing my annoying white knights - Now, to all of my white knights, every single one of you. I am very disappointed in all of you! You defended me, saying I was "innocent" which is bullshit, used the autism card which is NEVER a good idea, attacked Rico despite telling the truth, attacked and forced him into deleting it which he did and caused him to be extremely depressed. Shame on all of you. You even begged people that left me to forgive me like a bunch of children! Threatened to beat up people and created hate art of Ricom which is already very disgraceful! If it weren't for Rico's rant. I wouldn't have been recovering from the 6 years of damage and helping Sean. If it wasn't for that rant, I would have continued to hurt more people, possibly you guys too. There's also another thing, I never said ANYTHING about them making me look like the victim and making Rico the bad guy.

How I've been improving over my break - I've been improving well during my break, mentally especially. I was so happy to be going back into college, cause not only I had to deal with one of the worst summers ever, but also a messy divorce from my parents (2 disasters in 1 summer am I right) Sean has been putting me through different tests and scenarios I hated being in, and I thank him so much for helping me out. I'm working on the road to redemption, while difficult, it's a road we should ALL take. Also don't worry guys, I no longer hate Splatoon 3, I got the game back in september after it came out and was accepting it.

SeantheOctoling - I'm sorry for my emotional manipulation towards the name of one of our future daughter ocs. I should've been calmer about it instead of melting down. I still thank you for helping me get back on track after what I did.

Ghostoftime1 - I apologise for forcing the invite into the server, you didn't deserve to be pressured into inviting me to it, I pushed boundaries and got you and your best friends into trouble, you didn't deserve that at all.

FreddyTheInkling - I'm sorry for overreacting when Jay temporarily died, it was supposed to be your story, not mine. You choose the fates of the characters.

AevhroneMEGGY - I'm sorry for calling you a baka because you couldn't use my dupe, I should've been nicer about it.

SMG-Zeo - I'm sorry for how I acted behind you and I'm sorry again for my attitude to SMG4 back in the day.

RicoGamerBoi - Rico. I'm sorry for what I did to you, getting upset with the Theo plush incident, Hurting you and being aggressive towards you. You didn't deserve that treatment.

Yusaku - I'm sorry for my anger towards you when it comes to Human Meggy, human Desti and human Melony. You're a good person deep down and you deserved so much better. I'm sorry.

Cian - I apologise for blocking you on steam just because you forgot the name of my oc, I didn't mean to hurt you.

Xander - I heavily apologise to you Xander, I shouldn't have gotten upset when you said Agent 8 wasn't real. I shouldn't have been so sensitive and broken when I failed to get your memories and I'm sorry I told you "I wish you were destroyed and rot in hell" I shouldn't have told your friends to cut ties with you, it was stupid, mean spirited and extremely harsh. It could've been another Annalena Schick situation and I could've ended up down the route, cause if things were different, I could've been responsible for your death. You didn't deserve it. I didn't really mean what I said to you, I just said it out of anger not out of hatred. For those who don't know what Annalena did or who she is, here's a video explaining what she did.

SuperfireGmod - I apologise to you for being a bitch when you returned to splatsource, I should never have acted so rash to your return, I'm also sorry for when I demanded for an alternate version with inkling Meggy. Good news is I now appreciate it more after WOTFI 2021, but it doesn't justify that I was incredibly rude about Human Meggy.

Gabriel - I'm sorry for what I said towards you and being so harsh towards you when Siko died.

Cole - I'm sorry for my outburst towards you when it came to Elise Lovelock replacing Lizzie Freeman. I should've accepted sooner rather than later.

Megamatt - I'm sorry for being such a fool and being the reason twin trouble was cancelled, I hope your new projects pay off and hopefully things will get better. I do care for you brother and I wish you good luck. (we're not related btw)

FTGenikit - I'm sorry for being so overprotective and upset with 2 of your characters being blind and mute. I understand why they're like this, they're just themselves and I should respect them.

Demon Octo - I know you retired but I still wanted to apologise to you alot, especially when it came to my opinions on human Meggy back then.

Leopard - I'm sorry for making you change the rant about me. Sure your picture was a little graphic but if that's how you felt about me, I totally understand.

LucarioBoy851 and Hazebits2 - I'm sorry for how I treated you two, I should never have acted so mean towards you and should've been more accepting. You 2 deserve each other.

thesupersmashbro - I'm sorry for what I've done to you, I was wrong for how I acted during the rps and your birthday collab, but most important. I'm heavily sorry about the promise, I should've kept it like you wanted. I really did.

LKGamingART - I apologise heavily to you, the talk we had didn't age well. I should've done what you told me, You're one of the smartest guys I knew and I wish we had more like you, especially years when splatsource was still new.

Double-G-348 - I apologise heavily towards you for being upset over a broken statue and for not accepting the splatorians sooner back when your brother Huntrex117 first created their series to begin with.

If there were people I left out in this apology do know that I'm deeply sorry for hurting you too, again I've been a negative influence for 6 years, I can't remember all the people I hurt.

Improvements - I will improve my attitude and accept changes, fates and other things so a disaster like before will never happen again. I'm also going to be getting rid of the star souls, so there will be 1 final picture with them and once that. Never used again.

Other plans to improve - Speaking of improvements I have other plans to improve as a better person, I'll be keeping my distance from others if needed, and prove to people I'm improving and staying on the road to success, breaking the circle. Rather than just fucking up like most people have done.

Conclusion - I don't want to be the next Ellie, I want to do better than all of the lost causes, examples like BJ, Geofcraze, and dare I say, Heavy the squid. I don't want Mariokoopa to be right with me after what he's done to me, unlike those monsters. I've heavily regretted my actions, I always have, there's also one last thing, I appreciate the forgiveness, but the thing is, I don't want to be blindly forgiven. I need to earn it, and to those who don't forgive me yet or not at all, I understand, forgiveness has to be earned.

I don't want Mariokoopa to be right with me after what he's done to me
