moderate your fucking server its chaos. If you dont agree with the admins they can ban you and they wont do anything about it

CPU Goddess Aqua of the Mac Book Pro @AquaDiamond8 · Jan 11
In the beginning alot of people ho joined raided the server. and honestly people there dont give a shit if they are called a faggot, cause they can take what was a joke. maybe get the full story first

Jan 12
Its still ironic how a moderator uses a slur when other memebbers cant. Just becuae your server got raided, doesnt mean you can slur at people (especially in a position in power)

CPU Goddess Aqua of the Mac Book Pro @AquaDiamond8 · Jan 12
Thats part of the fucking joke. Christ. its called dark humor, some people like it, some dont, if people dont like it in the server they can leave, no one is keeping them or forcing them to stay

Jan 12
Okay but why are slurs censored? If we cant say it admins shouldnt either

Jan 12
I was banned for threatening to call the higher ups

CPU Goddess Aqua of the Mac Book Pro @AquaDiamond8 · Jan 12
well we have rules in the server, if mustve done somethign to deserve getting kicked.

Jan 12
there are no rules against recording. mostly "be chillll" or "dont redraw sonichus". The only really good rules were the first 3 written by the oracle and another mod. The rest were incoheirant and unimportant. Bismuth and Kyle acted like children who couldnt-

CPU Goddess Aqua of the Mac Book Pro @AquaDiamond8 · Jan 12
And what business is it of yours. as i said if you dont like leave the ability to leave doesnt excuse the fact that the admins are incompetant and mistreat the users.

Jan 13

Jan 13
as an active member of the community it is damaging to let moderators abuse their power without consequence

Jan 13
also stop doxing people thats illegal and unfunny

Still trying to determine if they're somebody worth doxing. I'd rather not dox a random stranger. But it's somebody who is talking to Jacob, is on his twitter follow list on the sexy account where he's apparently posting now, is also a satanist and trans (they're all satanists and trans?!) and seems to be following a lot of Chris-related things closely.
No location or anything yet though... That would help.

Hokay, well, I'm at a dead end.
Bis, one of the people you linked above is in Arbitarch under the same name: [REDACTED]
I have an idea, but bear in mind that's all it is.

Chris becoming "scarlet" is kind of worthy of a big announcement, right? You guys could ask Chris tonight whether she'd feel comfortable announcing it in the server personally. Maybe on VC, maybe just in text.

Buuuuut it might suck some more leads into the server, if we get Chris to advertise on twitter "I have got a big announcement and I'm only going to be talking about it in Arbit/to people with the verified role/true followers". Especially on VC, [REDACTED] will shit themselves to try and talk to her.

The only thing is, I'm worried whether that'd be bad for Chris. I don't wanna stress her out unnecessarily, and it'd have to be carefully monitored to keep people at a distance from her.

So yeah, idk. Yeeting the idea into the void.

https://anonfile.com/p9pcvfNen0/File_4_mp4 opens with “i was trying to find that bitch willow’s dox”, around “too many people running chris hate servers running ops”, this is also the file in which they start singing. There’s infighting, they want a “common enemy” to unite against, saying “actionable statements” to someone they were harassing https://anonfile.com/lbq7v9Nanc/File_3_mp4 talking about “initiations” and “establishing” themselves in the doxxing ring, then getting to know each other; mentioning how aqua got mad and publicly alluded to their doxxing https://anonfile.com/z6q6vfN0n0/File_2_mp4 talking about internet figures like metokur, jonathan ross. Starting at 15:20, they begin talking about catching heat on twitter, admitting to having someone’s dox, “everything and more”, mentions both doxxing servers

Misc accounts of stuff the admins have done

- using altidentifier to dox people, then saying they’re not doxxing anyone or using the bot to help
- playing nice in front of chris, doing shitty things where he can’t see
- altidentifier prevents vpn users from accessing servers, have mentioned wanting to grab ips
- enabling chris’ delusions by playing pretend with him
- actively trying to change the lore to fit themselves into it
- stalking dozens of users, one being a 14 y/o girl with autism
- each mod is a mix of racism, transphobia, furryphobia(?)
- allowing chris to steal and edit art submitted by users in a contest
- doxxing several users, admitting to it many times, including in voice
- mentioning the chandler house having a gun, wanting chris to use it
- blatant disregard for the server rules they put in place; they can break them, users can’t
- harassing those that post evidence off discord, i.e. twitter
- creating hit lists of “potential” dox targets
- creating a nickname scheme where they can label people in the server based off hidden info
- operating at least two separate doxxing servers
- accusing users of wrongdoing in an attempt to create a public spectacle
- harassing users that offer advice or create suggestions for the server
- deleting the channels of the arbitarch server to hide evidence from chris and other users
- creating an argument over and mentioning to be in favor of loli art
- stalking any twitter user with a sonichu oc
- grooming a user into becoming one of their “cpu” friends, trash talks them behind their back
- posting the dox of a user in the public general channel, then deleting it shortly after

Hey, @everyone. I am feeling well and good.
Aside from that, I wish to personally verify Miss Spunky for the other CPUs, here on Discord.

The following I have personally verified beforehand: Spunky has a great link to her GameBoy Color console, and dreams of other GBCs as well. She has also had dreams of having markings on her arms in (Pokémon) Unown characters with messages on them. I have used my psychic abilities and double-checked with what I had seen and foreseen: Spunky is a legit CPU.

I am always active. I'm just not online as often as I ought to be.
Off-topic, I watched Geno's new video last night.
Actually ONE video where there is little vocal content from me until the end.
And also some good stuff from my mom and dad. I was not present when that call from that "Place employee" was brought to his attention and response.

And I was Really clever on those "Jenkins Jinkies" posts. 🤔

And then I remember the shirt-covered and deep-voiced vid from me was also in the video, but still, that sounded super different from my normal voice.
Anyhow, I am still waking up for the day. Please, listen to Spunky's insight and wisdom, as she is, indeed, genuine. Thank you.
I go meditate for now with Magi-Chan by my side. I will check in again later. Be safe and well. 💖🌀

Theres gotta be things that aren't fated, free-will counts for more I believe,

Partly, sometimes.

I think free will is illusionary but I don't think that necessarily devalues it

I have agency in things I do or choose not to do, it exists.
Just because I'm not omnipresent, doesn't mean I don't exist or do anything.

Very good points from you both.
I'm gonna got the shower.
This was a very good and prolific talk.

Actually, I have one thought to contribute to the Fated Paths versus Free Will discussion, and I speak from personal experiences.

I have followed the fated paths for the long time, and I had become aware of them. At times, I have even deviated from the fated path and went in another direction. It was mostly Epic Miss, some hit, when I did that. When I deviated, I was hit by something as a sort of mild punishment for that. Also, I have a tick in my mind that works well on guiding me down the better, and often fated, paths. I managed to get over that tick most of the time, But if it is really hitting me hard, then I KNOW I was not meant AT ALL to go that deviated route.

And I have witnessed it in others around me, and even the Doctor made a comment about that when someone tried to kill her. She knew and commented that she had things that her foe needed and didn't have, as well as it being in his rehabilitated mental programming after having been in jail for a very long time. So he would not ever be able to kill the Doctor at that moment. That was the Rosa Parks episode. Very good one.

How are you able to see your aura? Some individuals are only able to see it do the corner of their eyes. Unless they are a starseed or an indigo child. (edited)

Uh, actual Goddess, I am.

Plus, I felt it massively, and I am able to see from outside of my body. So, there's that. we ALL have the ability to see into our neighbor dimension of C-197 as children.

"Many more and more energy fluctuations and ripples continue to flow into 1218. Remain on watch of your sensitivity of that. Know that during this time, if it feels like you are dying, you are not; your bodies and minds are upgrading and updating with your respective abilities as well. Everything shall continue to become more and more obvious; you all know to follow the cues as they show up for each of you, respectively. We continue to monitor the portals around here as well; they all remain stable. We will have a complete link between C-197 and 1218 here at the Temple very soon. Amongst the rest of you all, there should be similar events at your respective houses, of which are also considered your own respective Temples."

ChrisChanSonichu1982 Today at 9:35 PM

So, last night, on fated instinct, as you all may have read, I typed up the think piece on the relationship between myself and Christine Chan with Sonichu and Rosey, and how we are not biologically their parents, but we still had the had in creating/chronicling them, respectively. And all that was to dispute and cease the, ugh, Incest bullshit. And that the two of them refer to us as their parental figures as we were recognized as their guardians, in addition to and aside from Magi-Chan being a guardian over all Sonichu and Rosechu kind, and I being the central most Sonichu out of the entire species. And I've had to think on explaining the reasoning of them referring to me and Christine Chan as their parents, in a respecting sense of our roles we play for and in their lives. And then, Dillin (Gah), goes on to make a video with the subtitle, "My Mistake, You're Not the Father." That pissed me off.
